

FORMER CAMBRIDGE BOYS ARE SUFFERING INJURIES

Three former teammates at Cambridge High School have been sidelined with injuries while performing at three different colleges in the Ohio Conference.

Ray Volz, dashing fullback for Denison was injured against Wooster a week ago, missed the game with Ohio Wesleyan, and may not have that leg ready next Saturday for the game at Muskingum.

Dave Wade, freshman surprise at Otterbein who led the Otters to two Conference wins, suffered a fractured leg this week-end in the game with Wilmington.

And at Muskingum, it's doubtful if Bob Jones, a halfback, is able to recover from leg bruises in time to perform against Denison. Jones was limping even before the Wooster game.
