

OTTERBEIN QUEEN—Cleveland's Jill Marie Jenkins presents a bright, smiling face to homecoming day crowds at Otterbein College as she parades as 1963 homecoming queen. Jill had the place of honor in the pre-game parade Saturday.

Storm Batters Burma Capital

RANGOON, Burma, (AP)—A cyclonic storm traveling at 66 miles an hour struck this capital city, causing at least three deaths and widespread damage. The winds uprooted many trees and caused at least 100 poles supporting overhead cables to snap.

Avid Readers

OTTAWA (AP)—Russian fishing boat skippers are most avid readers of studies published by Canada's fisheries research board, MP Frank Howard told the House of Commons. He suggested Canadian fishermen make as much use of the research as the Russians.

FORMER OTTERBEIN QUEENS RETURN

Nineteen of Otterbein College's homecoming queens, dating from the first in 1933 through 1963, got together Saturday prior to the game to talk over a topic of mutual interest. At the center front row, with the bouquet, is 1963 Homecoming Queen Jill Jenkins of Cleveland. The queens, most of them now married and their date of reign are first row left to right: Mrs. Dominick Mongiardo (Ida Hartsook), 1934; Mrs. Reginald Parson (Sharon Martin), 1960; Mrs. Maurice Schultz (Sue Hartigan), 1952; Patricia Smith, 1961; Miss Jenkins; Mrs. Robert Brown (Ann Carlson), 1949; Mrs. Robert Beattie (Marilyn Shuck), 1944; and Mrs. Jack

Pietila (Mary Jean Barnhard), 1958. Row two: Mrs. Glen Poff (Mary Ellen Kraner), 1937; Mrs. Denton Elliott (Louise Bowser), 1934; Mrs. James Goddard (Marjorie Bowser), 1933; Mrs. Leonard Feightner (Barbara Bone), 1946; Mrs. Robert Morris (Julia Thomas), 1942; Mrs. George Curry (Betty Anglemeyer), 1940; and Nancy Lansdowne, 1959. Row three: Mrs. C. Brandenburg (Constance Bailey), 1948; Mrs. Kenneth Foltz (Juanita Gardis), 1945; Mrs. Calvin Peters (Ellen Coleman), 1947; and Mrs. Max Mickey (Alice Carlson), 1951.—(Dispatch Photos)

OTTERBEIN'S BEST FLOAT—Lambda Gamma Epsilon (Kings) fraternity won first prize in the Otterbein College homecoming float contest with this entry. Second place went to Beta Nu (Greenwich) Sorority. Arbutus Sorority won third place.—(Dispatch Photo)