between the two schools dating back to 1889.

Wooster, with victories over Ashland, Kenyon and Mt. Union, has piled up 85 points while holding foes to 12.

Confining their efforts largely to the running game, the Scots have ground out 801 yards rushing—best in the conference. The defensive platoon has given up only 315 yards on the ground and 213 by passing.

IN OTHER conference action Capital returns home to face Kenyon. Ohio Wesleyan should right itself against winless Hiram in Delaware. Akron takes it power plant to Heidelberg and Mt. Union is at Muskingum, both at night.

Wittenberg, the team leader in offense (380 yards) and defense (142.3) is at home to Marietta.

LEE TRESSEL'S Baldwin-Wallace Yellow Jackets, winners of all three games this season in most impressive fashion, shoots for number four at Eastern Michigan

Friday night in Ohio's non-conference headliner.

On Saturday unbeaten Central State goes to Kentucky State. Cincinnati's Bearcats (1-3) face another rough session at home against the Air Force Academy. Dayton travels to Louisville and Miami, flashing the long-awaited form against Kent State, takes a big jump into the Big Ten at Purdue. Xavier's Musketeers are scheduled at Ohio University and Youngstown is host to Southern Connecticut Saturday night.

CLEAT BLEAT — Using every opportunity to season his yearlings, Coach Gene Slaughter employed 14 freshmen as the Lutherans romped over Hiram, 40-0... after his Falcons had done a thorough job of whipping Western Michigan, 21-0, BG coach Doyt Perry admitted: "We've got a good football team."

That could be the understatement of the week... Defiance quarterback Tom Grzywinski was as busy a thrower as a World Series pitcher against Ashland, Tom completed 20 of 34 passes for 275 yards and two TDs... Bluffton halfback Mike Goings was just like his name as he went for 146 yards in 27 carries as the Bluffs nudged Wilmington 8-6... George Deo's 41 carries (for 186 yards) in Akron's rout of Ohio Wesleyan tied the Ohio Conference record set by Wooster's Steve McClellan in 1959 against Ashland... Coach Bob Winterburn of Heidelberg was so impressed with Wittenberg that he tabbed the Tigers to win the Ohio Conference crown this season.

Delaware Leads

NEW YORK (AP)—Delaware, with a spotless 3-0 record, rolled up a perfect score Tuesday in the weekly Lambert Cup balloting for the top small college football team in the East.
