The Butter and Egg Man.....

Down-home Peter Jones (Rusty Harding, right) is hit up by secretary Jane Weston (Molly Camp, right) and her boss cigar-smoking former theatrical agent Joe Lehman (Adam Workman) to fund their Broadway "hit" in Otterbein's production of The Butter and Egg Man. The show ran from Oct. 16-19 and Oct. 23-25.

The showbiz duo finds themselves surrounded by obstacles, including a demanding fading leading lady, a secretary wanting to get paid, ex-vaudevillian wife and the fact that they have no money, when they arrive on Broadway. They look to their "butter-and-egg man," Peter Jones, to finance their dream and butt out. Before he knows it, Jones owns 49 percent of the production. When the show hits big, the original producers are replaced and Jones faces a plagiarism suit brought about by the author of the show and the original producers who want back in it.

Violet

Violet, a musical story of enlightenment during the dawn of civil rights. One of the most acclaimed off-Broadway shows of the 1990s, Violet astounded critics and audiences with its powerful story, its energetic, toe-tapping gospel, rock, country and rhythm and blues score and its well-crafted book and lyrics.

Based on a book and lyrics by Brian Crawley and featuring music by Jeanine Tesori, Violet is set in 1964 in the Deep South during the early days of the Civil Rights Movement. It follows the growth and enlightenment of a bitter young woman accidentally scarred by her father. In hopes that a TV evangelist can cure her, she embarks on a journey by bus from her sleepy North Carolina town to Oklahoma. Along the way, she meets a young black soldier who teaches her about beauty, love, courage and what it means to be an outsider. Otterbein's production of Violet is directed by David Caldwell, a 1986 graduate of Otterbein, director and Guest Equity Actor.

-Elizabeth Saltzgiver

The Ugly Duckling + 2

Otterbein College Theatre presents its annual Children's Theatre Production, The Ugly Duckling + 2. The classic stories of Hans Christian Andersen come to life in this lesson on writing and creativity. Young Hans has a terrific imagination – one so real that the voices in his head actually come to life. Simon Scowell (complete with British accent), Tenacious Q, Cartman Copy and others join Hans on stage and encourage him to create his first stories. Through their instruction, The Ugly Duckling, Thumbelina and The Brave Tin Soldier are magically created. Your young ones will be eager to put pen to paper after this inspirational staging.

Honoraries

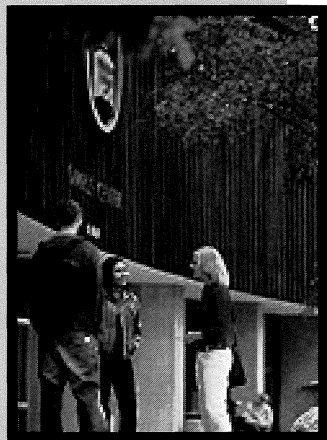

Alpha Epsilon Delta (AED) - National Pre-Med Honorary

AED is a national premedical honor society, whose function is to support those students who are considering careers in health related fields through the processes of building an appropriate curriculum, vitae, applying to postgraduate schools, and preparing for interviews. All students who are in good standing with the college, and have a cumulative and science GPA of 3.0 are eligible to apply in their sophomore year.

Alpha Lambda Delta - National Freshman Academic Honorary

Alpha Lambda Delta is a national academic honorary for students who have achieved at least a 3.5 GPA and are in the top 20 percent of their class in their first year of college. At Otterbein, eligible students are invited to lifetime membership after winter quarter of their freshman year and are active in the chapter during their sophomore year.

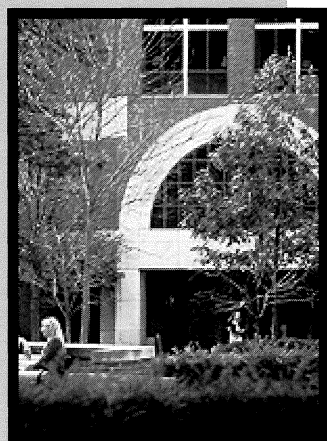

Mortar Board (Senior Leadership/Service Honor Society)

Mortar Board is the seniors men's and women's leadership/service honor society at Otterbein College. The group strives to foster the qualities of selfless service and leadership and the improvement of our College community. To become a member, students must have a 3.2 or higher GPA and have demonstrated and committed him/herself to continue distinguished scholarship, leadership and service to the College community

Pi Kappa Delta

Students at Otterbein have the opportunity to participate in Pi Kappa Delta, which is the speech and debate honorary. As part of this activity, we travel to other Colleges and Universities and compete in speech events or debate. Public Address events include: After Dinner Speaking (Humorous), Informative Speaking, Persuasive Speaking, Impromptu, Rhetorical Criticism, and Extemporaneous Speaking. Interpretation events include: Duo, Dramatic Interpretation, Poetry, Prose, and Programmed Oral Interpretation. The 2004-2005 Lincoln-Douglas debate topic involves reform of the United States' prison system.

Order of Omega

Order of Omega is a national leadership honor society recognizing academic achievement, Greek leadership, and service to the campus community. Members must have at least 3.0 GPA and junior or senior status. The purpose of this organization is to recognize individuals in the Greek community who have shown exemplary service to their chapter, the Greek community and Otterbein College.

Honoraries

Phi Alpha Theta

Phi Alpha Theta is a national history honorary open to any student with 15 hours in history and a 3.9 GPA. Otterbein's Beta Zeta chapter also has a local membership for students that do not meet the national requirements.

Phi Eta Sigma

Phi Eta Sigma is an academic honorary that initiates 25,000 freshmen annually across the nation. Eligibility is determined by obtaining at least a 3.5 GPA for the first two or three terms of the freshman year. The organization offers tutoring service during the academic year.

Phi Sigma Iota

Phi Sigma Iota is the National Honorary Romance Language and Literature Society. Phi Sigma Iota's purpose is to foster the appreciation and study of all foreign languages and their respective literature and culture.

Pi Kappa Delta

Pi Kappa Delta is a national honorary for students who participate in forensic and communication activities. Students prepare for and attend speech and debate tournaments or participate in communication activities qualifying them for membership, through continued participation and appropriate GPA students can earn higher level degrees within the honorary. Pi Kappa Delta was the first honorary established at Otterbein College in 1924.

Psi Chi and Psychology Symposium

Psi Chi is an invitation only honor society. Psi Chi sponsors the Psych Symposium speaker series, and plans other activities relevant to psychology and to applying for graduate school. Psi Chi also sponsors national and regional under-graduate and graduate research award programs, and publishes a quarterly national newsletter to inform members of Psi Chi's opportunities at all levels. Psych Symposium is a speaker series whose purpose is to encourage students to explore the various fields of psychology through special speakers brought to campus and also to enlighten students about the research opportunities available to them with the faculty.

Sigma Zeta

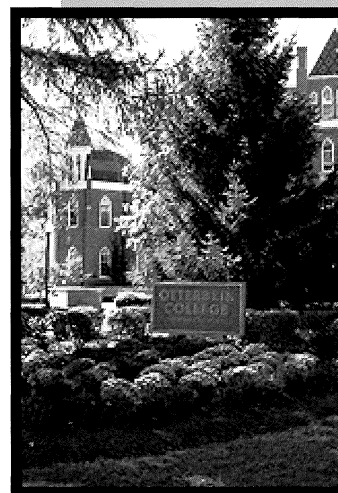

The purpose of this national honorary society is to encourage undergraduate work in science and to recognize scholarship. Active membership is limited to junior and senior students who have high scholarship and character are majoring in biology, equine science, chemistry, mathematics, physics or computer science.

Torch and Key

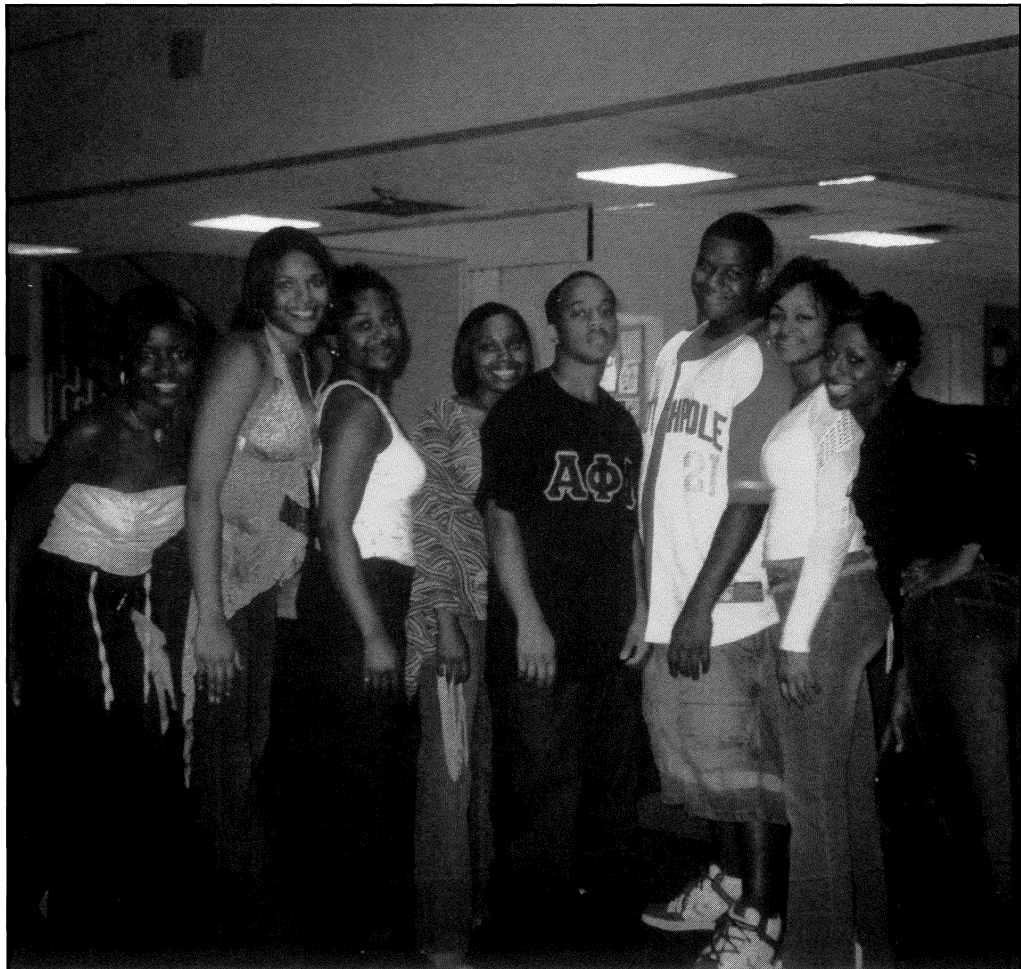

Torch and Key is an honorary organization for the recognition of distinctive achievement in general scholarship. Seniors and juniors, with exceptional cumulative records are elected (3.7 GPA).

Delta Omicron

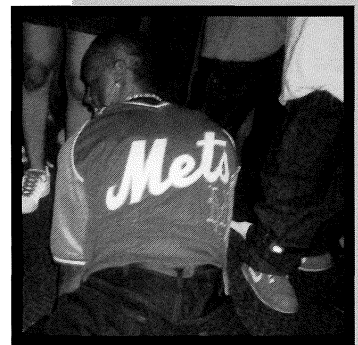

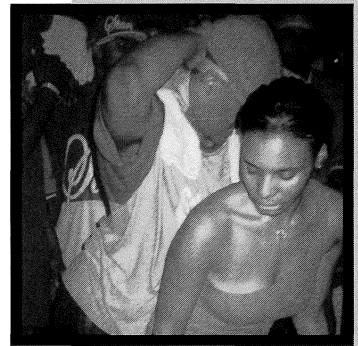

Delta Omicron is an international honorary for men and women pursuing the discipline of music in college. Members must be at least sophomores, and are chosen on the basis of academic and musical achievement. Delta Omicron carries out educational and service activities.

Greek Life Mission Statement

As members and supporters of fraternities and sororities at Otterbein College, we envision a Greek community that connects and supports all Interfraternity Council, Panhellenic and National Pan-Hellenic Council chapters as an integral part of the College. We commit to building a strong community through focus on academic achievement, community engagement, leadership development, friendship and social advancement. Collaboration between chapters, reflection on our purposes/practices and appreciation for diversity are foremost tenets in our efforts to be a dynamic Greek community.

Tau Delta

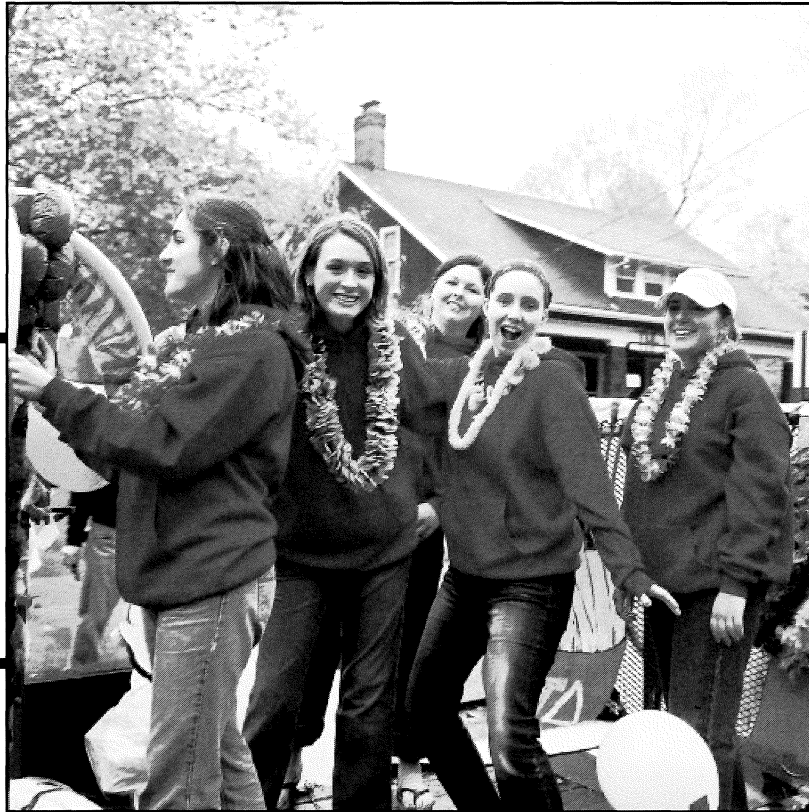

Tomo Dachi was founded in 1921-1922; these two words compose a Japanese phrase meaning “circle of friends.”

In 1930, Opal Wylie designed a coat of arms, or crest, for Tomo Dachi. The coat of arms included, a shield with ten stars, a flaming torch, sweet pea and diagonal stripes of blue and white.

The Greek Letters Tau Delta represent a symbol of friendliness and loyalty on Otterbein’s campus.

To thine

Tau Epsilon Mu

Tau Epsilon Mu, organized in 1914 represents the second oldest sorority on campus. The group was organized by seven young women living in Cochran Hall who called themselves C.O.D., cream of the dorm.

The official Greek name, Tau Epsilon Mu, was chosen by the founders from “Tosauti Eisi Monai,” which is Greek for “So many people are alone.” The name was chosen to represent them as Tailsman, meaning a good luck charm.

Sigma Delta Phi

For over 75 years the Sigma Delta Phi fraternity has given members the opportunity to develop leadership and self-confidence skills, and has also provided a social outlet during their years at Otterbein.

The official colors of the fraternity are green and white. Their nickname is “Sphinx” and their motto is “Truth to us above all.”

Zeta Phi

On September 26, 1921, the college faculty reversed a long-standing policy and recognized three men's social groups. Cook House was one of them. In the same year Lakota was founded. Later the Greek letters Delta Beta Kappa was given to Cook House and Lambda Kappa Tau to Lakota.....

In the fall of 1931 Zeta Phi Fraternity was created by the union of the Cook House and Lakota.

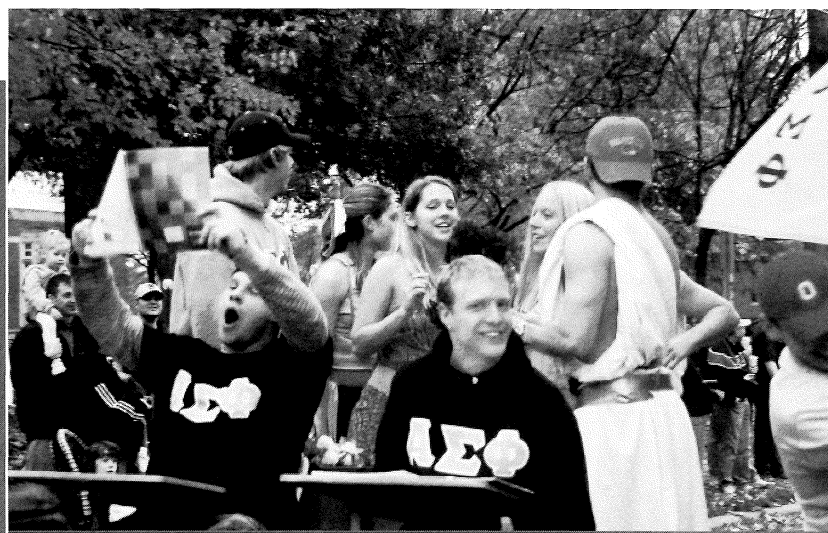

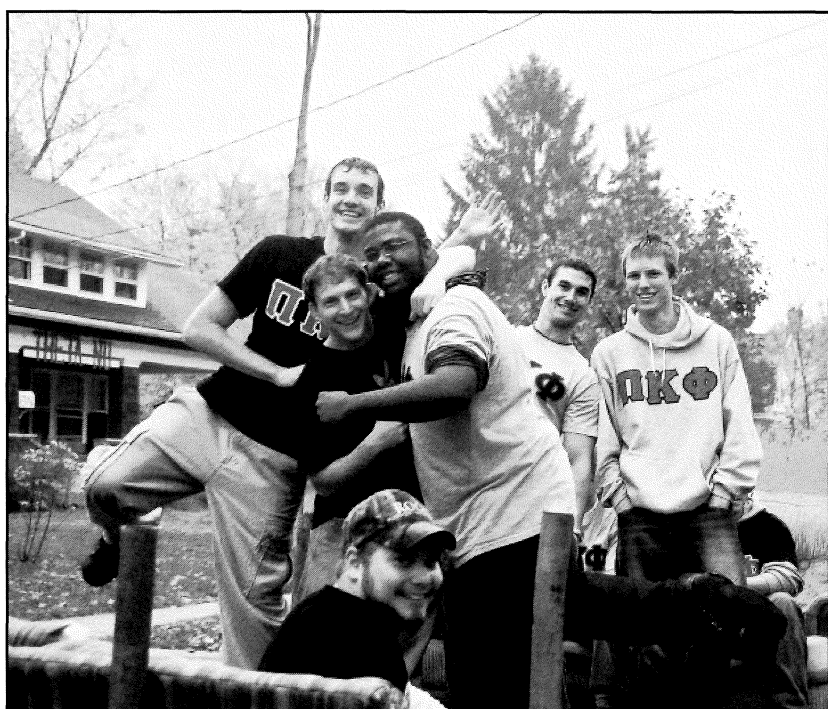

Zeta Phi is also known around Otterbein as the Rats or plain Zeta. Their colors are gold and black and their sister sorority is the Sigma Alpha Tau (Owls).

Football

Rob Schaar celebrates after taking down a Muskingum quarterback. Schaar, a senior team captian, was fifth in the OAC with seven sacks on the season. Otterbein lost to Muskingum, 20-12, in New Concord.

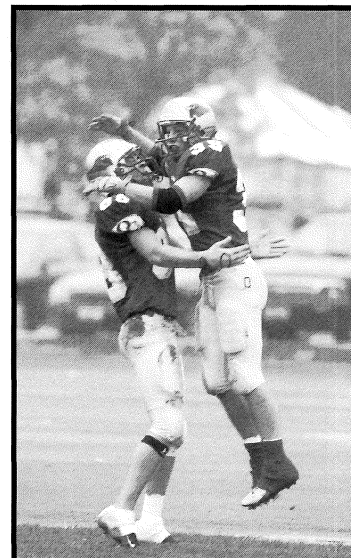

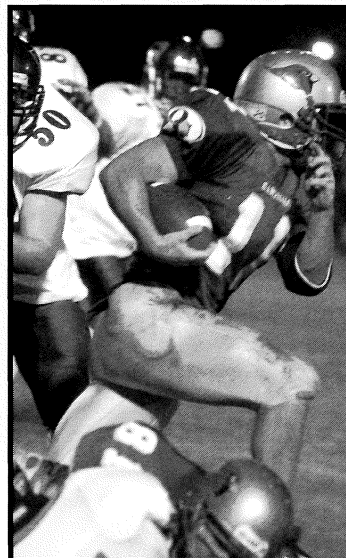

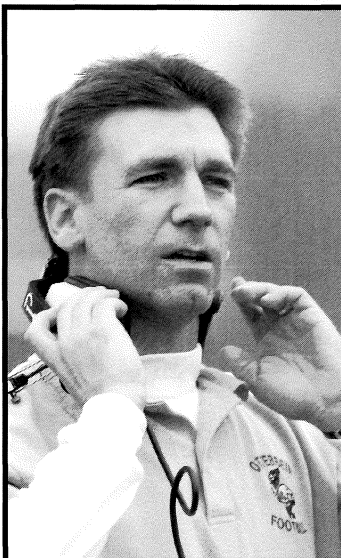

Micheaux Robinson (3) lays out in an attempt to block a Wilmington kick. Robinson was named the team's Most Valuable Player. Otterbein beat Wilmington, 30-21.

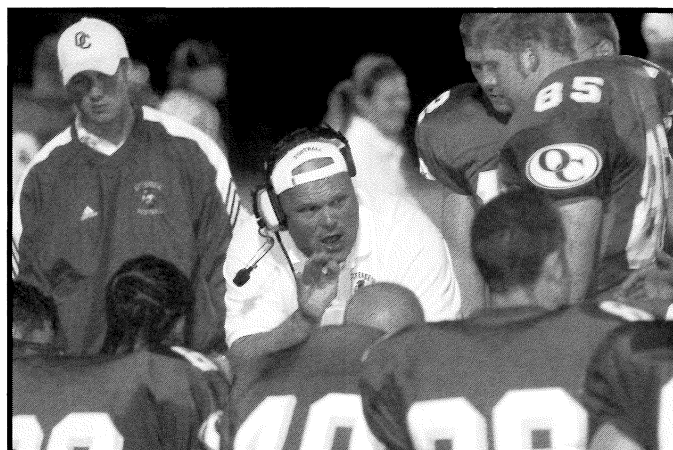

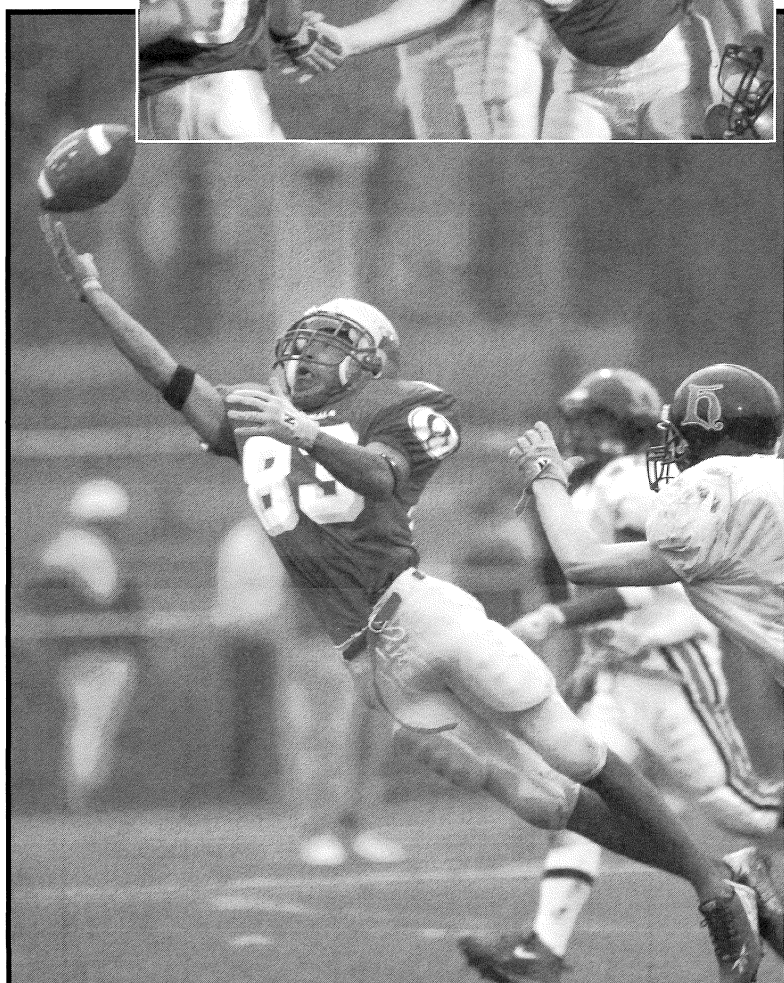

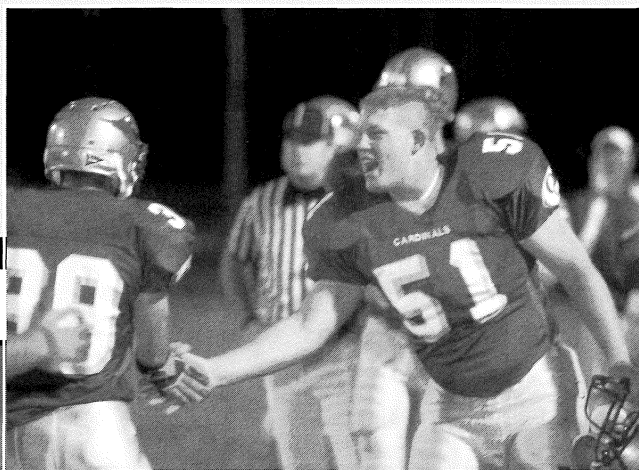

Joe Loth returned to his alma mater in 2003 as Otterbein's head football coach.

Micheaux Robinson was indeed number one this season. The junior led the OAC with seven interceptions from his cornerback position. His performance earned first-team All-OAC honors.

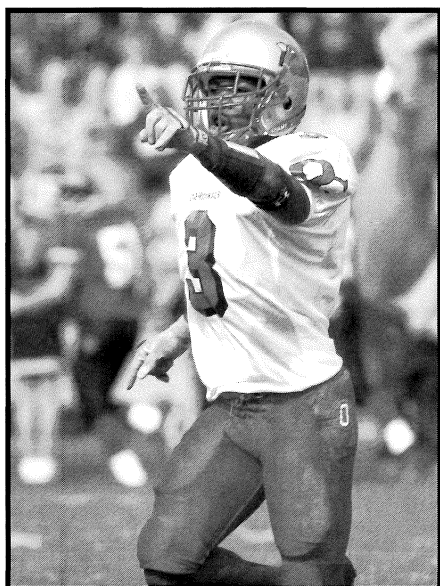

John Conroy (35) was welcomed with open arms after transferring from Kean University.

Offensive coordinator Tim Doup, instructs the offense between possessions. Another Otterbein alum, Doup made his return to the Tan and Cardinal as part of Coach Loaf's staff.

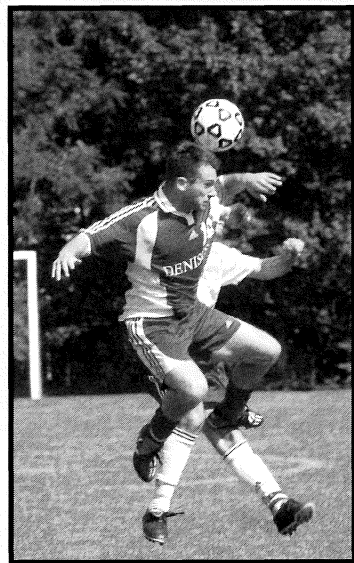

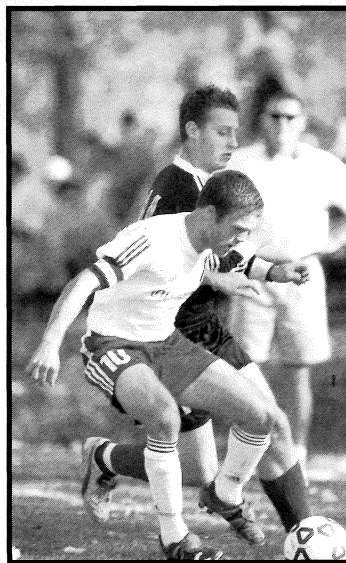

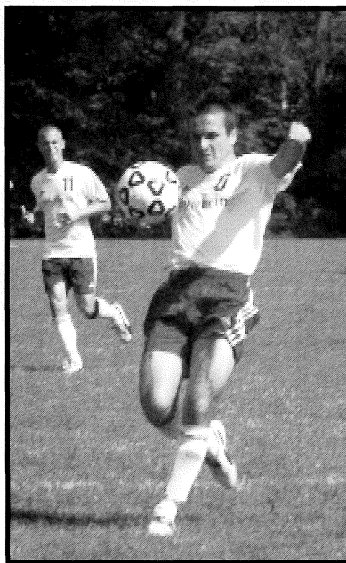

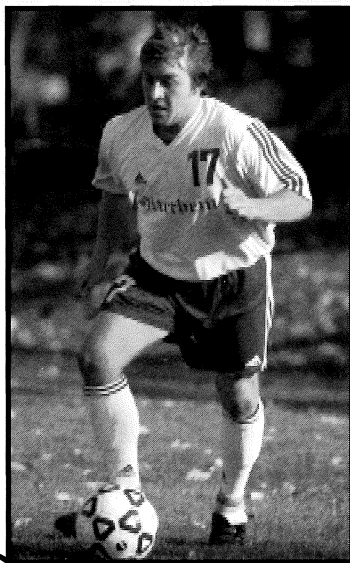

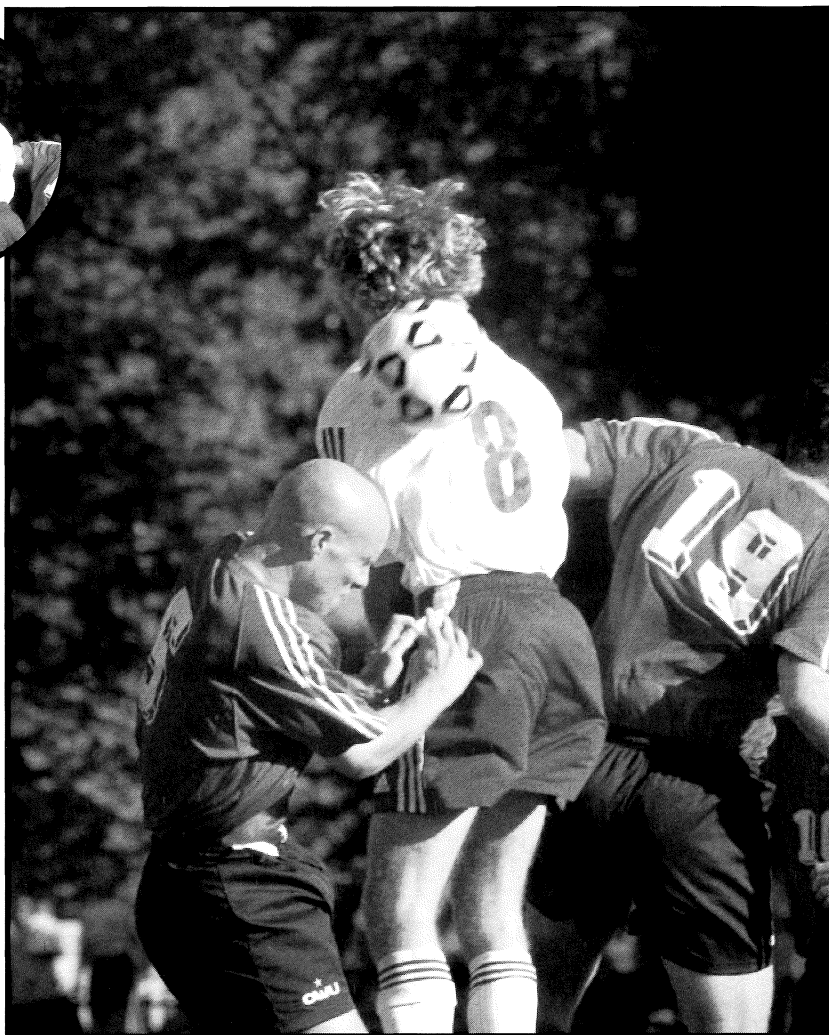

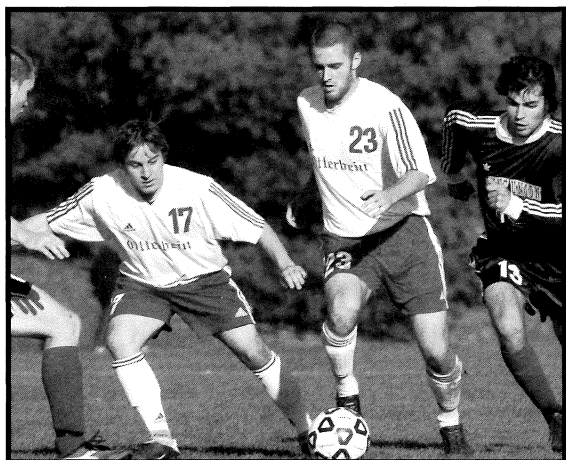

Scott Hardiman stretches out to make a spectacular catch against Heidelberg. In his freshman campaign, Hardiman led the team with 27.2 yards per catch, scored three touchdowns and handled most of the kick-return duties. The speedster chalked up a 75-yard touchdown reception in a 31-13 loss to Capital at Memorial Stadium.

Running back Josh Braden (11) breaks free against Wilmington. Another first-year Cardinal, Braden transferred from West Liberty State and was named first-team All -OAC in his first season at Otterbein. Even after missing two games, Braden was second in the conference with 101.6 rushing yards per game. Against Wilmington, he ran for 222 yards on 35 carries.
