Cards Host Mt. Union; Cap Away

A couple of early-season unbeaten teams get together Saturday night in Tiffin when Capital University challenges Heidelberg at 8 p.m.

The winless Otterbein College Cardinals are at home against Mt. Union in another 8 p.m. contest under the Memorial Stadium lights in Westerville.

Both games are Ohio Conference tests.

Cap opened with a 29-6 win over independent Ohio Northern and edged Denison, 21-14, in its OC opener last week. Heidelberg has beaten Ohio Wesleyan, 22-0, and Hiram, 23-7, and holds a 33-0 non-conference win over Olivet.

Otterbein, seeking its first win in four starts, has dropped 41-17 and 76-7 decisions to Kenyon and Wittenberg and lost to independent Ashland by a 37-7 margin. Mt. Union's 2-1 record includes a 26-22 loss to Wooster and a pair of non-conference victories over Rochester, 61-30, and Grove City, 21-18.
