

Queen Elected At Otterbein

Tasha Rone, a 21-year-old senior of near Wapakoneta, Ohio, has been chosen homecoming queen at Otterbein College.

Miss Rone, a music education major, was elected over seven other candidates in a campus-wide poll. She will be crowned during halftime ceremonies of the Otterbein-Marietta football game on Otterbein's Westerville campus Saturday.

Miss Rone

HOMECOMING activities begin at 9 a.m. Saturday when Otterbein's President Thomas Kerr will hold an open house at his home.

Theme of the annual homecoming parade at 10:30 a.m. will be "Fall Fantasy." In addition to the Otterbein marching band, bands from Big Walnut, Springboro, Westland and Johnstown High Schools will march in the parade.

FOLLOWING the football game, Otterbein theater students will present the homecoming play, "Life With Father" at 8:15 p.m. in Cowan Hall auditorium.