

AN ABSOLUTE TURKEY

By Georges Feydeau
Translated by Nicki Freil & Peter Hall
Directed by Ed Vaughan
February 5-8, 12-14
Cowan Hall, 30 S Grove St.

Georges Feydeau's elegantly complex play is brought to life in this witty, seamless and acutely funny translation by Peter Hall and Nicki Frei. In French the title is "Le Dindon," plain and simple. It means the turkey – or the dupe. And, isn't there at least one dupe or fool in every marriage? A lecherous lout lusts after his friend's wife, who hatches a mischievous revenge plot. Liaisons are arranged and bungled in a shady hotel, couples re-couple, and bedtime leads to bedlam.

High School Matinee: Wednesday, February 4 - 10:00 a.m.

Georges Feydeau's elegantly complex play is brought to life in this witty; seamless and acutely funny translation.

A lecherous lout lusts after his friend's wife, who hatches a mischievous revenge plot. Liaisons are arranged and bungled in a shady hotel, couples re-couple, and bedtime leads to bedlam.

Feydeau, the supreme master of farce, displays all his dramatic tricks as his characters are pulled back and forth spinning dizzily in a surrealistic climax of complications.

Don't be the TURKEY, book your group for an ABSOLUTELY great time!
