

How long could you live in hiding under an assumed name?

Novelist Sir Salman Rushdie lived in hiding under the name Joseph Anton for a decade after Ayatollah Khomeini, the religious and political leader of Iran, called for his assassination on the grounds of “blasphemy.” Now an international icon of free speech, Rushdie wrote about his time in hiding in Joseph Anton - A Memoir, published in September 2012.

Learn more about Rushdie at www.salman-rushdie.com, then come see him at the Vernon L. Pack Distinguished Lecture Series Convocation.

Tickets are available NOW to the campus community at the Cowan Hall box office: 823-1109. Tickets will be available to Otterbein alumni beginning March 3.
