

QUEEN CHOSEN—Selected to reign over Otterbein College homecoming festivities was Mary Jean Barnhard, right. Her court includes, from left, Carol Morse, Sara Elberfield, Jill Davenport, Judy Graham and Grace Ann Wolfersberger.

trustees, councilmen have	per
argued that Westerville resi-	cei

NEWS ROUNDUP

IN THE SUBURBS

Read Kingsbury, Suburban Reporter

Otterbein's Homecoming Big Event at Westerville

Red-haired Mary Jean Barnhard of South Euclid is queen of Otterbein College's fall homecoming Saturday at Westerville.

She'll be crowned just before the Otterbein-Hiram College football game at 2 p.m. Saturday. A parade will start at 1 p.m.

The girls represent Otterbein sororities.

Miss Barnhard is studying elementary education. She is a majorette in the marching band and a student council member.

Attendants are: Grace Ann Wolfersberger, Shiloh, maid of honor; Carol Morse, Worthington, first attendant, and Sara Elberfield of Westerville, Judy Graham of Brookville and Jill Davenport of Medina.

Other events of Saturday are a coffee period at Clements Hall lounge from 9 to 11 a. m., when alumni may meet the new president, Dr. Lynn W. Turner, and Mrs. Turner; sorority and fraternity luncheons at noon and a homecoming dance in Barlow Hall in the evening.

WESTERVILLE

Township Hearing Set for Dec. 1

Arguments on making a separate township out of Westerville will be heard by county commissioners at 10 a.m. Dec. 1.

The village has asked to be separated from Blendon Twp. In debate with Blendon Twp.

den
the
tion
tax.
E
abo
valu

W.

tor
cal
ing
por
ard
Rol
lief
the
rec
bet
the fun
$12
me:
sav
is s
est-
am:
I
Apr

Ap
per cei

12 TO

