SUMMER AND SMOKE, one of Tennessee Williams' most highly regarded dramas, will play Tuesday thru Saturday, July 18-22. (ALL OPENING NIGHT TICKETS ARE $1.00.) The play is a simple love story of a somewhat puritanical Southern girl and an unpuritanical young doctor. They are attracted to each other but because of their divergent attitudes towards life, each is driven away from the other. A strongly moving and affecting play. The play will be directed by Gerald Ness, Managing Director of the Players Club of Columbus. The cast will feature Bec Holford, Peter Jolly, David Mack, David Graf, Marcia Quick and Shelley Russell.
