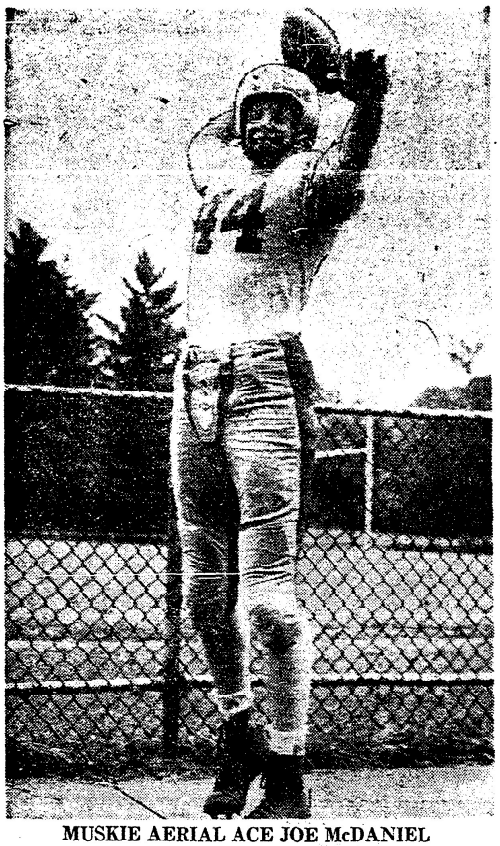
Capital, Muskies Duel In Vital OC Contest



MUSKIE AERIAL ACE JOE McDANIEL
Matches Skills with Cap's Hal Horton

By DICK OTTE

Capital, shorn of its early season prominence by Heidelberg, gets a final chance for Ohio Conference glory in a game against equally rugged Muskingum at Bernlohr Stadium Saturday afternoon.

The meeting of the once-beaten Muskies and Lutherans is one of the highlights on an attractive 21-game Ohio college card.

Muskingum, currently tied with Heidelberg for the conference lead with three wins and a tie, can take an exclusive hold on the top rung with a victory over Cap, whose only loss was to the Tiffin crew with which Muskingum played a 13-13 tie. The Muskies are unbeaten since an opening loss to Toledo.

Saturday's game is even more attractive because of the expected two-man duel between Muskingum quarterback Joe McDaniel and Cap halfback Hal Horton.

Both were in the state spotlight last week, McDaniel for his passing feats against Wooster and Horton for his spectacular running against Kenton. The nimble Lutheran halfback scored three of his team's four touchdowns against Kenyon, all on long runs. One was a 96-yard jaunt from scrimmage which was two yards longer than the listed state record run by Dayton's Leroy Ka-Ne in 1949.

Muskingum hopes to use the game as a springboard to the mythical conference title since it represents the "extra" game by which the Muskies can break up the tight race with Hiedelberg. The Princes, playing at Morris Harvey Saturday night, have only two league games remaining against three for Muskingum.

Both teams have able backing for their star performers although bothered by a rash of minor injuries. Muskie coach Ed Sherman said earlier this week his reports indicate the Lutherans were far below their peak in losing to Heidelberg 34-7—a fact which was painfully obvious to Cap coach Jack Landrum.

The Lutherans, however, are now in a position where they must win to stay in the conference race. Five teams are heading down the stretch with fewer than two league losses and a second defeat virtually spells the end of anyone's title hopes.

Landrum is convinced, as he was before the Heidelberg game, that only a tip-top effort by the entire Lutheran crew can provide an upset.

Elsewhere in the conference. It's Hiram (0-1) at Otterbein (1-3); Denison (3-1) at Wittenberg (3-2); Ohio Wesleyan (2-1) at Mt. Union (0-4); and Wooster (1-2) at Akron (3-2).

Miami's powerful and unbeaten Redskins (5-0) figure to wrap up Mid-America Conference honors in their fourth and final league game, a homecoming match at Oxford against Western Michigan. The Broncos have a 1-2 record in Mid-Am play.

Ohio U's Bobcats, their unbeaten season and title hopes blasted by the Redskins last week, invade the ancient eastern Ivy League for an intersectional tussle with Harvard. Other Mid-America games find Bowling Green (0-3) at Kent State (2-1) and Marshall (1-2) at Western Reserve (1-2).

Statewide leader Cincinnati (6-0) continues down its rugged independent path in a home game with College of Pacific. Ashland, which has a 5-0 season mark and 2-0 Mid-Ohio record, can move a step closer to its league crown in a home game with Findlay.

Elsewhere, it's Adrian at Wilmington, Xavier at Boston College, Ohio Northern at Marietta, Rochester at Oberlin, Toledo at Eastern Kentucky, Kenyon at Hamilton, N. Y., Manchester, Ind., at Bluffton, Anderson, Ind. at Defiance and Youngstown at John Carroll in a night game.

It's Homecoming at Capital, Otterbein and Wittenberg Saturday but only the Otters rate more than an even chance of providing returning alumni with a victory.

Hiram and Otterbein both tasted victory for the first time last week, so one seems fated to enjoy an extremely short "winning streak." Hiram has a 1-2-1 record against 1-4 for the Cardinals, but Otterbein rates the favorite tag off comparative showings against Marietta.

Otterbein blasted the Pioneers, 26-7 last week. Hiram could manage only a 12-12 tie with Marietta a week earlier.

Game time is 2:15 at Westerville and 2 p. m. at Capital.

Wittenberg's Homecoming foe, the Big Red from Granville, is pointing for a showdown with Muskingum next week.

Ohio Wesleyan, meanwhile, also is favored to keep its title hopes blazing for a pivotal meeting with Heidelberg Nov. 6.
