FIRST TIE IN 31-YEAR SERIES

Cap, Otters Battle to 18-18

By CHARLIE FRUSH, Dispatch Sports Writer

Capital and Otterbein battled to an 18-18 tie—first in the 31-year history of their series—Saturday afternoon at Capital's Bernlohr Stadium.

Five attempted kicks for the extra point sailed wide of the uprights, a Capital two-point passing try was intercepted and a 49-yard field goal attempt by Otterbein with one second left in the game went the way of the kicks—wide.

Otterbein scored a slim but clear advantage in most of the statistics but three times had to battle back from a touchdown deficit as Capital kept applying the pressure in this traditional rivalry.

Otterbein outrushed the Lutherans 208 yards to 165, outpassed them 37-35, but also picked up a damaging 56 yards in penalties, to but 10 for Capital.

THE RIVAL fullbacks scored five of the six touchdowns, Otterbein's Gary Allen bulling over three times, Capital's Tony Lorenzen twice and Cap halfback John Caronis streaking 27 yards for the longest scoring run of the game.

Caronis intercepted a Larry Cline pass and returned it 32 yards to set up Cap's first, 47-yard TD drive, but Otterbein banged back on a 61-yard march of its own to make it 6-6 at halftime.

Cap went ahead 12-6 after a 71-yard third period drive and here the only passing try for extra points failed.

OTTERBEIN end Duane Correll blocked Al White's punt on the Capital 31 on the first play of the fourth quarter and although White picked it up to run with it, he was downed on the Capital 7. In three plays, Allen was over to tie it, 12-12

Cap quarterback Ron Rankin then took the kickoff and returned 24 yards to Otterbein's 48. In four plays Cap had scored, thanks to a weird penalty called when Correll, in tackling Randy Worch, was called for a personal foul in trying to swipe the ball. Caronis added the final 27 on a pretty sweep, outrunning a field of tacklers for an 18-12 Cap lead.

Otterbein took the ensuing kickoff and marched 67 yards, Allen belting over the last eight without a hand being laid on him.

GARY FIELDS tried the field goal for the Otters from Cap's 32-yard stripe, with the ball being held for him on the 30.

The ball had plenty of carry and looked like it might be good but no one breathed as the official stood motionless, watching its flight. After an eternity, he rendered his verdict — no good.

Halfback Jack Spicer of Otterbein led all ball carriers with 75 yards in 13 trips, and Allen made 63 in 14. Cline completed three of seven passes for 37 yards but had one intercepted.

Randy Worch's 60 yards in 12 trips led Capital, with Lorenzen getting 47 in 15. Caronis 45 in nine and White eight in five tries.

Redskins Romp 34-0 Over UD

OXFORD, OHIO—(AP)—An alert band of Miami Redskins cashed in on a flock of opportunities and a good ground game in a 34-0 football rout of Dayton Saturday.

The Mid-American Conference champs had a touchdown in the first 10 seconds of play after George Scott gathered in the kickoff and streaked 90 yards to pay dirt.

On the last two markers, guard Jim Daniels filched a Flyer pass and traveled 20 yards to score and halfback Tom Jennell finished up with a wild 53-yard touchdown punt return.

DAYTON GUARDS Don Edick and Steve Palenchar and tackle Emil Karras performed yeoman service in a losing cause, but Miami's rock-hard line held the Flyers to minus 27 yards on the ground, and a strong aerial defense scuttled all but eight Dayton passes.
