Otterbein Strikes Late To Beat Marietta, 12-7

Otterbein covered 57 yards in three plays with less than three minutes to play to defeat Marietta, 12-7, in the Cardinal Homecoming game at Westerville Saturday. Quarterback Lee Newell passed 42 yards to Halfback Bill Heltz for the winning touchdown. Heltz also scored the first Card TD on a 31-yard pass from Mel Staats.

MARIETTA HAD taken the opening kickoff 56 yards in 12 plays with Rudy Sharkey cracking guard from a yard away for the touchdown. The Pioneers suffered a big setback in the first half when starting guard and Co-captain Nunzio Chelli suffered a broken arm. Otterbein pulled its season record to two wins, three losses and a tie as Marietta lost its fifth straight.
