OTTERBEIN COLLEGE THEATRE PRESENTS *URINETOWN

Otterbein College Theatre continues its 2007-08 season with the much-anticipated production of Urinetown, directed by David Caldwell. The production will run Nov. 1-4 and 8-10 in Cowan Hall, 30 S. Grove St., Westerville.

One of the most uproariously funny musicals in recent years, Urinetown is a tale of greed, corruption, love, and revolution in a time when water is worth its weight in gold. In a Gotham-like city, a terrible water shortage, caused by a 20-year draught, has led to a government-enforced ban on private toilets. The citizens must use public amenities, regulated by a single malevolent company that profits by charging admission for one of humanity's most basic needs. Amid the people, a hero decides he's had enough, and plans a revolution to lead them all to freedom!

Inspired by the works of Bertolt Brecht and Kurt Weill, Urinetown is an irreverently humorous satire in which no one is safe from scrutiny. Praised for reinvigorating the very notion of what a musical could be, Urinetown catapults the "comedic romp" into the new millennium with its outrageous perspective, wickedly modern wit, and sustained ability to produce gales of unbridled laughter.

Tickets are $20 each and can be reserved by calling the Otterbein College box office at (614) 823-1109. The box office is open 1:00-4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday and one hour prior to performances. The box office is located in Cowan Hall, 30 S. Grove St., Westerville.

The opening night performance on Thursday, Nov. 1, begins at 7:30 p.m. The Sunday matinee on Sunday, Nov. 4, begins at 2 p.m. All other performances begin at 7:30 p.m.
