

Grossberg -

This complaint did not deserve press coverage. It is stupid ~~and~~. Were there deaf students enrolled in the Otterbein theater dept? And if so were they qualified to be cast in the part? That would be the only legitimate complaint that could be made - Did they pick the other 4 productions? If not why not -

There have been many films made depicting a physical handicap. One older actress received an acad. award for portraying a blind actress - no one has ever complained. Professor Vaughn's ^{qualified} statement is absolutely correct -

The O H A D is entirely out of line in their stand - Someone is trying to help us understand - What right do they have to question a college or university unless they are enrolled, paying tuition, to (tell) them what to do, advise to suggest to dictate
