National Library Week 2009

April 12-18, 2009

Worlds connect @ your library

Celebrate National Library Week at the Courtright Memorial Library, April 12-18

National Library Week is a time to celebrate the contributions of libraries, librarians and library workers in schools, campuses and communities nationwide - and the perfect time to discover how "worlds connect @ your library." First sponsored in 1958, National Library Week is a national observance sponsored by the American Library Association (ALA) and libraries across the country each April.

The Courtright Memorial Library at Otterbein College is celebrating National Library Week with an Erin McKenzie Virtual Welcoming Space event. We will sponsor a panel discussion on making connections titled "Diverse Worlds Connect @ Courtright Memorial Library" on Wednesday April 15 at 3:30 pm. Watch for further details. For more information, visit the Courtright Memorial Library at 138 West Main Street, Westerville, OH 43081, call 614-823-1215, or see the library's Web site at <http://library.otterbein.edu>.

A Farewell to Friends Lost

James A MacKenzie

James A. MacKenzie, age 62 of Westerville passed away Friday December 26, 2008. James was a 1964 graduate of Westerville High School and graduated from Otterbein College. He was a member of the Church of The Master, United Methodist., served as a Captain in the U.S. Air Force in Vietnam. Preceded in death by father, Arthur. Survived by his loving wife of 35 years, PeiHsiu; children, Michelle (Shawn) and Michael MacKenzie; grandson Zaine Foster; Mother, Alberta Messmer; sisters, Carol Kruger, Barbara Campbell and Marilyn MacKenzie; numerous other family members. Memorial Service was held at 11 a.m. Tuesday, December 30, 2008 at the Church of The Master, U.M. 24 N. Grove St., Westerville with reception immediately following service. Family also received friends one hour prior to service. Friends may if they wish, contribute in his memory to Central Ohio Parkinson Society. P.O. Box 16126, Columbus, OH 43216. Arrangements handled by the Hill Funeral Home, Westerville (Columbus Dispatch, December 28, 2008: B9)

Mary Lydenberg Davis

Mary Lydenberg Davis, aged 93, died Saturday, November 22, 2008, in Westerville, Ohio, from cancer. She was predeceased by her husband of 68 years, William W. Davis, who died November 1 of this year. Mary is survived by four children and their spouses, Donald and Jean Davis of Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, William Davis II and Ellen Gagne of Bethesda, Maryland, Richard Davis and Rita McCleary of Hamden, Connecticut, and Debby and Andrew Blackley of Chardon, Ohio. In her loving family also are seven grandchildren and one spouse, Joelle Davis Michaels and her husband, Kenneth Michaels, Jason Davis, Matthew Davis, Molly Blackley, Katherine Blackley, Rebecca Blackley, and Andrew Blackley IV. The most recent addition to her family is one great-grandson, Kenneth William Michaels. Mary was born August 28, 1915 in Scarsdale, NY. Her parents were Harry M. Lydenberg and Madeleine Day Lydenberg. After graduating from Scarsdale High School in 1932, she attended Mt. Holyoke College, where she received a B.A. in 1936. In 1938 she received a certificate from the New York School of Social Work. She worked in the area of child welfare in Baltimore, Maryland for several years, where she met Bill. Soon after their wedding in 1940 they were separated by war. When Bill was sent to serve in Australia and New Guinea, Mary continued social work in Louisville, Kentucky. After the war they lived in Kentucky and West Virginia before moving to Westerville, Ohio in 1952. Westerville was her home for 56 years. In addition to raising a large family, Mary was active in numerous volunteer activities and local organizations. She served as President in the Westerville chapter of the League of Women Voters, she was a co-founder of Project Aware in 1965, she worked with Life-Care Alliance, and she has been an active member of the Church of the Messiah United Methodist in many capacities, including the Teammates Sunday school class. She received the Courtright Community Service Award in 1965, and also received an Otterbein Honorary Alumnus Award in 2003. She loved to travel, and after graduation from Mt. Holyoke in 1936 she traveled to Germany and the Soviet Union. After Bill's retirement they traveled extensively in the U. S. and abroad. Many in Westerville have been touched by her consideration and good cheer, and she will be missed greatly in this community. In a short biography Mary wrote in 1982 for her 50th high school reunion at Scarsdale, she concluded: "it's a great life and we've been very blessed. You have to roll with the punches. There's always a challenge and a green field appearing." Friends joined her family at a Celebration of Her Life, at 11 a.m. November 29, 2008 at The Church of the Messiah, 51 N. State St., Westerville. Friends may contribute in her memory to their charity of choice. Arrangements by HILL FUNERAL HOME, Westerville (Columbus Dispatch, November 25, 2008: B4)
