Skin of Our Teeth

"Oh, I've never forgotten for long at a time that living is struggle.

I know that every good and excellent thing in the world stands moment by moment on the razor-edge of danger
And must be fought for whether it's a field

or a home or a country.

All I ask is the chance to build new worlds.
And God has given me that second chance,
And has given us voices to guide us ..."

A Man For All Seasons

"god made the angels to show him splendor-as he made animals for innocence and plants for their simplicity, but man he made to serve him witting in the tangles of his mind.
and no doubt it delight god to see splendor where he only looked for complexity . . ."

this was truly a play for all seasons!

ORGANIZATIONS

Student Senate: The legislative branch of student government, Senate is Otterbein's answer to Congress. Through this organization, interested students have the opportunity to participate in the actual workings of campus government. Senate serves as the prime liaison between students and administration. Special concerns this year: the possibility of responsible student participation in administrative fields and a program of travel and education during the December interterm.

Members of Student Senate are ROW 1, S. Spurgeon, S. Scott, P. Kurth, A. Harris, H. Campbell, J. Flack, E. McCoy, C. Cordle, M. Lansman; ROW 2, N. Halberstadt, D. Fisher, P. Kurth, N. Fenstermaker, J. Seibert, J. Leopard, T. McMillan, B. Fredrick, C. Sims, S. Wilkins, D. Andrews, P. Cox, S. Palmer, P. Dunn, B. Bates, M. Gribler; ROW 3, E. Glor, W. Boykin, B. Prior, C. Callahan, S. Butcke, J. Morisey, B. Napper, J. Schott, D. Walker, B. Ross, J. Bresson, J. Slough.

Men's Student Government Board: The men, too, are concerned with self-discipline and elect representatives to their Governing Board. In addition to their roles as disciplinarian, these men organize the activities and programs for Parent's Night in the early fall.

Members of Men's Student Government Board are J. Allen, M. Leadbetter, D. Neese.

Members of WSGB are ROW 1, T. Goodman, D. Cramer, C. Muha, J. Cornwell Campbell, C. Chatlain; ROW 2, S. Cotton, P. Kurth, J. Ullman, J. Jacobs, M. Everhart, P. Spessard, A. Knipp, A. Luek, L. Evans, K. Kline.

Women's Student Government Board: Women's Student Government Board lists as its purpose: "to direct matters concerning the women students of Otterbein; to increase the sense of individualism and community responsibility among women students; to cooperate with the Administration and Student government of the college in maintaining a high standard of scholarship, social life, and group living." Besides enforcement of rules and enactment of constitutional changes, these elected representatives sponsor Women's Week and Mothers' Weekend in March.

Clippinger Cottage Standards Committee: During first term, several sophomore girls made their home in tiny Clippinger Cottage, under the guidance of two senior head residents.

The Clippinger Standards Committee consists of SEATED, DeeDee Krumm, Linda Sue Cooper; STANDING, Carol Hamp, Jean Jacobs, Ramona Strickling.

Hanby Hall Standards Committee: Hanby Hall is the closest dorm to "beautiful downtown Westerville" and houses sophomore and junior women.

SEATED, Susie Cotton, Mrs. Marian Stoughton, Diane Benson, Barb Chappell; STANDING, Patty Spessard, Eunice Fanning, Lynda McDonald.

Clements Hall Standards Committee: This dorm has proven a very popular place this year with a newly re-decorated lounge (a la moderne!) and easy access to that haven for sun-worshippers-Barlow Beach.

Members of Clements Hall Standards are SEATED, Amy Luek, Mrs. Clara Bigham, Adele Knipp, Anne Bruce; STANDING, Mary Dambaugh, Kathy Heringer, Robin Rike.

Saum Hall Standards Committee: "It's quality, not quantity that counts," say the freshmen girls who live in Saum Hall, the oldest building and the smallest dorm on campus.

Members of Saum Hall Standards are SEATED, Kathy Kline, Mrs. Thelma Rupp, Diane Hetrick, Nancy Scott; STANDING, Donna Stranscak, Margie Morgan.

King Hall Standards Committee: A little less isolated with the completion of the new Science Building, this freshman dorm welcomed a new house mother this year, Mrs. Holmes.

Members of King Hall Standards are SEATED, Liz Gaul, Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes, Maryanne Morrison, Darcy Elliott; STANDING, Jan Ullman, Chris Chatlain, Claudia Yeakel, Cheryl Baker.

Cochran Hall Standards Committee: With its stately pillars and imposing facade, Cochran Hall is a campus landmark to all Otterbein Students and "home" to half the freshman women.

The members of Cochran standards are ... SEATED, Jenny Miller, Miss Helen May, Tasha Rone, Pam Kurth; STANDING, Mary Ann Everhart, Linda Fleming.

Mayne Hall Standards Committee:

This is the last stop on the Otterbein circuit for the senior women. By her last year, she has earned a room in the newest and largest women's dorm on campus.

The members of Mayne Hall Standards are SEATED, Elaine Yoe, Housemother Mrs. Eileen Thomas, Susie Keister, Judy Cornwell Campbell; STANDING, Carol Pohly, Becky Ruple, Loretta Evans, Gail Lewis.

Freshman Quad Council: The men elected to Freshman Quad Council have the responsibility of directing the activities of the Quad. This position sets them on the road of leadership at Otterbein.

Interfraternity Council: Otterbein's six fraternities need the coordinating influence of the Interfraternity Council. This group of elected representatives share ideas on Greek procedures and traditions and possess the authority to enact regulations governing all male Greeks.

Panhellenic Council: Panhellenic Council serves as the inter-sorority governing council for the seven sororities at Otterbein. Three representatives from each sorority comprise this council which can enact court decisions on the actions of any sorority or sorority member. The council plans for such activities as Harmony Night, the Panhel Formal, and Homecoming Serenades.

Cochran Hall Junior Counselors: Freshman women soon discover that happiness is a JC who cares. The Cochran Hall Junior Counselors are always there to share joys and disappointments and to give an occasional campus when necessary.

These JCs are Terry Goodman, Martha Day, Marian Vaughan, Caryl Sell, Louise Mampieri, Mary Staley, Judy Decker, Sharon Mack, Shirley Scott.

King Hall Junior Counselors: King Hall girls are aided in their sometimes difficult adjustment to college life by warm, sympathetic counselors. The counselor serves as a confidante, advisor, and often as a mother-away-from-mother.

Freshman Men's Junior Counselors: These men help to get the freshmen through that traumatic ordeal that is the first year of college. They provide examples in the areas of leadership, scholarship, and social conduct.

Alpha Epsilon Delta: Alpha Epsilon Delta is an international pre-medical honor society, which strives to stimulate excellence in work preparatory to medical studies. Another objective of this organization is the development of better communication between the pre-medical student and his instructors.

Sigma Zeta: Any junior or senior with a 3.0 in a science or math major and a 2.75 cumulative average is eligible for membership in the Epsilon chapter of Sigma Zeta, national science honorary. Our local chapter has been active in national activities, having hosted the national Conclave five times. The group has regular meetings, sponsoring series of lecture-discussion meetings with students, faculty members, and outside speakers.

Phi Eta Sigma: "To promote a higher standard of learning and to encourage high scholastic achievement among the freshman men of Otterbein College" is the purpose of Phi Eta Sigma, founded in 1965. Requirement for membership: a high scholastic average during the first year of college study. The group's advisors are Dr. Thomas Kerr and Prof. John Muster.

Phi Eta Sigma members are ROW 1, R. Mayhen, J. Peters, Dr. Kerr, M. Robbins, J. Daubenmier, R. Scharer, F. Rice; ROW 2, J. Waugh, J. P. O'Neal, F. Steck, M. Bateson, S. Alexander, R. Gross, D. Bremer, M. Inboden.

Alpha Lambda Delta: Alpha Lambda Delta is a national society to honor freshman women for high scholastic achievement. Under the new system, a girl must average 2 A's and one B at the end of the first term, 4 A's and 2 B's at the end of the second term, or 6 A's and 3 B's by the end of her freshman year-easier said than done!

Phi Sigma Iota: A national romance language honorary organization, Phi chapter of Phi Sigma Iota was founded to promote interest and effort toward the mastery of one of the five romance languages. To be invited to join, a student must have a 3.0 average in either French or -Spanish. Phi Sigma Iota members sponsored a foreign film this year and offered a financial prize to one of its members at the end of the year.

Members are ROW 1, L. Crow, R. Stanley, P. Esswein, S. Cotton, K. Cunningham, B. Schlegel, B. Stiles, M. Miller, K. Needham; ROW 2, Mrs. Vance, Mrs. Villalon, K. Smith, P. Raleigh, K. Sponsellor, J. Smith, G. Kelly, Mr. Dube, M. Robbins, M. Tabor, M. Benson, E. McCoy, Dr. O'Bear.

Pi Kappa Delta: The Otterbein chapter of Pi Kappa Delta was founded in 1924 to encourage high-quality speech activity during college days. To become a member, student must have 2 years of intercollegiate speech activities plus a 2.2 grade point ratio. Features in this year's program were the Otterbein "Turkey Tourney" (debate tournament) and a trip to Phoenix, Arizona for the April National Convention.

Phi Alpha Theta: The Beta Zeta chapter of Phi Alpha Theta is a national honorary for Otterbein's top history students. This honorary welcomes students who have achieved better than a 3.0 average in at least 4 history courses and a sufficient cumulative average as well as meeting certain character qualifications. With Dr. Harold Hancock as their advisor, the group attends such activities as lectures, films, and regional and national conferences.

Members are ROW 1, Kathy Worley, Regina Parcels, Dr. Hancock, Mary Jo Fetter, Paulette Titus, Linda Dugan; ROW 2, Jim Henry, Tom Bay, Forrest Rice, John Finch.

Delta Omicron: The purpose of Delta Omicron, international music fraternity for women, is to create and foster fellowship and professionalism and to encourage each member to attain the highest degree of musicianship. To qualify for membership, a girl must be a music major or minor, must maintain an average of 3.0 in music and an overall average of 2.0.

SEATED: M. Pohley, S. Geisley, E. Yoe, N. Lora Howenstein, N. Mitchell, L. Bletz, N. Bradford. STANDING: C. Wilcox, L. LeBold, J. Wendland, H. Holupka.

Torch and Key:- This honorary, commonly called the Otterbein Scholars, is the highest scholastic recognition a student can receive. A 3.5 average with 24 courses, a balance in course of study, and good moral character are necessary qualifications for membership. Torch and Key sponsors a Spring Banquet recognizing all honoraries and this year gave a prize to a high-ranking junior.

Angel Flight: The young ladies who always wear blue uniforms on Tuesday are not stewardesses, but members of Angel Flight, a national service organization which serves as an auxiliary to the Arnold Air Society and the ROTC. Angel Flight participates in service projects, national and area conclaves and drill meets, in which they have won national recognition.

Angel Flight members are ROW 1, P. Jones, N. Katsilas, A. Berquist, B. Wilson, S. Dabbert, G. Myers, J. Holford, L. Ancik, W. Boykin, A. Knipp, C. Strout, B. MacKenzie, C. Hatem, J. Bristow, B. Aiello; ROW 2, J. Gilg, W. Ficker, S. Keister, D. Babbitt, J. Campbell, L. Zimmerman, C. Schuler, M. Lansman; ROW 3, S. Norton, K. Needham, J. Lytle, C. Muha, L. Lebold, J. Whearty, L. Scarlett, C. Rowles, P. Stinson, L. Reese, L. Evans. Missing-N. Fenstermacher, B. Schlagel, D. Finlaw.

Arnold Air Society: Arnold Air Society is the honorary organization of the Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps and its purpose is to aid in the development and production of Air Force officers and to create a closer and more efficient relationship within the AFROTC. Activities of the society include the Heart Fund Drive, the Military Ball, and various service projects for the school and the community.

Varsity O: The coveted award in any sport is a varsity letter and Otterbein is no exception. The men who wear the varsity O represent high ideals of athletic ability and sportsmanship. Known on campus by their red jackets, the Varsity O members handle the program for Winter Homecoming and coordinate Scrap Day activities with WAA.

Sailing Club: Landlocked Westerville is not to be outdone when it comes to sailing. Several intrepid Otterbeinites periodically travel to the shores of Hoover Reservoir to pursue the art of sailing. The college harbors boats at the reservoir for the use of its students.

Society for the Advancement of Management: Known as S.A.M., this is a national professional organization for students interested in future careers in business or industry. Members "learn by doing", through participation in activities related to business and management. Special projects include the Investment Club, and providing "care packages" of goodies for freshman and sophomore girls during final exams.

Theta Alpha Phi: Otterbein's Theatre Department is well-known for its fine dramatic productions. If an Otterbein thespian earns 50 points through participation in various plays, acting, directing, working on stage crew, he may join the Ohio Zeta chapter of Theta Alpha Phi. This group helps to organize and promote theatre workshops on campus.

Cap and Dagger: The drama club on Otterbein's campus is Cap and Dagger. A 2.0 average and 20 points on theatre participation are qualifications for membership. By sponsoring the Freshman Talent Show early in the fall, C&D has a chance to scan the new class for future members.

Women's Athletic Association: Organized some 30 years ago, the WAA promotes good sportsmanship, health, leadership, and worthy use of leisure time through a program of intramural sports, outing activities, modern dance, and sports days. Its enthusiastic members participate in the sports programs and attend monthly meetings to hear outside speakers.

Pi Epsilon: All women majoring or minoring in physical education and completing one term at Otterbein are eligible for membership in Pi Epsilon. Organized to promote a deeper understanding and knowledge of physical activity, this group holds regular meetings and sponsors a yearly service project. This year, Pi Epsilon hosted a spring workshop for surrounding colleges.

Young Republicans: Reorganized in the spring of 1968 as a state-affiliated club, the Young Republicans have been very enthusiastic in this election year. They were hard at work in the fall campaigning, sponsoring a Homecoming float, attending the Columbus reception for Nixon, and celebrating an election victory.

Who's Who: One of the highest honors a college student can receive is election to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, a national directory. The most outstanding juniors and seniors are chosen by their classmates on the basis of their scholarship, leadership, and overall contribution to Otterbein.

Otterbein was represented this year by ROW 1: Loretta Evans, Marlene Lansman, Cheryl Muha, Jane Whearty, Sally Norton, ROW 2: Hamer Campbell, Dennis Heffner, Glen Schafer, Paula Kurth, Patti Stinson, Shirley Scott, Susan Palmer, Larry Evans, Richard McKinny.

Calendar Committee: This committee serves in an advisory capacity to the Dean of Students in the monumental task of assembling and coordinating a list of all cultural, academic, social, athletic, and miscellaneous events to be included in each year's college calendar. Besides various faculty members, two students are chosen as representatives.

This year's calendar committee consists of Mr. Frank, Rev. Clarke, Cynthia Rowles, Dean VanSant, Mike Price.

Campus Christian Association: CCA is the over-all religious organization at Otterbein responsible for fostering a spiritual life program on the campus. This group was officially launched in 1967 and is open to all "Otterbein people." CCA's activities include Student Sharing Week, Religion-in-Life Week, and Students Concerned over People Everywhere. Commonly known as SCOPE, this last program involves Otterbein in such projects as tutoring services, visiting in rest homes, and taking underprivileged children from Columbus on outings to the zoo, a show, or even to the QPV!

OSEA: Since Otterbein is known for the quality and quantity of its teacher graduates, it is not surprising to find a large and active chapter of the Ohio Student Education Association on campus. Membership in this organization entitles the education student to receive professional publications and to attend the monthly programs which include panels and excellent speakers.

Home Economics Club: The Otterbein Chapter of the American Home Economics Association provides professional experiences outside of class for majors and minors. As proof of their skill and enthusiasm, these girls sponsor the annual Style Show, a highlight of Mothers' Weekend.

The officers of Home Ee Club are Linda Clouse, Linda Sands, Nancy Lorenz, Donna Oyer, and Ellen Andrews.

The Health Committee is chaired by Miss Day, and consists of faculty, administrators, students, and Health Center personnel. The Health Committee is concerned with maintaining sanitary conditions in on-and off-campus housing, and with any issue involving the mental and physical health of students. This year a new Health Center was completed, making the job of keeping Otterbein students in good health an easier one.

Marching Band: Reappearing after a year's absence, the marching band added pep and color to football games and homecoming this. Under the direction of Gary Tirey, the band performed many intricate half-time shows. A new addition to the band is the "O" squad, which performs as an integral part of the band as a drill team. Membership in the band and "O" squad is granted after an audition.

Symphony of Winds: The Symphony of Winds is the concert orchestra of Otterbein. Performing indoor and outdoor Village Green concerts, the Symphony of Winds is enjoyed by many students and music lovers from the nearby area.

Music Educators National Conference: Through membership in MENC, music majors and minors have an opportunity to further their music education by participation in professional state, divisional, and national meetings with leaders in the profession. Students can also profit by attending state solo, ensemble, band, and chorus contests.

Members of Music Educators National Conference are ROW 1: L. Finney, M. Pohly, C. Coldwell, N. Howenstine, J. Jacobs, D. Bach, G. Sattazahn, S. Feisley, J. Cowan, ROW 2: F. Ahlborn, A. Howenstine, J. Humbarger, D. Hetrick, C. Savage, A. Stevens, J. Wendland, T. Rone, J. Zlate, C. Wilcox, J. Anderson, D. Minter, R. Strickling, E. Yoe, D. Wollam, D. Hershberger.

The Otterbein A Cappella Choir: The pride of Otterbein, A Cappella Choir represents the finest voices on campus. These highly dedicated singers tour Ohio and other states extensively, including a tour of Florida over Spring Break. Bringing honor and renown to Otterbein, A Cappella performed and traveled in Europe this summer.

Chamber Singers-Talented singers join in a well balanced ensemble to perform harmonious 16th and 17th century and contemporary madrigals and light operatic compositions. Interested students audition to join in this highly educational musical group. Generally attired in formal wear or Elizabethan costume, Chamber Singers present concerts, entertain with carols and madrigals at the annual Christmas Banquet, and perform for May Day and other community and campus functions.

American Guild of Organists: Students with an eye toward organ-playing as a career find membership in the American Guild of Organists a broadening experience. Besides giving recitals and concerts themselves, they may attend various musical events in the area and a special exchange concert program with Capital University.

The members of the American Guild of Organists are ROW 1: Professor Larry Rhodes, Ron Scharer, ROW 2: Donna Herbert, Debbie Balyeat, Muriel Byers, Professor Lawrence Frank, Nancy Howenstine, Jeannie Jacobs.

Choral Union: Choral Union is composed of men and women who enjoy music. Auditions are necessary for membership; both music majors and non-music members compose the group, however. The group was directed this year by Miss Elizabeth McCann.

While almost doubling the number of pages in this year's issues of the T and C from last year's one-hundred and seventy-two pages, the co-editors of the paper displayed responsible journalism. A double-page spread of pictures became a weekly feature, as did the award-winning "Cardinal Sins."

One of the Tan and Cardinal's co-editors, Randy Cline, was this year's recipient of the Ray W. Gifford Journalism Award. This award is presented yearly to one student who has excelled in journalism at Otterbein. The award has been presented since 1964; Randy is the sixth person to be so honored.

SEATED: Advertising manager, Gary Price; Co-editors, Beth Hodder and Randy Cline; Copy editor, Laurel Thomas. STANDING: Evelyn

Much to the surprise of many Otterbein students and faculty, Sibyl members spend many hours each week throughout the year and much planning during the summer months, to produce a book which creatively portrays the daily activities and special events which comprise life at the 'bein. Work is often tedious and demands a great deal of perserverance, especially when deadlines seem impossible to meet. A small staff with a sense of commitment, an editor who doesn't get discouraged too easily, and a creative company representative are all essential to a finished yearbook.

STANDING: Kay Needham, copy editor; Sue Casselman, typing; Meredith Martin, organizations.

Publications Board: Consisting of a voting member from each class, and the heads of the two publications of the college Publications Boards reviews the student publications and makes appropriate suggestions for improvement of them. The Board also interviews and elects students to the paying positions on the publications.

SEATED: J. Clark, Dean Miller, B. Schlegal.

Modern Dance: Modern Dance club is composed of students interested in increasing their ability to express themselves through the art of the dance. Previous experience or background in dance is not a qualification for membership.

SEATED: Bobbie Stiles, Fred Glasser, Linda Karl. STANDING: Dee Dee Krumm, Allan Strouss, Paula Kurth.

Quiz and Quill: Quiz and Quill is composed of students who have a desire to learn more about the creative process as it relates to literature. The club also publishes a literary magazine twice a year. This year was the fiftieth anniversary of the club and the anniversary was celebrated by the publishing of an anthology of the past fifty years of Quiz and Quills.

Advised by Dean Van Sant, the club was composed this year of: SEATED: Julie Zeigler, Linda Dugan, Linda Grznar. STANDING: Tim Chandler, Kathy Smith, Larry Evans.

The job of the campus police is to enforce the rules of the campus and provide security for Otterbein students. Working on round-the-clock shifts, the security force is constantly striving to maintain maximum safety for OC students.

Otterbein's nursing staff has enjoyed working in the new health center this year. The Hirsh Health Center provides better facilities for the care of students. The building is named in honor of Mrs. Hirsh, who made a gift to the college in memory of her parents.

*O.A.C. Tournament

The Otters began the basketball season as usual with Coach Tong's grueling try-outs. When the squad had been cut down to operational size the team scrimmaged Ohio State University's junior varsity team at OSU's St. John's Arena. An ominous preview of the coming season, the Buckeyes won 63-61 in a close game. Although great efforts were made by our team, there were many discouraging moments for the team and its fans. Six games were lost by a total of ten points.

However, the season did hold some bright spots. The Cards finally beat Kenyon's Rinka and Dunlop. Lorenzo Hunt made first team Ohio Conference at forward. Jim McKee made second team and Don Manly made an impression on O C basketball fans.

This year's hard ballers seemed to have a hard time getting their defense and offense together. The Most Valuable Player award went to senior co-captain, and pitcher Jim McKee who compiled a 1.28 earned runs given up while hurling 70 2/3 innings. McKee topped the Ohio Conference Record of 1959 (110) for most strike-outs with 126. Other pitching laurels went to junior Jerry Klenke named the Most Improved Player, who pitched a one hitter to top the final day of the season. Offensively, senior co-captain Mike Leadbetter won recognition with a .328 batting average.

The Cardinal tennis team had an admirable season. It was sparked with several impressive plays by various members of the team. The Otters, coached by Curt Tong, had heavy wins over Mt. Union, Ashland, and Muskingum, bringing the season record to three wins, four losses. The losses were close, making them harder to accept.

Renewed emphasis was placed on the women's tennis team. They were, admittedly, inexperienced, but quite interested and enthusiastic. They made a good appearance and are expected to have a more productive season next year.

It was a long, cold, wet season for Coach Agler's 1969 golf team to finish with a 5-5-1 record. The season was highlighted by a pre-season trip in the south and the three defeats Capital took at the hands of the Cardinal linksters. This year something new was added to the golf scene-women. Otterbein's first women's intercollegiate golf team in many years was organized and led by Coach Joanne Tyler. The women posted a record of 1-2, defeating Wittenberg and losing to Ohio Wesleyan and Ohio State.

The O C harriers ran, and ran, and ran their way to a 2 - 5 record and a 12th place finish in Ohio Conference Outdoor Track Meet. Bosse's third place in the high jump; the mile relay team of Simonetti, Lehman, Van Wey, and Stright placing fifth, and a pair of sixth place awards by Weaver in the pole vault and Van Wey in the triple jump gained O C the 12th place seat in Outdoor Track.

Lead by co-captains Anita Heaton and Susie Keister, the cheerleaders not only cheered at all home and many away games, but also made posters and endeavored to add variety to their cheers by using the mini-tramp. Other cheerleaders this year are Bev Aiello, Linda Eddy, Rita Schumacher, Gretchen Parrish, and Freshman alternates Polly Anslow and Stephanie Wilkens.

Under the leadership of Becky Kramer, the "O" Squad marched into the half-time activities of Otterbein football and basketball games. The marching band provided the musical accompaniment for the group's precision drills. Membership in the group is voluntary, the only prerequisites being a pair of strong legs and a lot of enthusiasm.

ROYALTY

Fall Homecoming

Sally Norton, Tau Epsilon Mu

The beauty of autumn, the crispness of the air, and the excitement of football provide the background for the Fall Homecoming Court. Each sorority and the independent women nominate a senior candidate and all male students vote to determine the queen. This year Sally Norton reigned over the festivities; Judy Komuro was her Maid of Honor and Linda Bletz was First Attendant.

Winter Homecoming

Basketball season brings Winter Homecoming and another lovely court. Three sophomore girls are chosen by Varsity O for this honor. Suspense mounts during half-time of the homecoming game as the Queen is picked from the crowd by a roving spotlight. The 1969 Winter Homecoming Queen was Linda Eddy, attended by Maid of Honor Anne Bruce and First Attendant Ann Bergquist.

Sibyl Queen

Each year the Sibyl staff chooses a senior girl to represent the spirit of Otterbein. She is chosen from six outstanding campus leaders for her contributions to Otterbein. This year's Sibyl Queen, Julie Gauch, was announced at a reception during Mother's Weekend.

Miss T & C

In early Spring, six freshman girls are honored by Otterbein's fraternities as they compete for the title of Miss Tan and Cardinal, a contest sponsored by the school newspaper. After evaluating the girls on appearance and poise at the Interfraternity Dance, a panel of judges crowned Phyllis Dickinson, the candidate of Pi Kappa Phi, Miss T & C of 1969.

May Queen

Beth Hodder, Queen

One of Otterbein's loveliest traditions, May Day is enhanced by the charms of four junior girls. Chosen by the entire student body, Queen Beth Hodder exemplified the radiance of spring. Her court included Maid of Honor Patti Stinson, First Attendant Jeanne Lytle, and Second Attendant Bev Aiello.

Aerospace Studies

Captain Walter Bell

Lt. Col. Morris Briggs

Captain Melvin Drane

The Aerospace Department offers cadets an opportunity to attain a commission in the United States Air Force. During the span of a student's college career, the Reserve Officer Training Corps presents immediate goals to advance academics and social life. Such activities as the Military Ball, the Heart Fund Drive, and the President's Parade and Review encourage cadets to increase their knowledge and experience in social affairs.

Chemistry

Keith Crane

Rex Ogle

Robert Place

Roger Turley

The curriculum of the Chemistry Department is wide, and the department is well-equipped to handle such a varied program. Chemistry is a vital and constantly changing part of our lives, and the Chemistry major has, upon graduation, unlimited opportunities in business and industry as well as secondary education.

Economics and Business Administration

Melencio Cua

Young Kou

Harmon Voskuil

In a competitive society, a thorough understanding of the principles of economics is necessary if the society is to continue to remain on a solid financial basis. The Economic and Business Administration Department instructs students in economic principles. Upon graduation, students of this department may pursue graduate or enter directly into the business world.

Education

Raymond Bertelson

Roger Deibel

Virginia Mellott

Nell Pagean

Mildred Stouffer

Franklin Young

The aim of this department is to help prospective teachers acquire not only knowledge, but also the attitudes and understandings necessary to function successfully in the public school system.

The Department of Education trains more than half of Otterbein's graduates for careers in the field of teaching. Following a prescribed curriculum of the department qualifies a graduate for certification for teaching in the state of Ohio.

English

Cleora Fuller

Velma Ogg

Robert Price

Not only is it important to be able to understand the written expressions of others, but it is also important to be able to express one's own thoughts clearly and concisely. Through the study of literature and composition, man is better able to understand the past, himself, and others. Since this concept is vital to all well-educated persons three common courses are now required of all students.

Sponsored by the department is Quiz and Quill, a creative writing organization.

With an emphasis on the filmtex method, the Foreign Languages Department not only educates the student in grammar and literature, but also in the customs and culture of foreign countries. To improve oral communication and broaden the horizons of the average student, the department sponsors a study-abroad program.

The Foreign Language Department also supports Phi Sigma Iota, a national romance honorary.

Women's Health and Physical Education

Marilyn Day

Mary Ann McCaulsky

Eula Sabock

Joann Tyler

Feeling that part of an education includes instruction in the basic sports, social skills and ethical principles, the department stresses active participation in sports through intramural competition. The Women's Health and Physical Education Department is located in the Association Building and sponsors the Women's Athletic Association, which promotes the Riding Club and the Modern Dance Club. This department also sponsors Pi Epsilon, an organization for majors and minors.

Men's Health and Physical Education

Robert Agler

Richard Fishbaugh

Larry Lintner

Curt Tong

Elmer Yoest

Endeavoring to promote a sense of sportsmanship, the Men's Health and Physical Education Department sponsors not only intercollegiate competition, but also intramural competition among fraternities and independents. From this world of sports come managers, trainers, officiators, and coaches, as well as well-rounded individuals.

In addition to belonging to the Ohio Athletic Conference, the department sponsors Varsity "O" and Sailing Club.

History and Government

Harold Hancock

Ursula Holtermann

Thomas Kerr

John Laubach

Michael Rothgary

The Department of History and Government teaches not only the past, but also present governmental systems. It is proud of its broad curriculum and fine instructors, and its Washington Semester Plan for those students especially interested in the study of government.

Home Economics

Margaret Gill

Mabel Joyce

In an age of increasing mechanization, the Department of Home Economics emphasizes education of a domestic nature. Not only does the department attempt to establish high ideals in daily living but also to instill an attitude of professionalism in those students desiring a career outside the home following graduation.

Life and Earth Sciences

Michael Herschler

Arnold Leonard

George Phinney

Thomas Tegenkamp

Jeanne Willis

Although many students take the common course in the Department of Life and Earth Sciences, few are aware of the opportunities for individual study and research that the department offers. In laboratories a unique opportunity exists for students and professors to work together on experimental procedures. The professors make every attempt to integrate the studies with a thorough understanding of life processes.

Mathematics

Frederick Bamforth

Roger Tremaine

Roger Wiley

As the need for qualified Mathematicians grows, so does the importance of the Mathematics Department. One of larger departments on campus, suitable mathematics courses are offered for elementary education majors, science majors, business majors, and prepares majors for graduate work, industry, and secondary education.

Music

Lyle Barkhymer

Alan Bradley

Richard Chamberlain

Lawrence Frank

Anthony Ginter

Larry Rhoades

Music has often been called a universal language because it can be understood by anyone who is interested in comprehending. Besides facilitating comprehension of music, the department is concerned with developing the ability to express one's self through music. The curriculum is designed for elementary and secondary music education majors, and those students working for a fine arts degree with a major or minor in music.

Physics and Astronomy

Phillip Barnhart

Donald Bulthaup

John Muster

To obtain a Bachelor of Science degree, a student must cross the threshold of the Physics and Astronomy Department. The department offers courses from classical to modern physics and astronomy. The department encourages independent study and laboratory work to help the student become well prepared for the future he seeks.

Religion and Philosophy

Paul Ackert

William Amy

James Recob

The opportunity to "seek" in life is encouraged by the Department of Religion and Philosophy. Not only is a religion and philosophy course a basic requirement for all students, but religion takes an important and vital role in the lives of students, as the department attempts to provide guidelines for questioning ideas. The Campus Christian Association is sponsored by this department.

Sociology and Psychology

Larry Cox

Elaine Hobart

Joyce Karsko

Albert Lovejoy

The Sociology and Psychology Department tries to give students not only a theoretical but also a practical background for vocational work. Courses are designed not only for those who plan on immediate graduate study, or for those who plan immediate career experience. The department offers opportunities in independent or exchange university study, and practical work in counseling and laboratory work with animals and perceptual equipment.

Speech and Theatre

Well-known throughout Ohio for its excellent debate team, the Speech and Theatre Department is also famed for its theatrical productions which attract not only Otterbein students but also many people from off campus. The department also offers instruction in speech, public speaking, radio and television.

Charles Dodrill

James Grissinger

Joel Swabb

Visual Arts

Lillian Frank

Albert Gernanson

Earl Hassenpflug

The Department of Visual Arts offers, besides technical knowledge, an understanding of drawing, sculpture, painting, molding, and design, and an appreciation of the same. The student is given the freedom needed in classes to develop his own style and work styles. The department participates in the Festival of Arts, and sponsors picture rentals and art exhibits.
