SIBYL 1965

OTTERBEIN COLLEGE
WESTERVILLE, OHIO

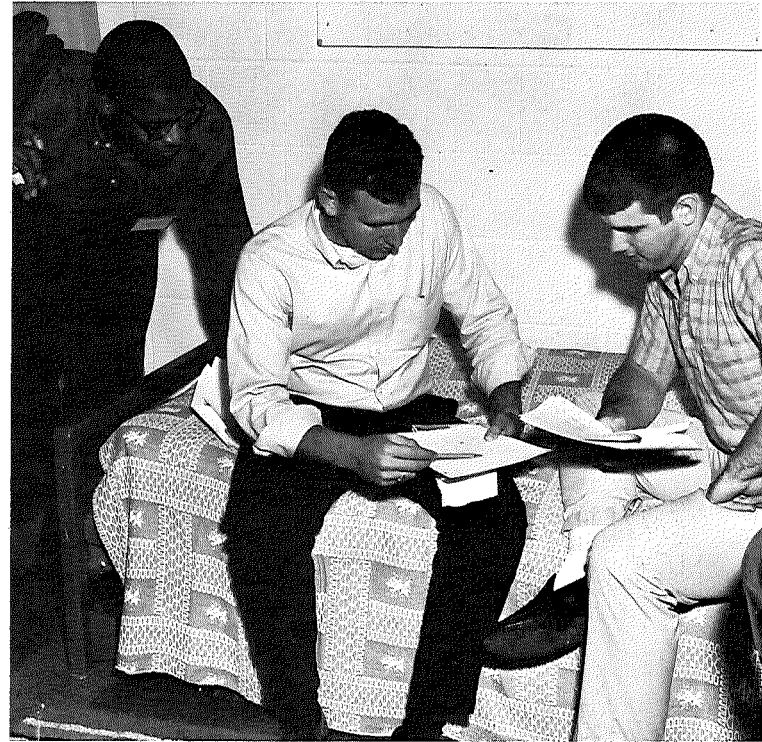

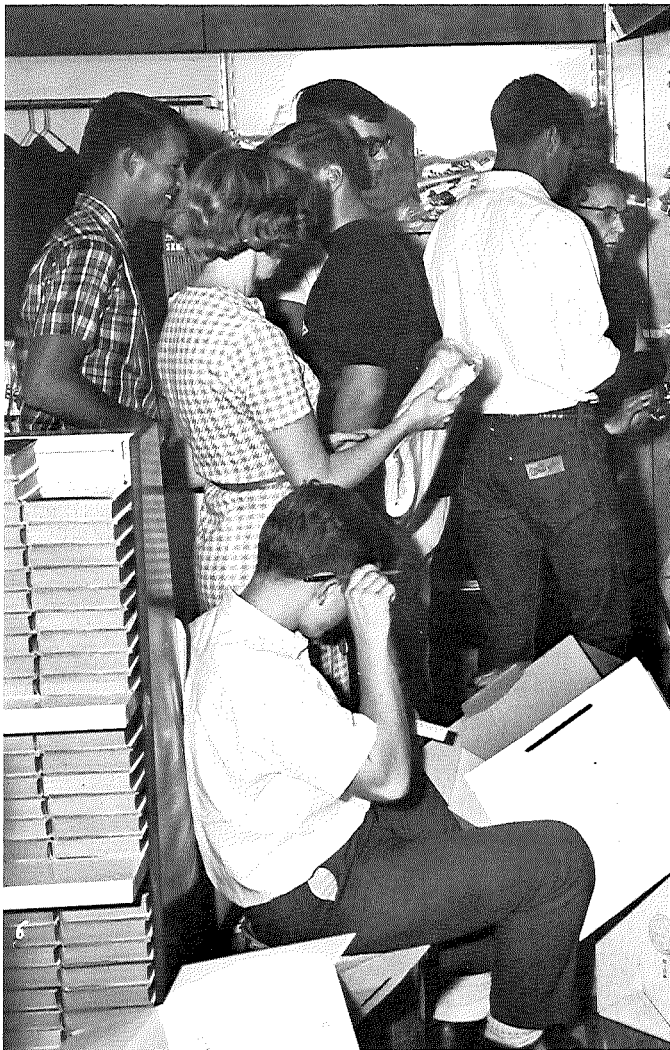

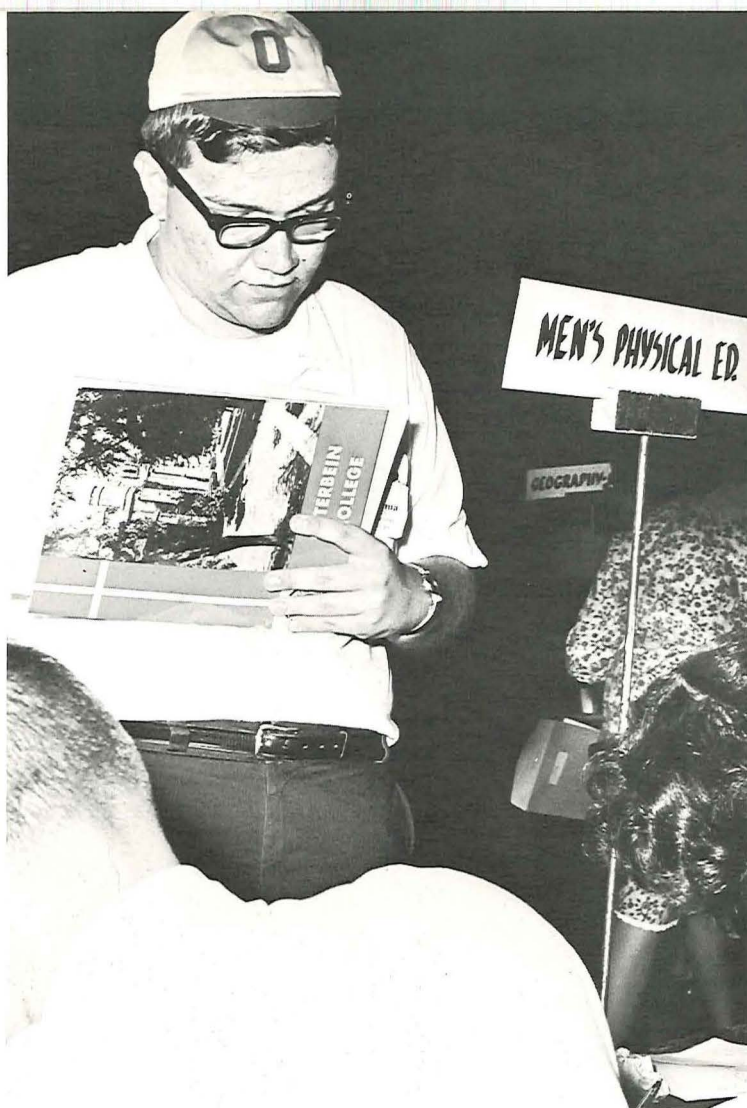

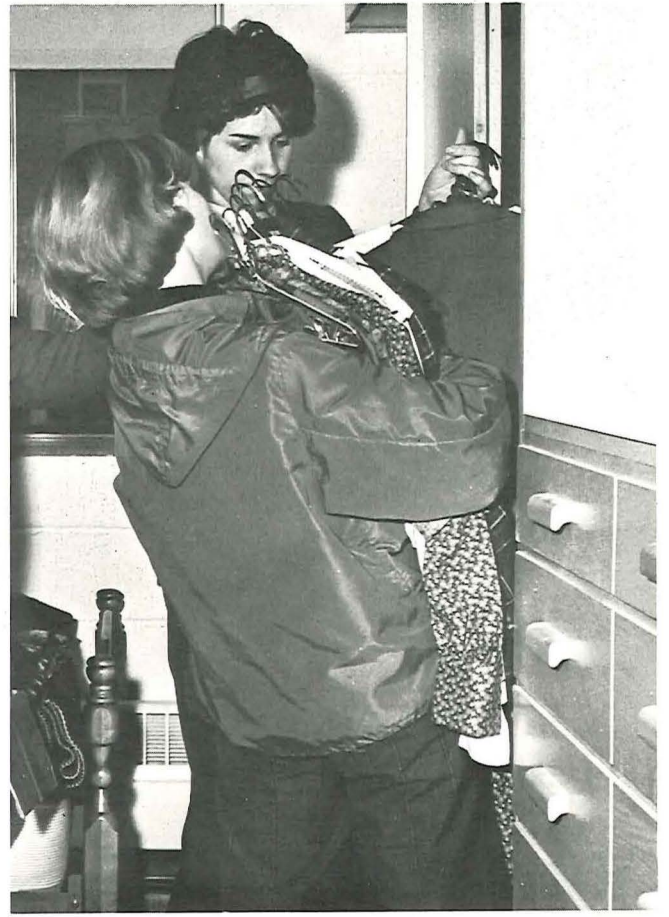

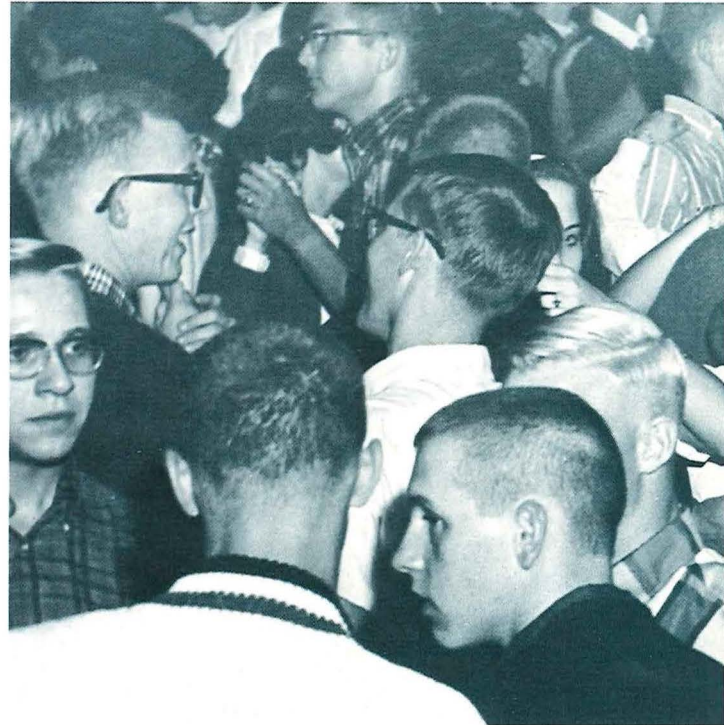

Another year began at Otterbein with faces both old and new . . . an air of excitement and confusion reigned throughout . . . as September wove a fall-time splendor upon dusty books and rooms and students' heads.

... Standing in lines, lines, and more lines ... greeting old friends and making new ones ... one of the crowd pushing and being pushed ... registration, dorm meetings, talks with your advisor, wait, wait in line ...

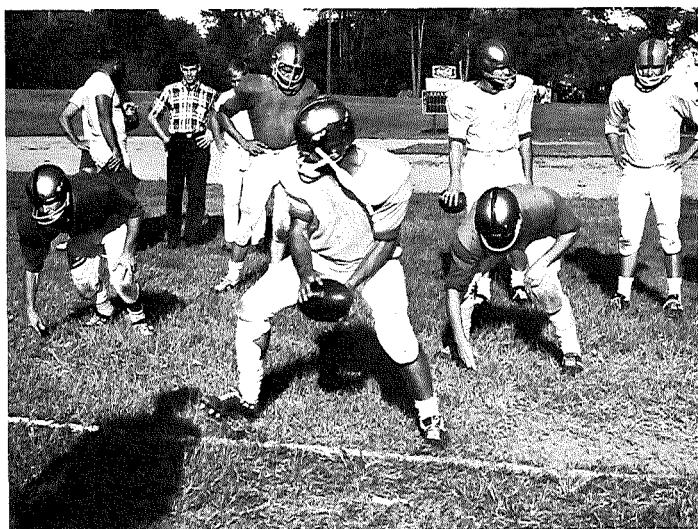

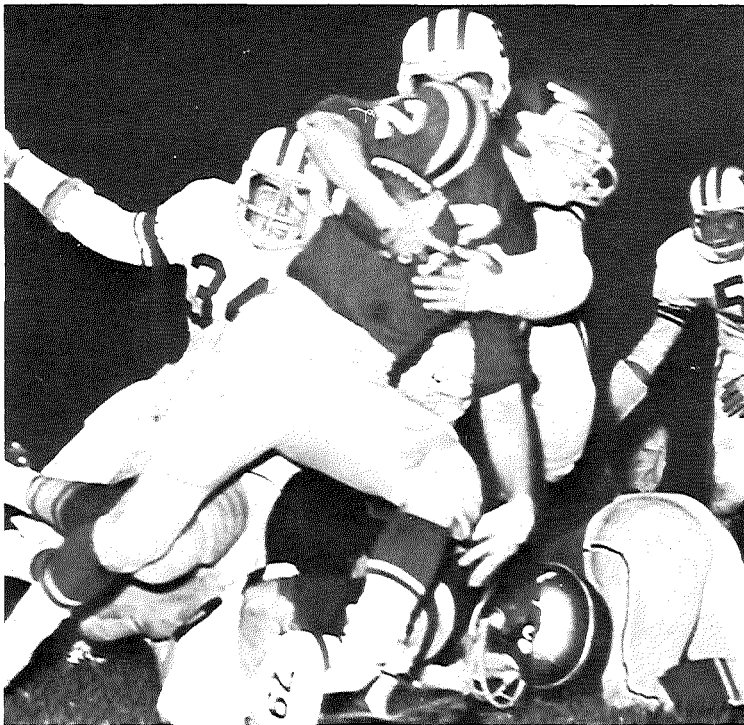

. . . Football practice . . . freshman bonfire . . . a home football game . . . a mighty cheer . . . all outlets testing the strength, agility, and tenacity of young college blood . . .

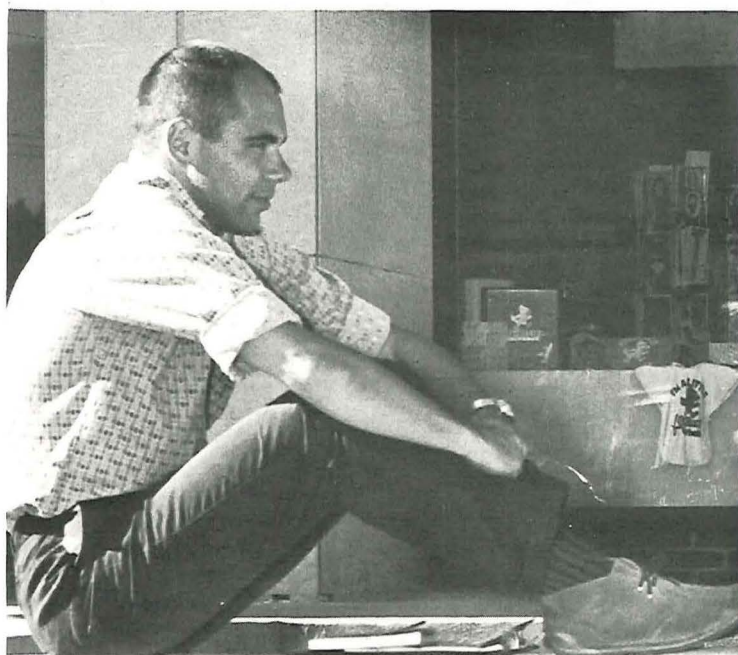

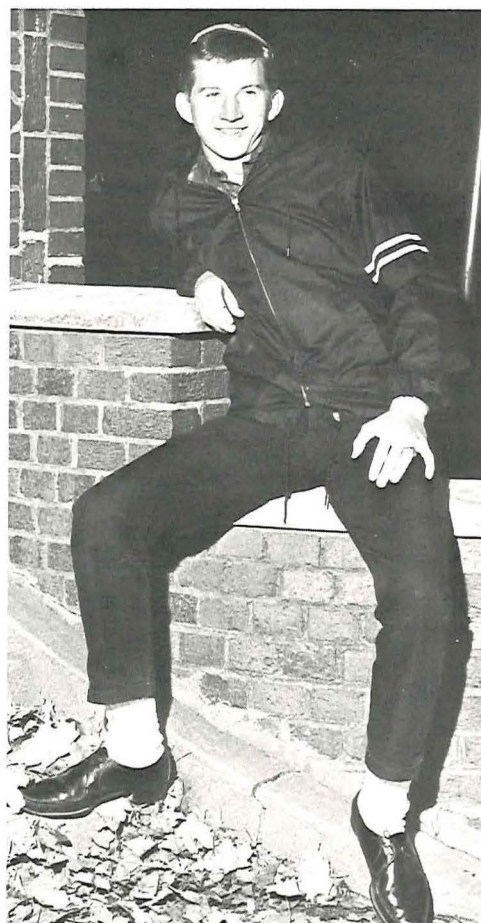

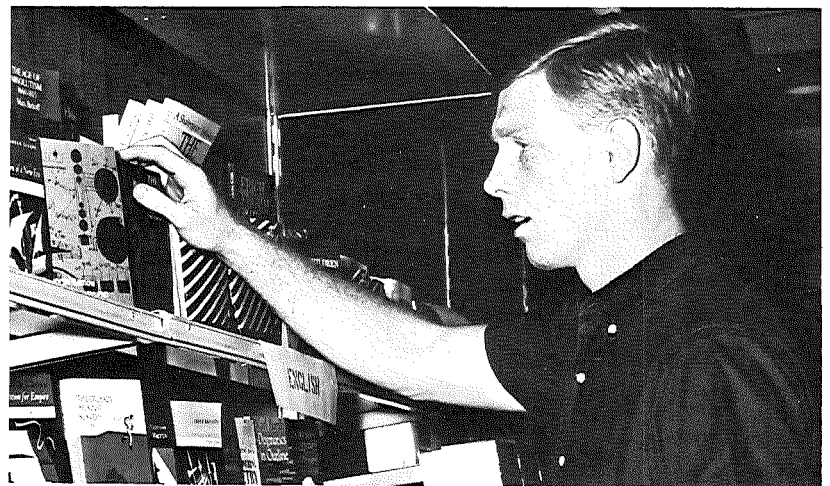

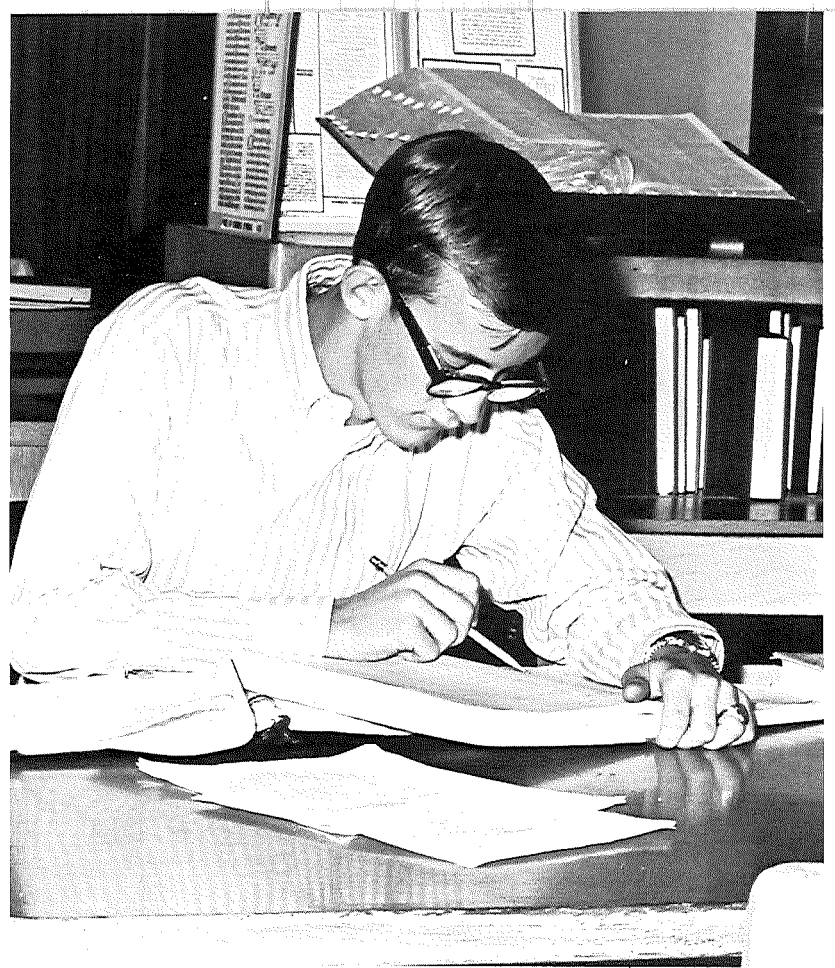

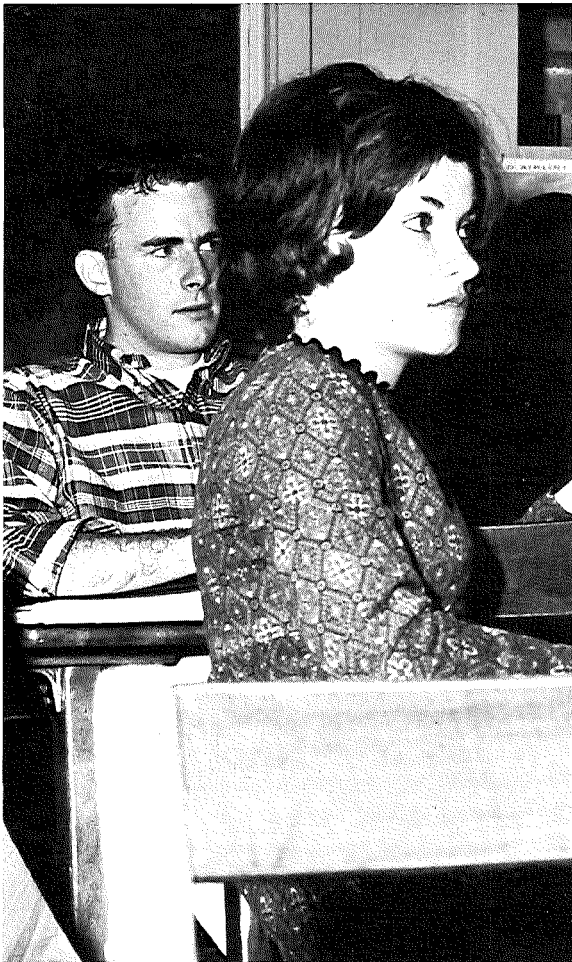

When the books became fuzzy—there was . . . a study break at the 'Cardinal's Roost' . . . a moment of relaxation on a step . . . the serenity of isolation . . . just to think it over . . .

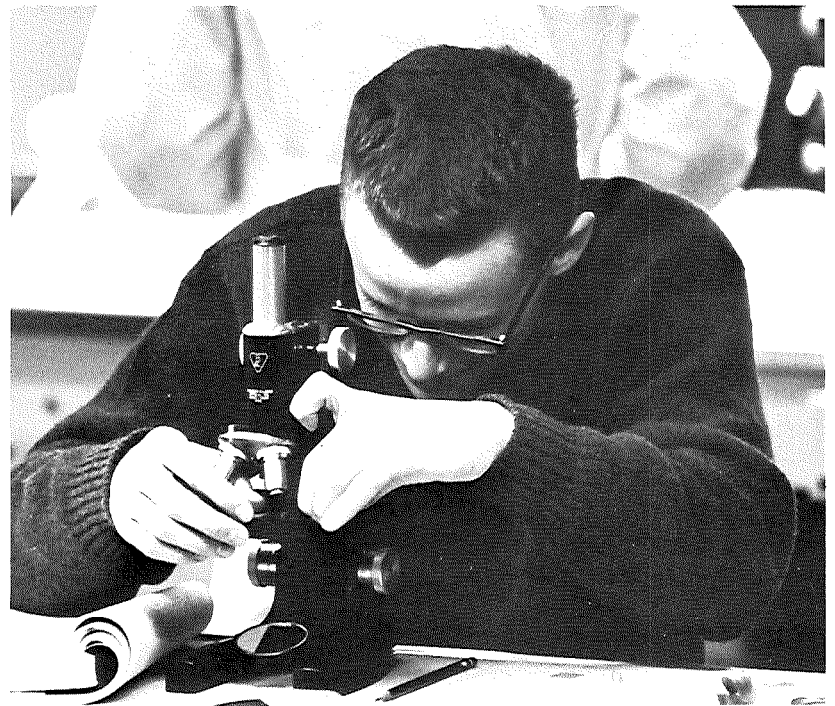

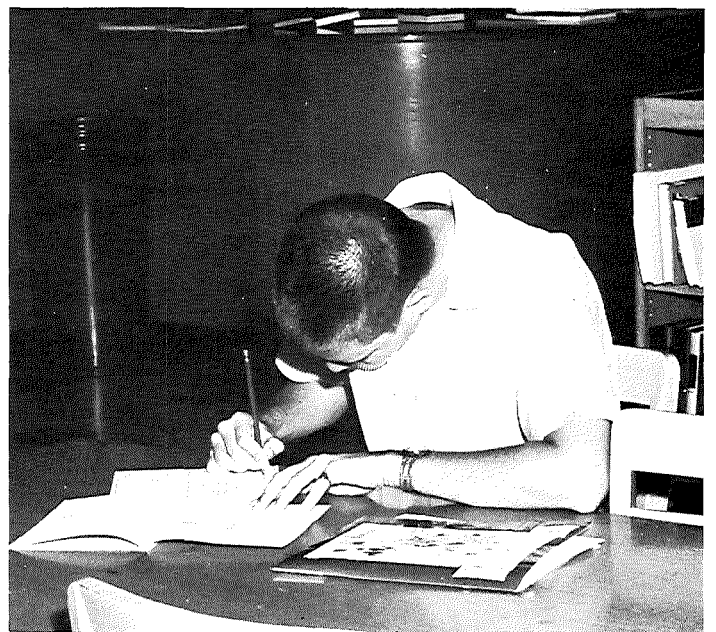

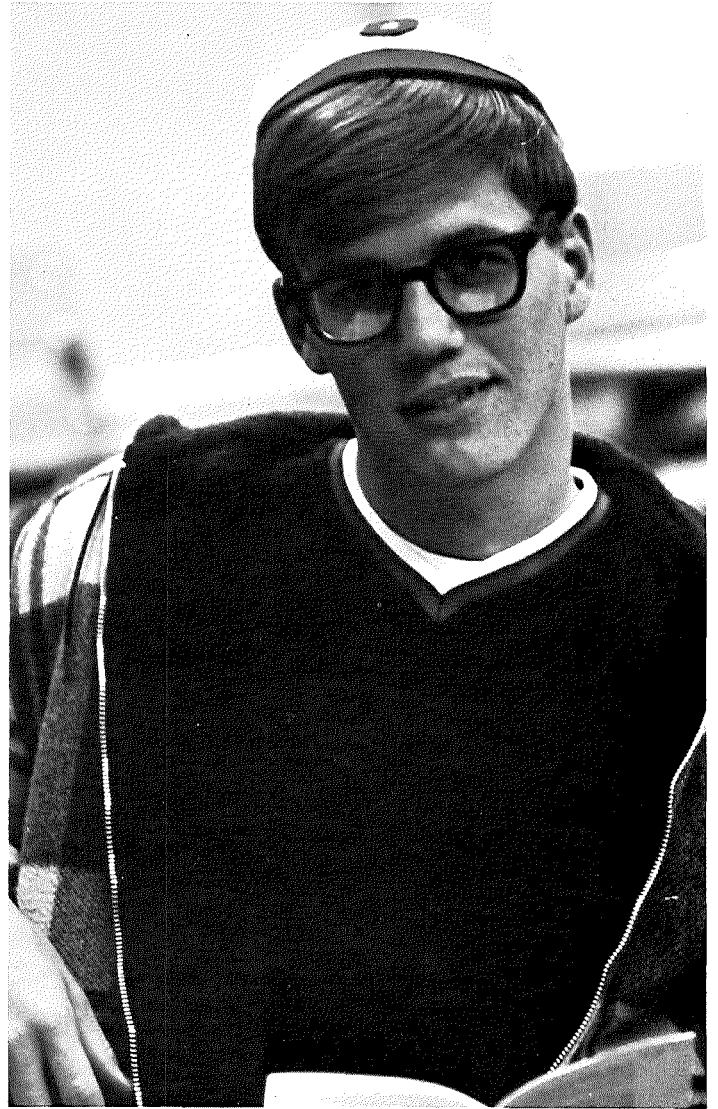

And then the purpose, the reason for being here seemed to suddenly permeate into study rooms, laboratories, bookstores . . . the masks of comedy and cheer took on a sober and serious facade . . .

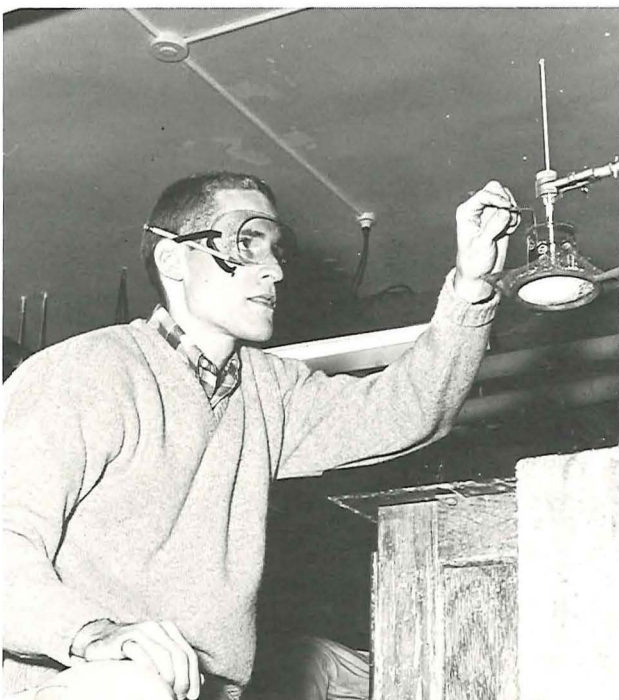

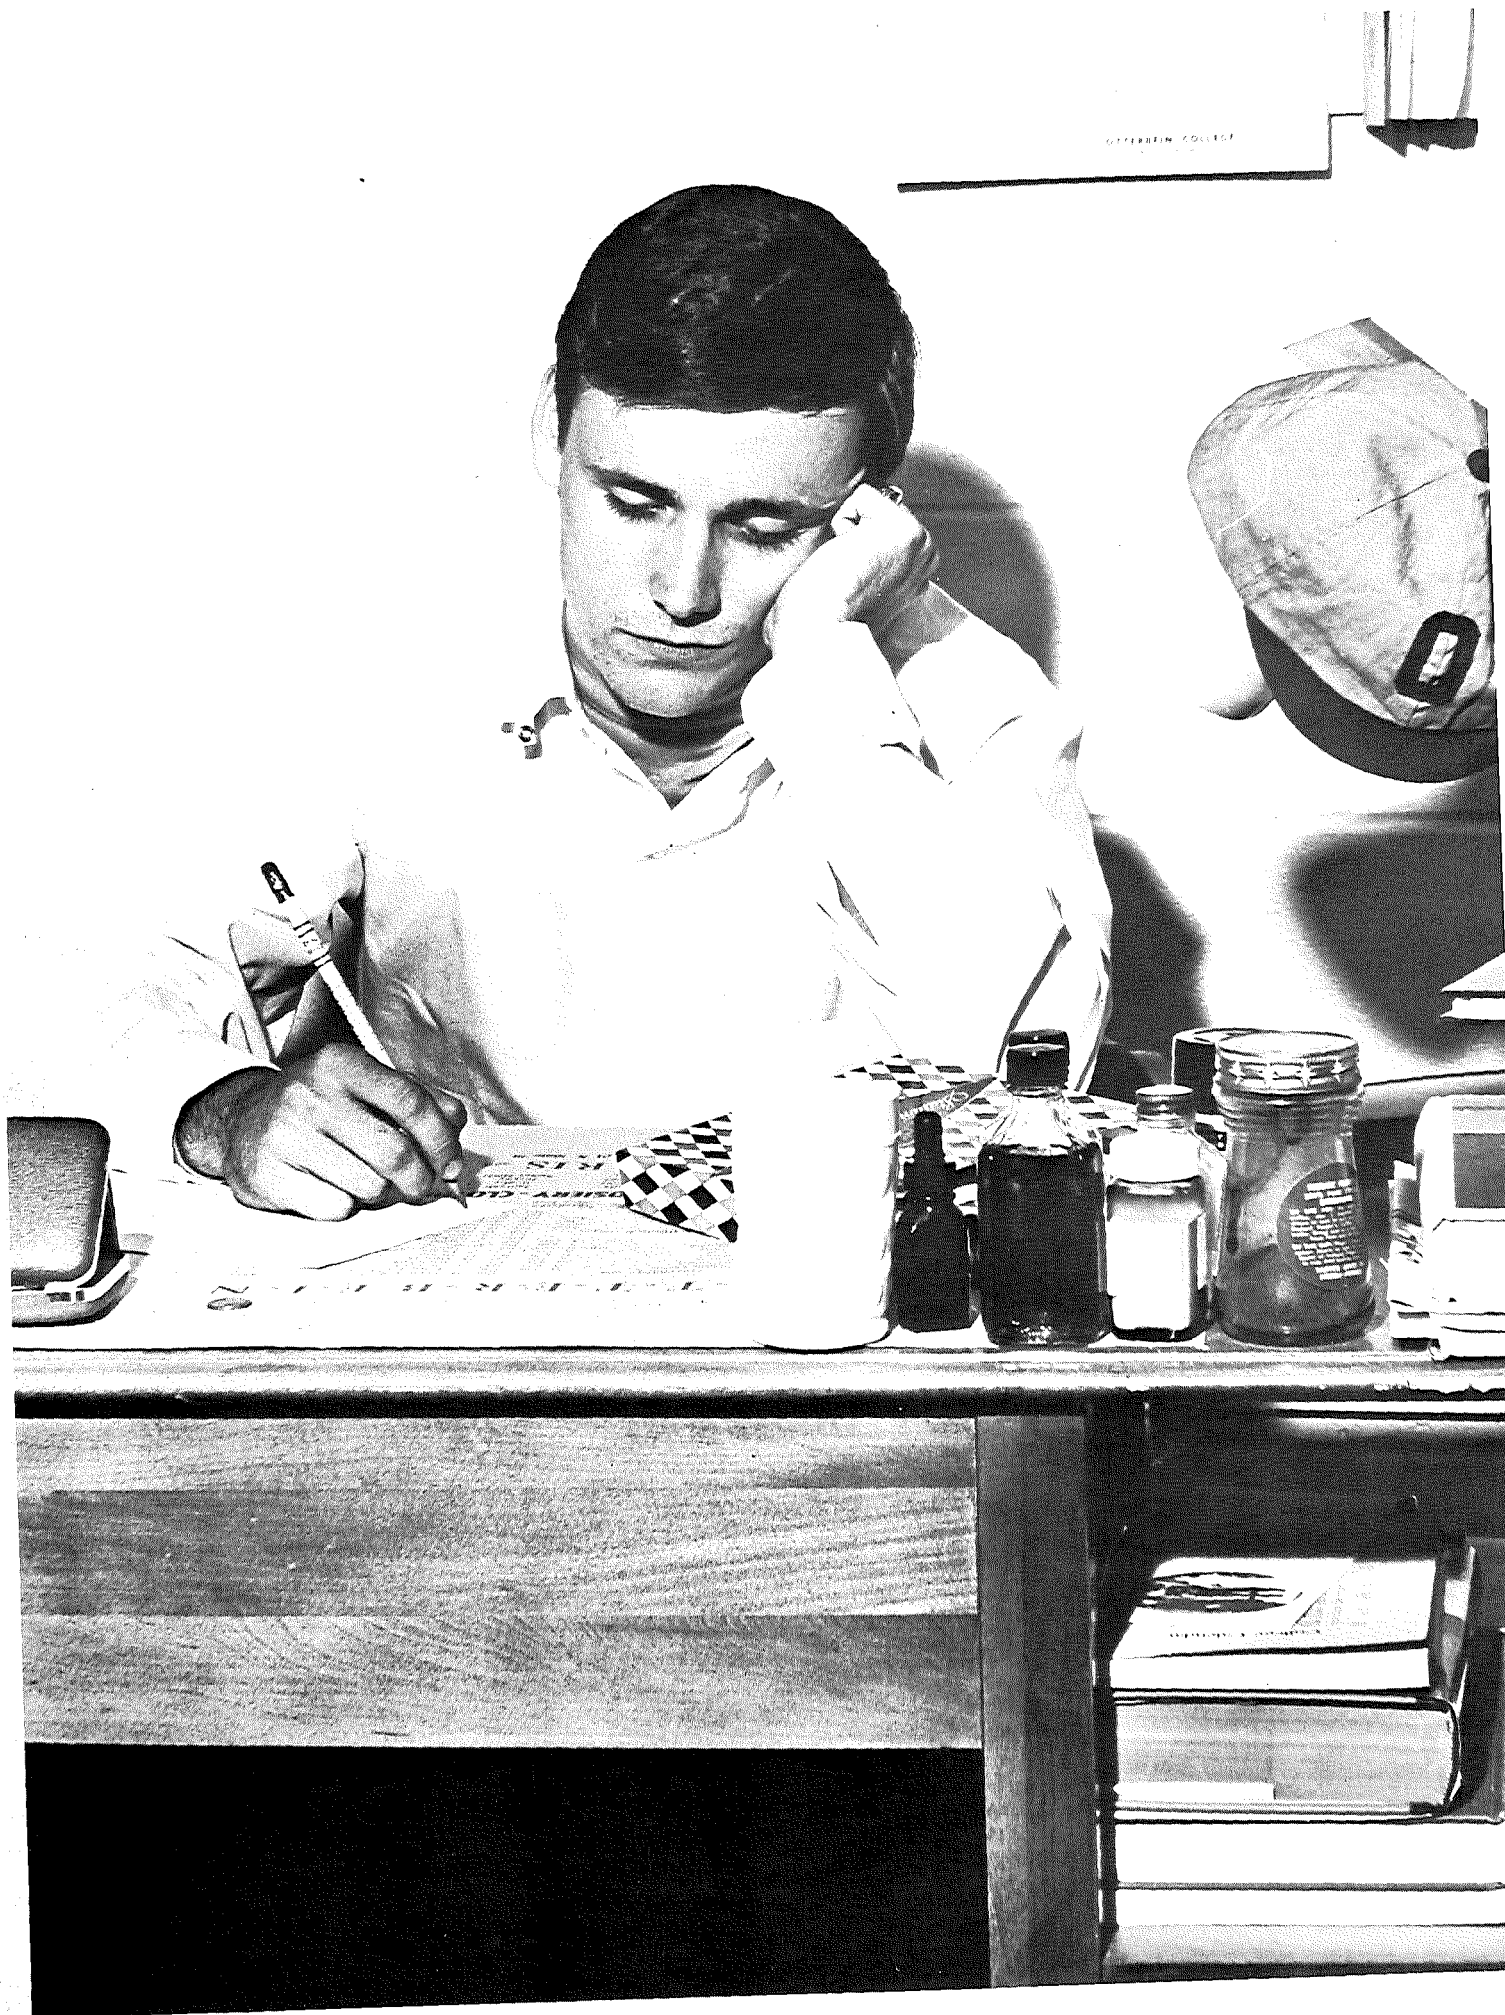

Each building, room, teacher, student blended together into an aura of electrifying unity . . . the grasp for knowledge infiltrated the minds, spirits, and bodies throughout the year . . .

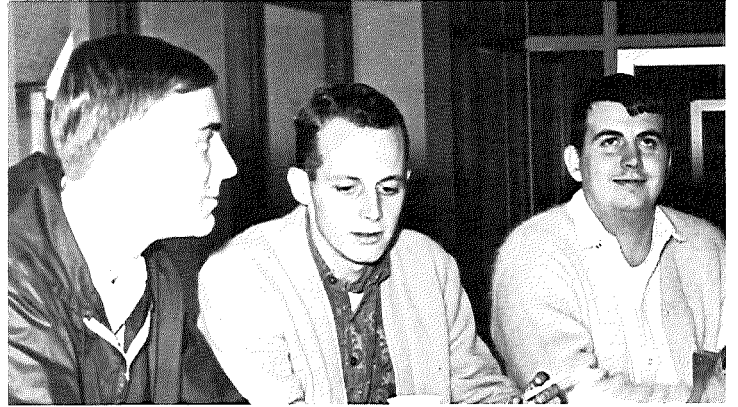

The promise of the future knocks at our door as we scan the miles before our individual destinations. Our door stands between the present and the future as a sign that what we accomplish at Otterbein determines how fast we shall run to our chosen post. Before the tomorrow of anything comes the today . . . we present the today of Otterbein College to hold in memory, joy, and pride.

T.G.I.F. . . . those moments of peace were there too . . . sauntering down silent walks . . . gathering in the crowded
'Pit' . . . simply being here together as a promise to the future . . .

The Trustees met in Hall Auditorium to discuss issues.

Annually, the BOARD OF TRUSTEES meet to discuss issues and to act upon reports and recommendations. This year the board chaired by Dr. Harold Boda came on campus November 6 and 7. The Otterbein College Trustees saw Otterbein's needs and foresaw her problems, and acted accordingly, to promote her well-planned growth.

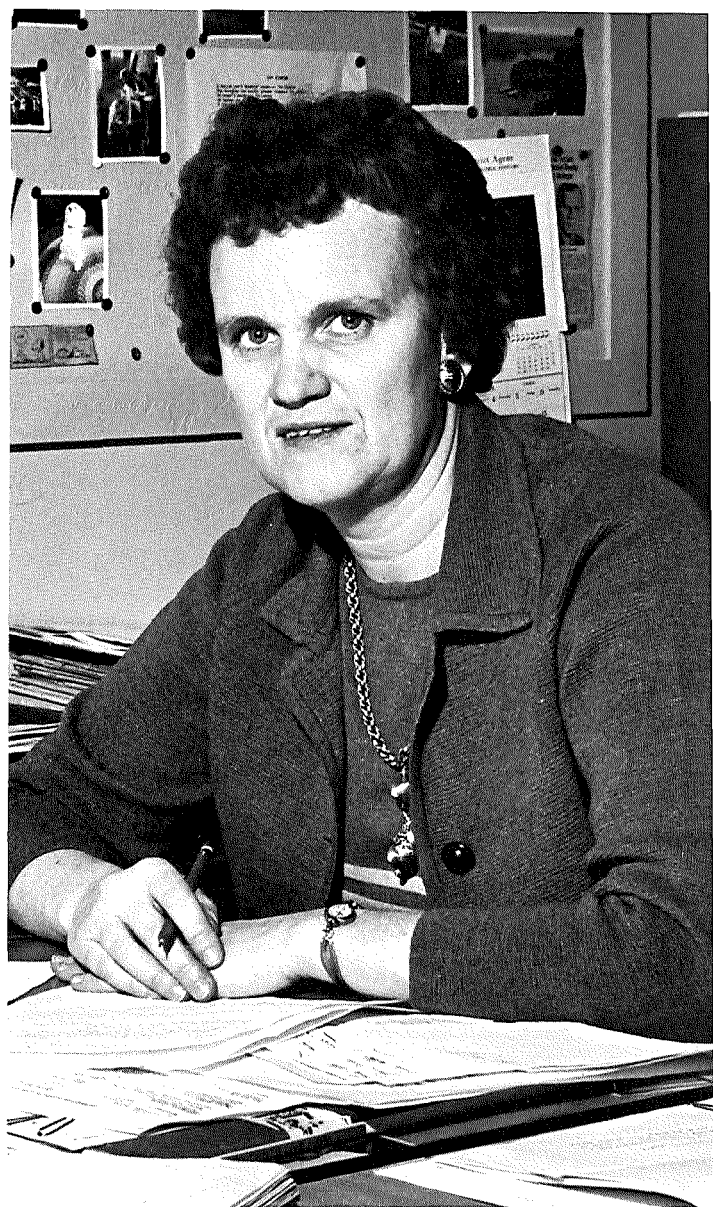

Dignity, diplomacy, and intellect are requisites for a college administrator and all are embodied in President Lynn W. Turner. Besides co-ordinating the work of the faculty, deans and trustees, President Turner works with various student-faculty committees to further understanding within the college community. Much of his time is spent representing Otterbein in meetings and conventions as well as speaking to alumni clubs to inform them of Otterbein's progress. Meeting him on Campus or at a sports event, PRESIDENT TURNER commands campus respect as a far-sighted leader interested in all aspects of college life.

DEAN MILLER, Dean of the College, maintains a position as an advisor to the President on faculty and academic affairs. He is responsible for curriculum study, faculty teaching load, and the cultural and academic enrichment of the college. Rushing from meeting to meeting, office to office, and student to student, DEAN VAN SANT, Dean of Students, is concerned with student needs and problems. In addition to listening to student complaints and advising the President on important issues, Dean Van serves the students in the capacity of adviser to W.S.G.B., the Panhellenic Council, and Alpha Lambda Delta, and the Calendar Committee. DEAN TAYLOR filled a new position this year of Assistant Dean of Students. REV. POHLY, Director of Religious Activities, is responsible for the Convocation Program and spiritual life on Otterbein Campus. The deans showed a genuine concern for all students. Through common sense and fair play, friendliness and tact, they worked for and with the student as an invaluable link to the administration.

The lay-out staff searches for ideas in the many reference books in the SIBYL office.

Among the many fruitful enterprises, which Otterbein students undertake is the publication of the SIBYL. Beyond the constant rush for deadlines, schedules, and layouts, beats the true essence of Otterbein tradition manifested by the SIBYL's staff of editors, photographers, copy writers, typists, business managers, advisors and many others. No other body of workers on campus strives to retain the memories of people, events, and customs which are so vital to the Otterbein story. The SIBYL this year, under the able leadership of Lana Rinehart and Frank Dustman, proves that the quality of the student is inherent within the context of a praiseworthy yearbook.

The purpose of a newspaper is to inform and to comment on any items of interest to the public. Otterbein's Newspaper, the TAN AND CARDINAL, seeks to maintain these two objectives as well as to incorporate special features. TAN AND CARDINAL illustrates the growth of harmony in communicating to faculty, students, and alumni the continued recognition of the news media in a modern world.

Working on an ad layout are Jane King, Chuck Taylor, Diana Linkous, and business manager Clifford Spohn.

BOARD members are Jack Wright, Larry Beck, Barry Reich, Rene Dellinger, and Barb Billings.

The PUBLICATIONS BOARD, under the leadership of Jack Wright, defines, decides, and decrees the action and policies of both the TAN AND CARDINAL and the SIBYL. Included in its many duties is the selection of the editors of both these student publications.

Jack Wright calls for a vote.

Engineers Bob Fisher and Bob Richards make sure every show runs smoothly.

Whether it's announcing or engineering or writing continuity, the staff of WOBN is always prepared to fill those evenings of study of relaxation with music, news, athletic presentations, public interest programs, and a wealth of information designed with the community in mind. From 7:00 p.m. to 11:00 p.m. Otterbein's radio dial is set to 91.5 FM.

Station manager Jim Miskimen is on the air.

Traffic director Dave Sampson selects music for "Command Performance."

For those who plan to enter a career in medicine, ALPHA EPSILON DELTA, an international honorary for premedical students, gives one an excellent opportunity to investigate the many facets of a vocation in medicine. Significant to this organization are the standards of scholastic achievement and the encouragement of excellence and appreciation in the field of pre-medicine. Through organizations such as ALPHA EPSILON DELTA, the key to the alleviation of human suffering can be obtained.

The national science honorary, SIGMA ZETA, seeks to encourage under-graduate work in science. It sponsors a variety of programs including lectures, and a science fair for the local high school students. The active membership includes only juniors and seniors, but sophomores who are eligible can become associate members.

PHI SIGMA IOTA officers are Miriam Edgerley, Mrs. Vance, Jim Danhoff, Mr. Neff, Carolyn Osborn.

PHI SIGMA IOTA members enjoy an informal lecture.

The Romance languages entail far more than a set of earphones, a tape recorder, and doodles scribbled on a lab table. PHI SIGMA IOTA, the national honorary Romance Language society, seeks to integrate within its membership the traditions, attitudes, and customs of other lands through an appreciation of Romance literature and culture.

PHI ALPHA THETA is the highest recognition for students in the history and government curriculum. These history majors and minors promote worthwhile and interesting programs featuring lectures, films, conferences, and conventions. Even more important they are a group dedicated to the values of maintaining the democratic idealism this country first initiated.

Fetter. ROW 3: Doris Carter, Janet Gallagher, Carol Capell, Linda Bixby, Joanne Miller, Betty Steckman.

ALPHA LAMBDA DELTA is the national honorary for freshmen women. It requires that its members attain a 3.5 scholastic average in their freshman work. Members sponsor a "Smarty Party" in the fall for incoming freshmen women.

Of all the honoraries represented on Otterbein's campus, none is more distinguished than TORCH AND KEY. Members of this organization are Seniors, occasionally Juniors, who have exceptional cumulative records, and a few faculty members and alumni who are distinguished for some scholarly accomplishment. Throughout the year they serve the campus, always working for scholarship and leadership.

Creativity and pursuit of imaginative thought are the marks of the QUIZ AND QUILL, Otterbein's literary honorary. Its members are juniors and seniors who have exhibited talent in the field of creative writing. Each year QUIZ AND QUILL sponsors a literary contest, and publishes a booklet of works by Otterbein students and alumni.

The HOME ECONOMICS CLUB is made up of Home Economics majors and minors. This organization tries to prepare its members to be leaders in their homes and communities by discussing such things as interior decoration, fashion, and professional attitudes at their bi-monthly meetings.

The famed Otterbein College Concert Band.

Mr. Motycka uses his baton to "strike" up a point.

Otterbein "halftimes" were a combination of skill and style in 1964. Under the direction of Mr. Alan Bradley, THE MARCHING BAND molded into formation after long afternoons of practice, mistakes, and cold hands. Our band was always there on the bleachers playing the "Otterbein Battle Song" after every touchdown.

The OTTERBEIN CONCERT BAND, fifty-six members strong and also under the direction of Mr. Bradley, spent many hours of strenuous practice before presenting a home concert in February.

MAJORETTES: Roseanna Mansfield, Sharon Banbury, Kathy Dietz, Marilyn Hutchings, Marcia Sanders.

DRUM MAJORS: Dale Fisher, Jerry Bishop.

The MARCHING BAND leads the Homecoming Parade.

Music, music everywhere . . . in Lambert Hall and in the hearts of the members of music organizations like DELTA OMICRON, the women's honor sorority for music majors and minors, which works to maintain the high musical standards of Otterbein's Music Department. M.E.N.C. or Music Educator's National Conference is interested in improving public school music, and the members study principles and techniques of teaching music.

Recitals, recitals . . . The ORGANISTS' GUILD of Otterbein under the direction of Professor Lawrence Frank annually attends several recitals in and around the Franklin County area to widen their appreciation and knowledge of organ music. Besides learning by listening, Guild members learn by doing, that is, by taking organ lessons and presenting their own recitals. Other Otterbein music lovers enjoy participating in STRING ENSEMBLE and working together to present a concert.

Service was the project, greater understanding was the goal. Beginning with the Big-Lil' Sis program, through the Y mixers, the Freshman Talent Show, the Christmas Tree lighting, intramural sports, mothers' weekend, the Y seminar, to the May Day Breakfast, the Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A. each played prominent roles in campus affairs. Working together, the "Y" presented "Dig Into Diversity" this year's seminar. Lectures and discussions attempted to instill students with an acute awareness of local, national, and international problems ... how they are approached, how they affect students, and how they are solved.

YOUNG DEMOCRAT officers celebrating their victory are George Christ, and Rose Anna Mansfield.

The Republicans may not have won the Presidential election this year, but that did not stop the "never die" attitude of the YOUNG REPUBLICANS on campus. Requirements for membership in the YOUNG REPUBLICANS include a steadfast dedication to the political idealism which constitutes the Republican party.

On the other side of the platform ride the YOUNG DEMOCRATS who are enjoying the "Great Society". Their objectives are principally the same as their opponents. They also try to promote interest in politics among college students.

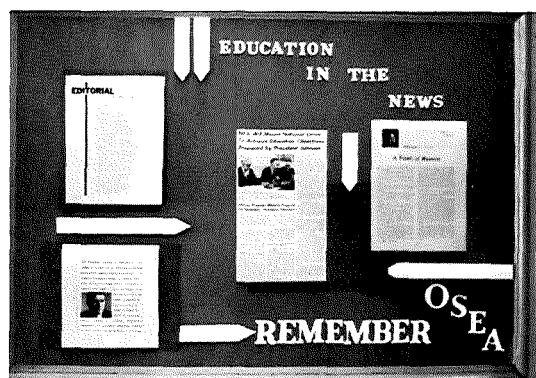

Susan Daniels, Elma Schmidt, Dave Evans, Kay Armstrong, Carolyn VanAsdale, Tom Pascoe, Becky Lingrel, and Vivian Morgan are members of the YOUNG REPUBLICANS.

The Otterbein Chapter of the OHIO STUDENT EDUCATION ASSOCIATION is one of the largest organizations on campus with a total membership of 223. Meetings are held monthly and the programs are planned to meet the interests of everyone in both secondary and elementary education. Also OSEA develops professional attitudes toward education and provides projects to give valuable experience not always available in the classroom. Social activities include a Spring Banquet during which the newly elected officers are installed.

YASNY members are John Rudolf, Don Shumaker, Joe Laubie, Dr. Hart, Paul Bowen, Tim Merrick, Cliff Spohn, Vivian Morgan, Bert Fields.

The SOCIETY FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF MANAGEMENT is the national professional organization of management in industry, commerce, government, and education. S.A.M. undertook many projects this year—one of which proved to be an asset to the college. YASNY provided for the college a Xerox 914 copying machine which is used by faculty and students alike. The 'You Ain't Seen Nothin' Yet' group is a non-profit organization that allows practical business experience for students and members of S.A.M. Membership to S.A.M. is open to anyone interested in any field of corporation management such as sales, production, and advertising.

CLEMENTS HALL STANDARDS COMMITTEE: FIRST ROW: Diane Jones, Judy Gebhart, Tina McCune, Becky Lust. ROW 2: Linda Clifford, Sonya Goad, Marie Platano.

With keys in hand the house mothers on Otterbein's campus perform their nightly ritual of locking the doors of the women's dormitories. They also serve many other functions, like making sure that the girls obey the dorm rules, and being available for consultation when problems occur.

The men's dormitories have a Resident Counselor, Bob Koettel, and Head Residents Jack King and Steve Surface who are responsible for the general conduct and facilities in the men's dorms.

GARST HALL DORM COUNCIL: SEATED: Bob Harris, Dave Mobley, Dan Kyle, Lee Blaylock. STANDING: Dan Weaston, Tom Deever, Wayne Johnson, George Keller, Cecil Simpson, Dick Rothwell.

HOUSEMOTHERS Mrs. Bigham, Mrs. Stoughton, Mrs. Weber, Mrs. Bookwalter, and Mrs. Rider enjoy a meal together.

The members of DAVIS HALL MEN'S DORM COUNCIL are Scott Steele, Harry Boucher, Sandy Walker, Barry Reich, Bob Kline, Bob Miller, Ken Ash, Jack King, head resident.

JC's Mile Fribley, Ken Stansberger, Dick Markle, and Aldine Rose enjoy a snack at the Cardinal's Roost.

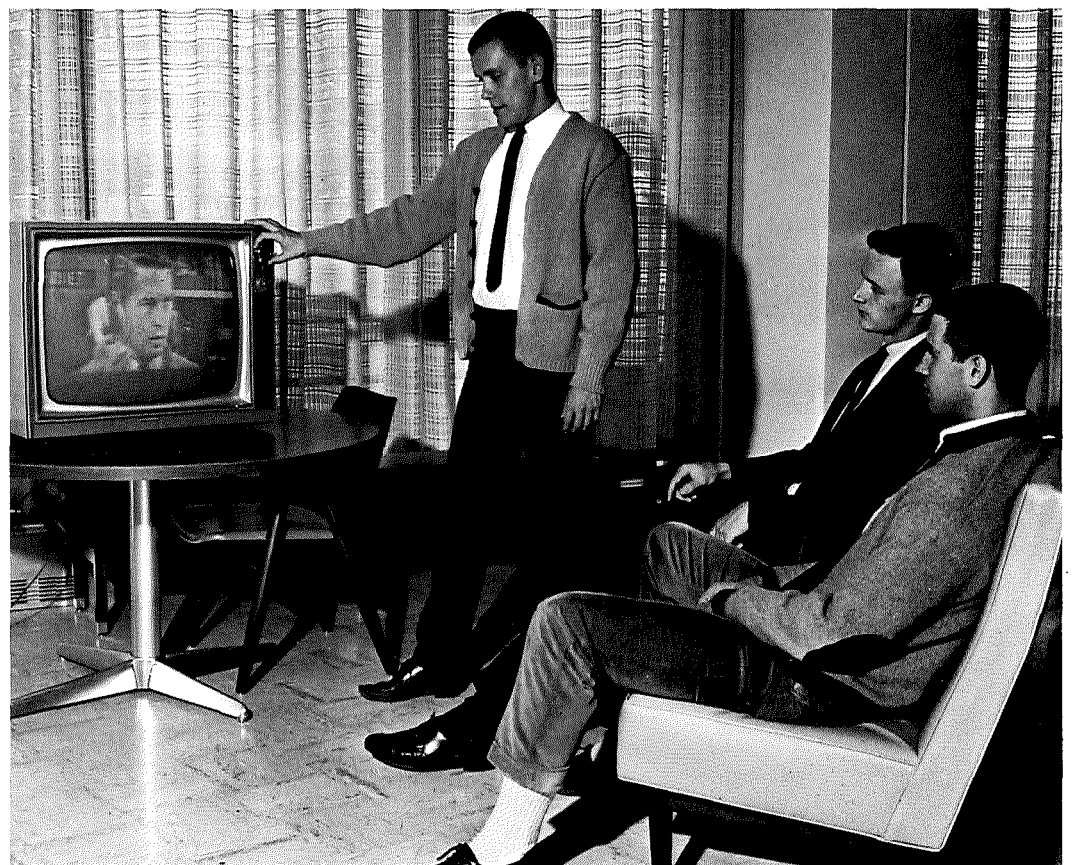

Suzanne Taylor, Sue Klenk, Rose Anna Mansfield, Mike Grayem.

As every freshman will testify, the JUNIOR COUNSELORS at Otterbein are very important in campus life. They serve as advisors and friends when the problems of a new environment begin to descend on freshman students. Twenty women and twenty-four men students comprise the Junior Counselor honor roll.

J.C.'s: Jan Lenahan, Marilyn Marsch, Brian Hajek, Ralph Prince, Edie Sheets.

J.C.'s: Pat McGinnis, Rick Peterson, Mike Clay.

M.S.G.B. ROW 1: Dick Smith, Porter Miller, Frank Tippet. ROW 2: Bill Shackson, George Parthemos, Jack Whalen.

Attitudes fluctuate! Most students obey, some rebel, and so there is a need for campus regulations and governing bodies such as W.S.G.B. and M.S.G.B. to enforce them. All students living in campus housing are automatically under the jurisdiction of the WOMEN'S STUDENT GOVERNMENT BOARD or the MEN'S STUDENT GOVERNMENT BOARD. These organizations endeavor to promote a high standard of social conduct and to maintain all rules of the college concerning student actions.

W.S.G.B. ROW 1: Mary Blair, Wanda McFarland, Debbie Barndt, Mary Ellen Hull, Sandy Svozil, Judy Morison. ROW 2: Rachael

Stinson, Carol Varner, Jerralyn Scott, Dianne Jones, Roberta Kobbs, Judy Gebhart.

Government by the people—government through the STUDENT SENATE. As well as providing the organization behind Bonfire, Homecoming, Dad's Day, the Serendipity Singers Concert, and the semester break ski trip, Senate sponsored buses to football and basketball games, and monitored campus elections. The Student Senate is an organization formed by the students and its services are designed for the students.

STUDENT WELFARE COMMITTEE: Tim Kinnison, Mary Blair, Rick Peterson, Debbie Barndt, Bob Harris.

SOCIAL *LIFE COMMITTEE: Gary Holtzman, Jack Wright, Marcia McCrea, Marti Allen, Holt Wilson.

IT WASN'T JUST ANY POSITION. It was an important and necessary position. It meant wielding a gavel over a large or select group, and it required leadership. Leadership meant the ability to represent your group even under the hardest criticism. Leadership meant the ability to guide your group, the change the unpleasant aspects, to always strive for perfection. And more than that, leadership meant an open channel for student expression.

PANHELLENIC COUNCIL: Jeanne Jacobs, Mary Beth Camp, Lana Rinehart, Nancy McClure, Linda Gillespie, Sue Lang, Lallie Yarman, Sylvia Peters, Bonnie Reams.

SEATED: Kay Blackledge, Nancy Torbush, Karen Hoerath, Carol Sockel, Lynne Putterbaugh, Marilyn Marsh, Ruth Lee, Marti Allen, Mary Blair.

Composed of three members of each of the seven sororities, the PANHELLENIC COUNCIL is organized to coordinate all sorority functions and to promote friendly relations among the sororities. This active group takes care of all the preparations for the Panhellenic Formal and Jump week. A scholarship trophy is also awarded by this group to the sorority with the highest cumulative point average each semester.

Composed of representatives from each of the six local fraternities, the INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL serves as coordinator of the activities of each of these Greek Organizations. The I.F.C. also promotes closer fellowship within each group and encourages constructive action of each member. The I.F.C. sponsors the Interfraternity Formal, at which Miss T & C is selected. It also sponsors interfraternal athletics and a scholarship trophy for the fraternity with the highest cumulative average.

INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL: Joe Ignat, Joel Milthaler, Perry Doran, Jerry Wassem, Ray White, Tom Heisey, Porter Miller.

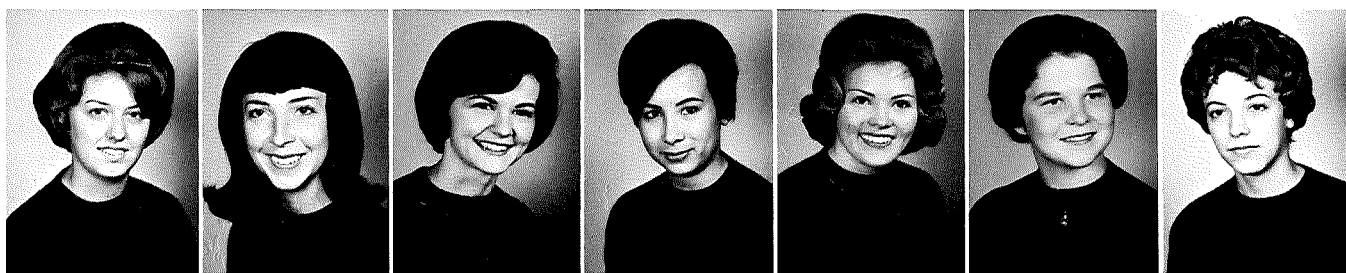

Officers of Epsilon Kappa Tau are M. Goembel, N. Torbush J. James, C. Pulsing.

Epsilon Kappa Tau, the fourth oldest sorority on Otterbein's Campus, was founded in 1918. Pink and white, the colors are represented by the delicate pink, five-petaled flower, the Trailing Arbutus, which also gives EKT its name. The silver shield of purity symbolizes active membership in Arbutus. Each Arbutus girl strives to uphold the creed, "I would Be True", and a principle on which Arbutus was founded, "Eros Kai Timi", meaning "Love and Honor" is still treasured today. Nancy Torbush represented EKT on the Fall Homecoming Court.

Officers of Kappa Phi Omega are S. Handel, L. Gillespie, W. McFarland, S. Perlick.

“Sisters and friends unto the end” is the motto of Kappa Phi Omega. Kappas was organized in 1921 by a group of young women from Westerville with turquoise and gold as the sorority’s colors. The yellow chrysanthemum was chosen as the official flower. The four goals of all Kappas are symbolized by the four rubies on the Kappa pin—leadership, scholarship, friendship, and dedication. Also on the pin are the white pearls symbolizing the unity of the group.

Vivacious Blanche Geho was Kappas representative on the Fall Homecoming Court.

Tau Delta was founded in 1921 by 10 Otterbein alumnae who chose the motto "Tome Dachi". The white rose and the multi-colored sweet pea are the sorority flowers, with sapphire blue and white as the colors. Deltas' sorority motto is "To thine own self be true" and they have chosen as their mascot the Siamese cat. The ten pearls in a circle on the sorority pin symbolize friendship. Kay Blackledge was Delta's lovely representative on the Fall Homecoming Court.

President Turner greets "the parents of the day", Mr. and Mrs. Addie Bender

Parents receive refreshments in the Alumni Gymnasium.

The cry of the pigskin and loneliness for siblings brought excited parents to Otterbein in October for the annual PARENTS' DAY WEEKEND festivities. Registration and entertainment was in the newly completed Campus Center. The climax of the weekend came at the half-time of the Hiram-Otter game when Mr. and Mrs. Addie Bender, parents of Richard Bender, were honored as parents-of-the day. Mothers arrived with the Spring for MOTHERS' DAY WEEKEND, filled with teas, style shows, appreciation for the cast of Anastasia, and a little green folding stuff for students.

The plays were chosen. The parts were read. The leads were assigned. The long production process began. Set-crews met to plan, hammer, paint realism for the stage. Opening night finally came; Cowan Hall was filled and the play was a success. Under the combined leadership of Professors Charles Dodrill and Fred Thayer the OTTERBEIN THEATER DEPARTMENT brought onto the stage of Cowan several first-rate productions this year—"Look Homeward, Angel," the arena play, "Sap of Life," directed by student director Jack Wright, "Anastasia," featuring special guest star, Kim Hunter, and "The Importance of Being Earnest."

WINTER PRINCESS TONI CHURCHES

The excitement of selecting the Winter Princess is equaled by no other contest on campus. The Varsity "O" members vote on the sophomore girls who have never been queen before and select a princess, a maid of honor, and a first attendant. The announcement of their selections is kept a secret until halftime of the homecoming game. Then the searching spotlight sweeps over the crowd until, one by one, the princess, maid of honor, and first attendant have been found in the audience and escorted to their places of honor for the remainder of the game. A dance was held following the game in honor of the princess and her attendants.

Midway through the I.F.C. Dance a restless silence crept over the room. Soon to be announced was the winner of the T&C crown; the annual contest sponsored by the newspaper. Breaking through the undertone, the M.C. announced that Ellen Trout, candidate of Zeta Phi, was voted Queen. She was then crowned by Sharon Banbury, Miss T.&C. of 1964, and presented a trophy and a dozen red roses by Carolyn Van Asdale, editor of the T&C.

1964 Jump King, Tim Pond, crowns Greg.

She said, "May I carry your books ... Let me get the door ..." It was JUMP WEEK and the girls traded places with the boys. Pan-Hellenic Council sponsored the activities of an all-campus show and dance to the theme of "Carousel." The men got the benefit of a little luxury and the coeds got to pick from the Freshman Pledges a Jump Week King. This year the honor went to Greg Sabatino—the T & C's dark horse candidate.

Winners of the Jump Week costume contest are Rick Peterson, Debbie Barndt, Joanne Miller, and Dave Stichweh.

QUEEN OF THE MAY, NAN

MAY DAY COURT: Marilou Holford, Ruth Collins, Queen Nan Van Scoyoc, and Sue Knecht.

The loud speaker blared—"By the order of the Queen of the May . . ." and the festivities in her honor began. Under the direction of Mr. Motyckya the Symphony of Winds played selections from "Camelot," while the pages filed down the steps of the bandshell to make an arch for the May Day Court Procession. First to come through the arch was Marilou Holford, followed by Sue Knecht, and Maid of Honor, Ruth Collins. At last, the new QUEEN OF THE MAY, NAN VAN SCOYOC, wound her way through the crowd, down the steps, to take her place at the throne. She was crowned by Heidi Olbrich, and reigned throughout the day at the track meet, the play and the dance.

Quarterback Dick Reynolds hands the ball off to fullback Dick Amelung as Rick Mauger clears a pathway.

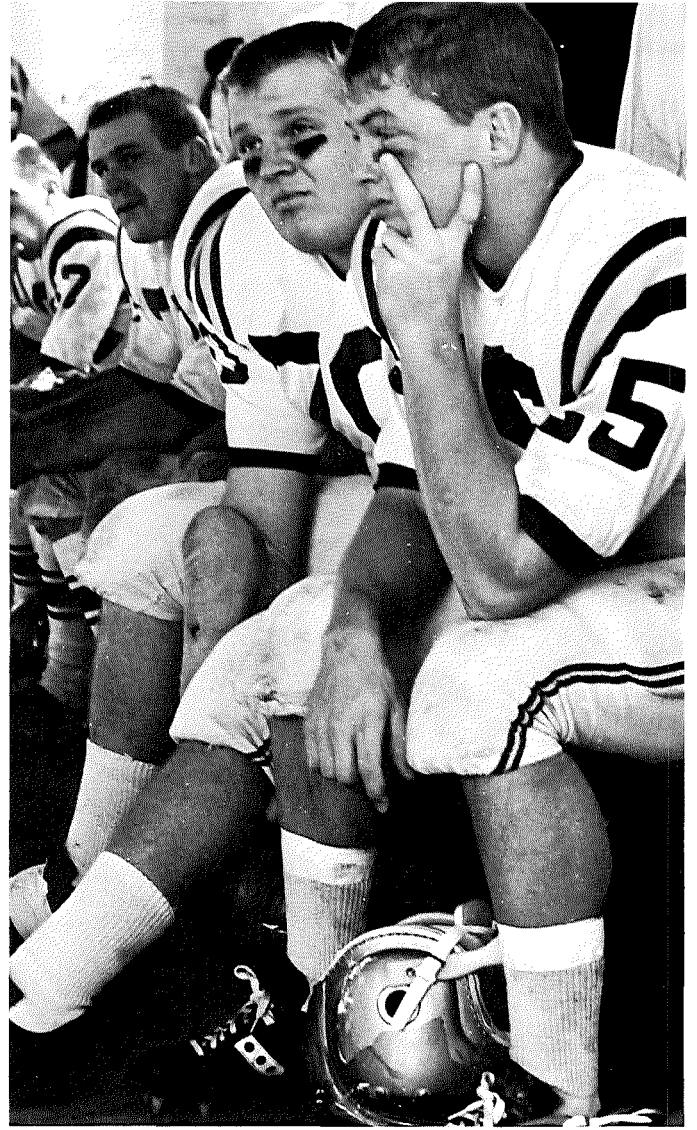

Tension mounts as a Cardinal competitor awaits his turn.

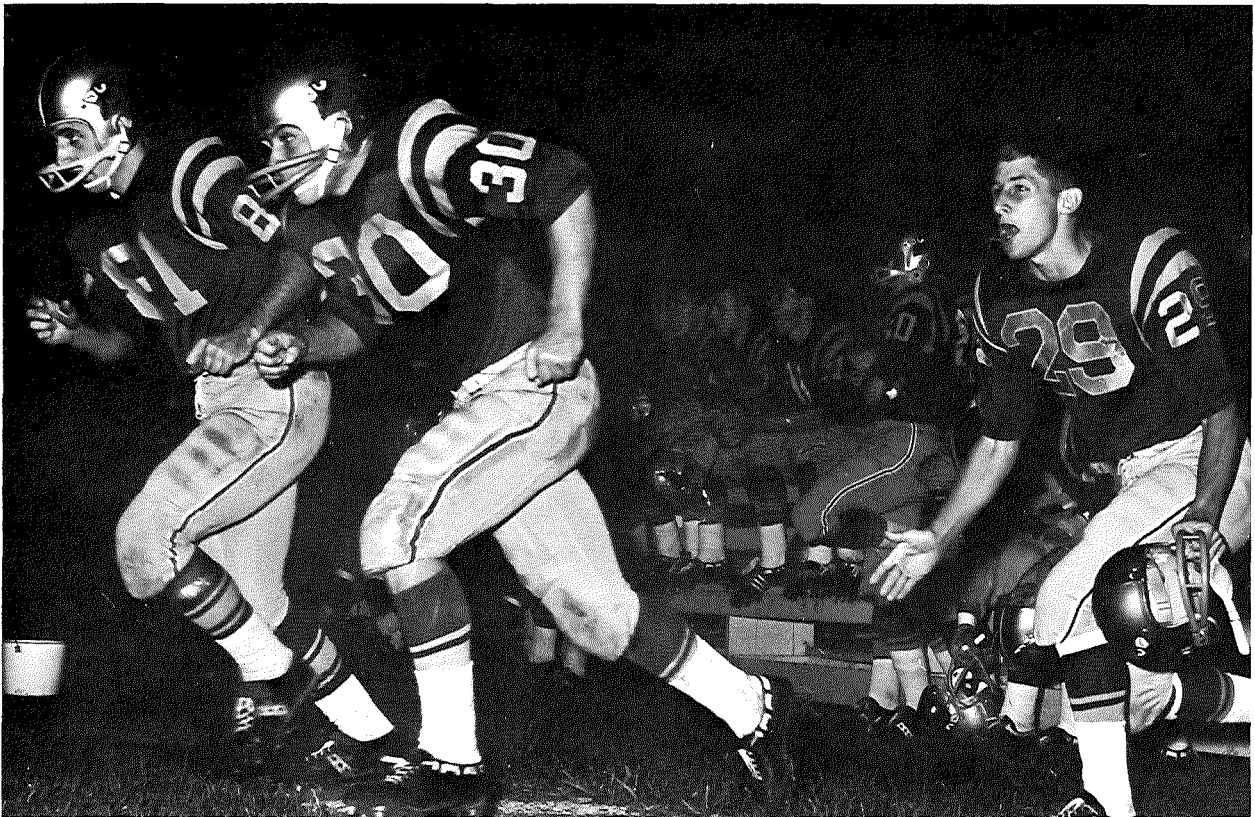

The long, hot, seemingly endless hours of practice proved "fruitful" as the Otterbein Cardinals finished the 1964-65 football season with a respectable 6—3 record. Under the capable leadership of Robert "Moe" Agler, the Otter head coach, the team amazed the enthusiastic crowds with their dazzling displays of running and passing ability.

Bill Gornall gives Dick Morrow a bit of encouragement.

Pam Geyer adds to the spirit of the crowd as she cheers the Otters on to victory.

Adding vim and vigor to the spirit of the Otterbein athletic world is a difficult task which the CHEERLEADERS made seem simple. With their enthusiastic cheers and their "peppy" antics, the cheerleaders provided incentive and much needed support to the athletic programs.

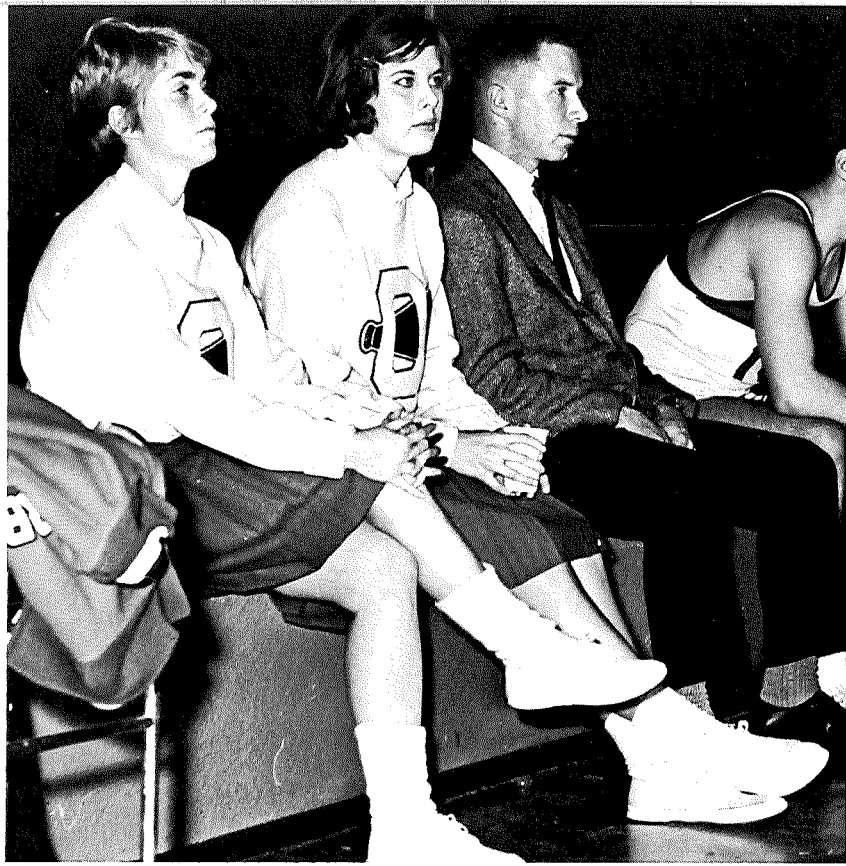

The cheerleaders add a spark of warmth to a cold football afternoon.

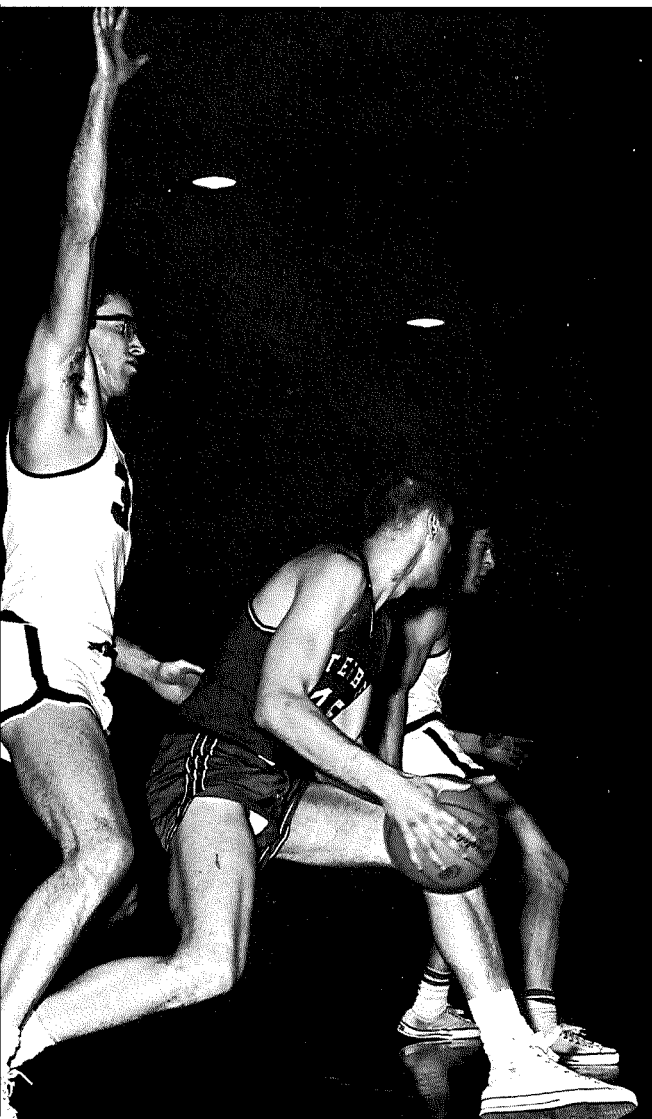

Dick Reynolds starts the season off by jumping through the "Big O".

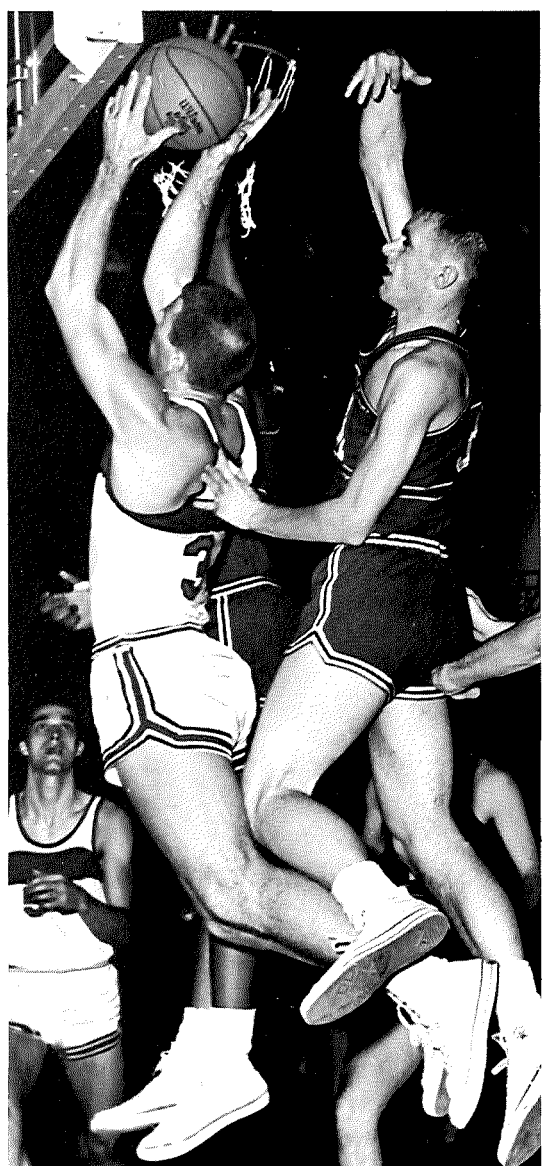

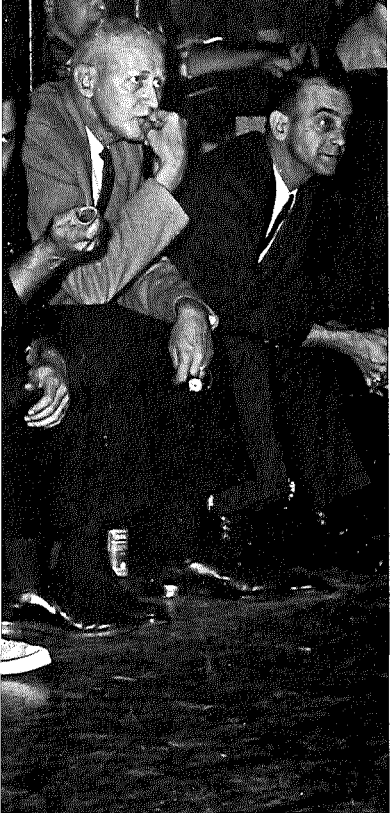

A close-up of the Otterbein bench.

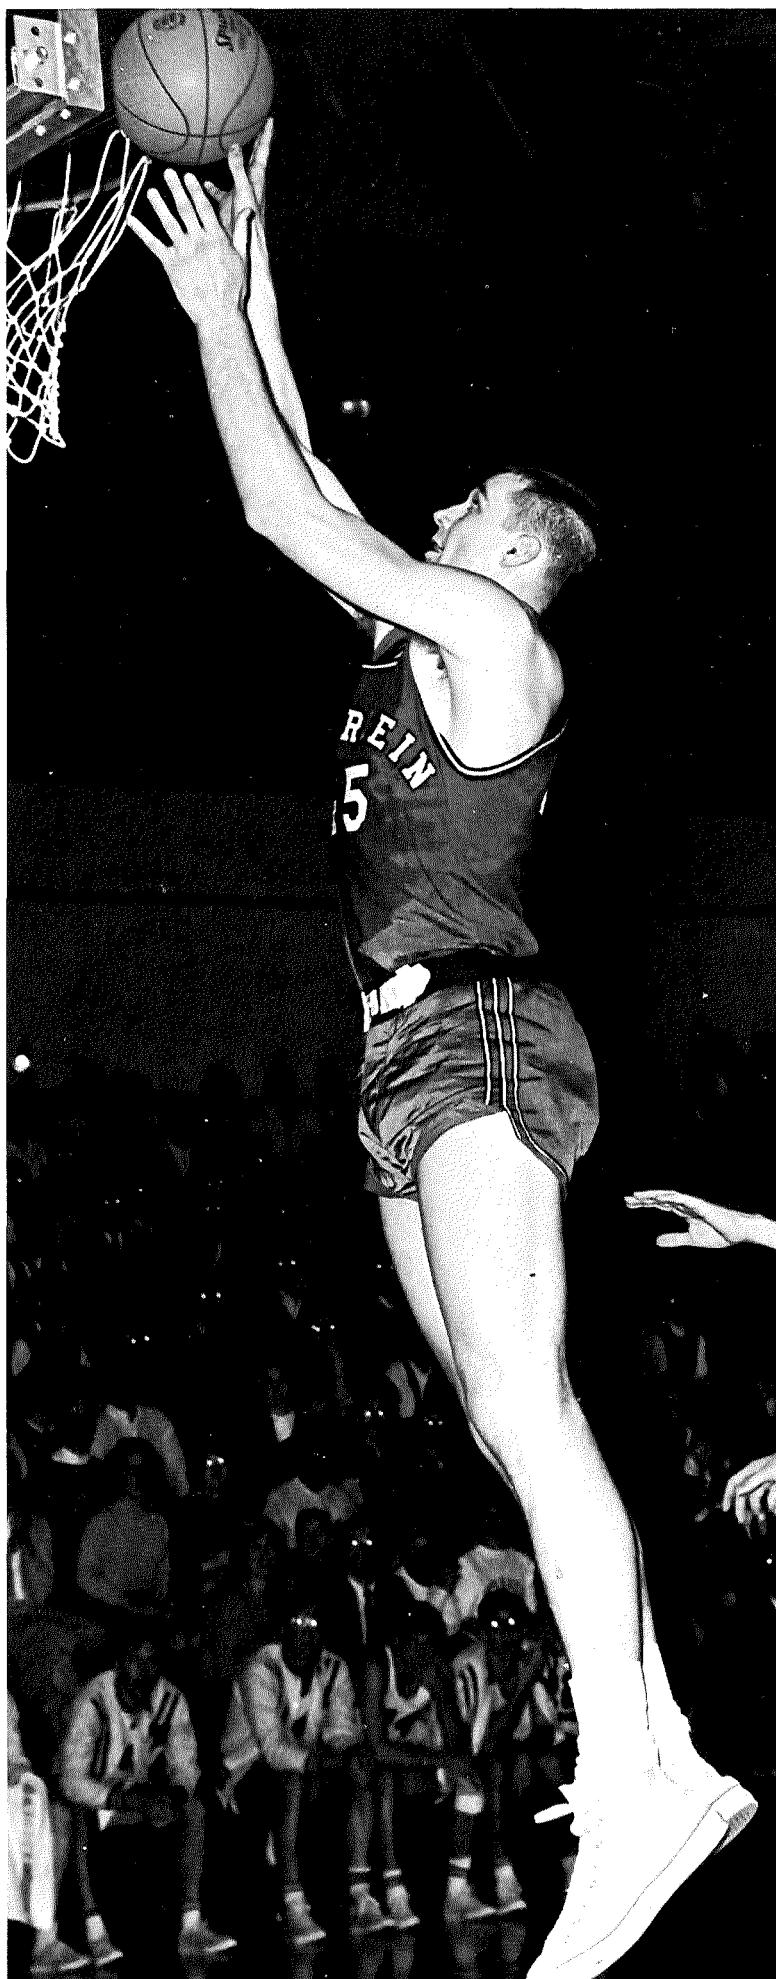

"Goal by Carlos!" A familiar sound that rings throughout Alumni Gymnasium whenever the Otters take to the boards. Under the guidance of head coach Curt Tong, the Otters met with overwhelming success in competing against opponents both near and far as attested by their 16—7 record. The highlight of the season occurred as the Otters literally trounced their cross-town rivals at Capital University. In tournament competition, the Otters advanced to the sectional finals only to be defeated by perservering Akron cagers.

Klenk, Bob Richenbaugh, Perry Doran, Don Fox, George Christ, Don Durieux, Bob Lowe.

CROSS COUNTRY at Otterbein is a sport that, although relatively unknown, serves as a foundation for a successful TRACK program. Track is perhaps the best sport at Otterbein. Interest is high, competition is keen, and the sport itself is both rewarding and relaxing—all these ingredients combine to make a successful track team which, under the direction of Coach Yoest, Otterbein has had for the past few years.

Tom Main grimaces as he clears the bar at six feet.

Although they did not win many games, the Otterbein BASEBALL team delighted the fans with their dazzling display of baseball at its finest. Under the tutelage of Coach Terry Parsons, the team took a southern tour and ended up near the .500 mark for the season.

Joe Rice shows excellent form as he mows down the opposition with his blazing fastball.

GOLF: KNEELING: Mike Griffith, Mark Woodruff, Rick Pinson. STANDING: Pat King, Coach Robert "Moe" Agler, Glen Calihan.

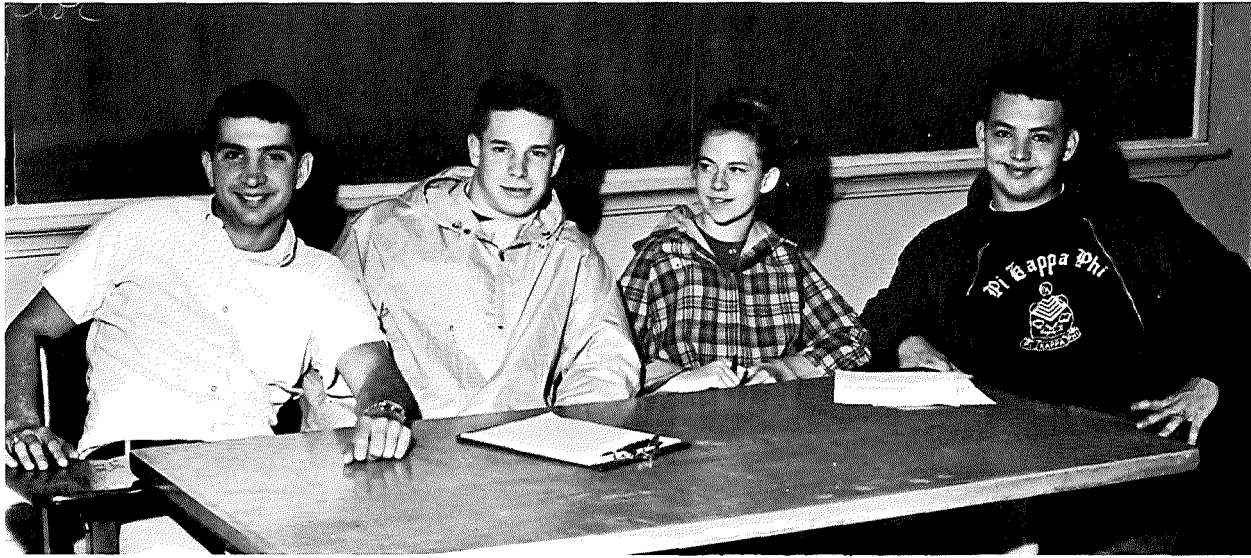

GOLF at Otterbein College affords its participants to indulge in skillful competition on the links. Under the coaching of Athletic Director Robert "Moe" Agler, the linksmen parred their way to victory on several occasions.

TENNIS, a sport that is on the rise at Otterbein, is attracting more participants each year. The highlight of this years season was the double win over Capital. Under the brilliant coaching of Curt Tong, the netmen finished above .500 for the season.

TENNIS: KNEELING: Jim Bruce, Craig Seese, Don Robertson, Bill Bennett, Craig Brandt. STANDING:

SAILING CLUB: George Parthemos, Dave Gates, Liz Fenn, and Tom Pascoe

The SAILING CLUB has as its purpose teaching new members and providing fun for the old sailors. Since the club was just organized in 1963 the club's participation in intercollegiate regattas has been limited. However they are expecting to compete in the future.

The MODERN DANCE CLUB, under the advisory of Dean Van Sant, is for girls who are interested in creative movement by using the body as the instrument and movement as the medium. The girls in this club participate in such programs as Convocation, the Festival of Arts Series, and May Day.

WAA Christmas Breakfast meeting.

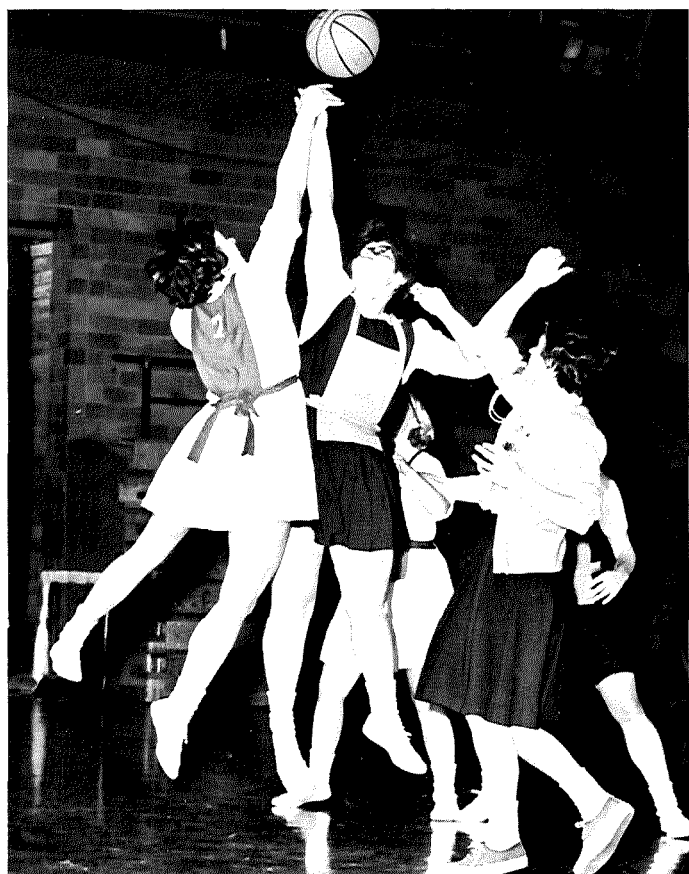

Lectures on graduate school, leisure time, and the education of the blind, a field and track clinic—These were a few of the activities of PI EPSILON, Otterbein's club for women physical education majors and minors. Through well-planned meeting and meaningful experiences in clinics the club worked together to learn more about their future profession. Pedaling, dribbling and back-handing were some of the pleasures of the WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION. Both intramural and intercollegiate competition sparked interest and effort in the athletic endeavors of WAA members.

Intercollegiate Hockey Team: Bark Wissinger, Lydia Steinmetz, Judy Morrison, Phyllis Noll, Jane Martin, Anne Barnes, Diana Bosley, Marsha Lauderbach, Sharon Milligan, Marie Platano.

KNEELING: Joy Kiger, Mary Jo Allen, Joyce Stemple, Joanne Miller, Anna Van Tassel.

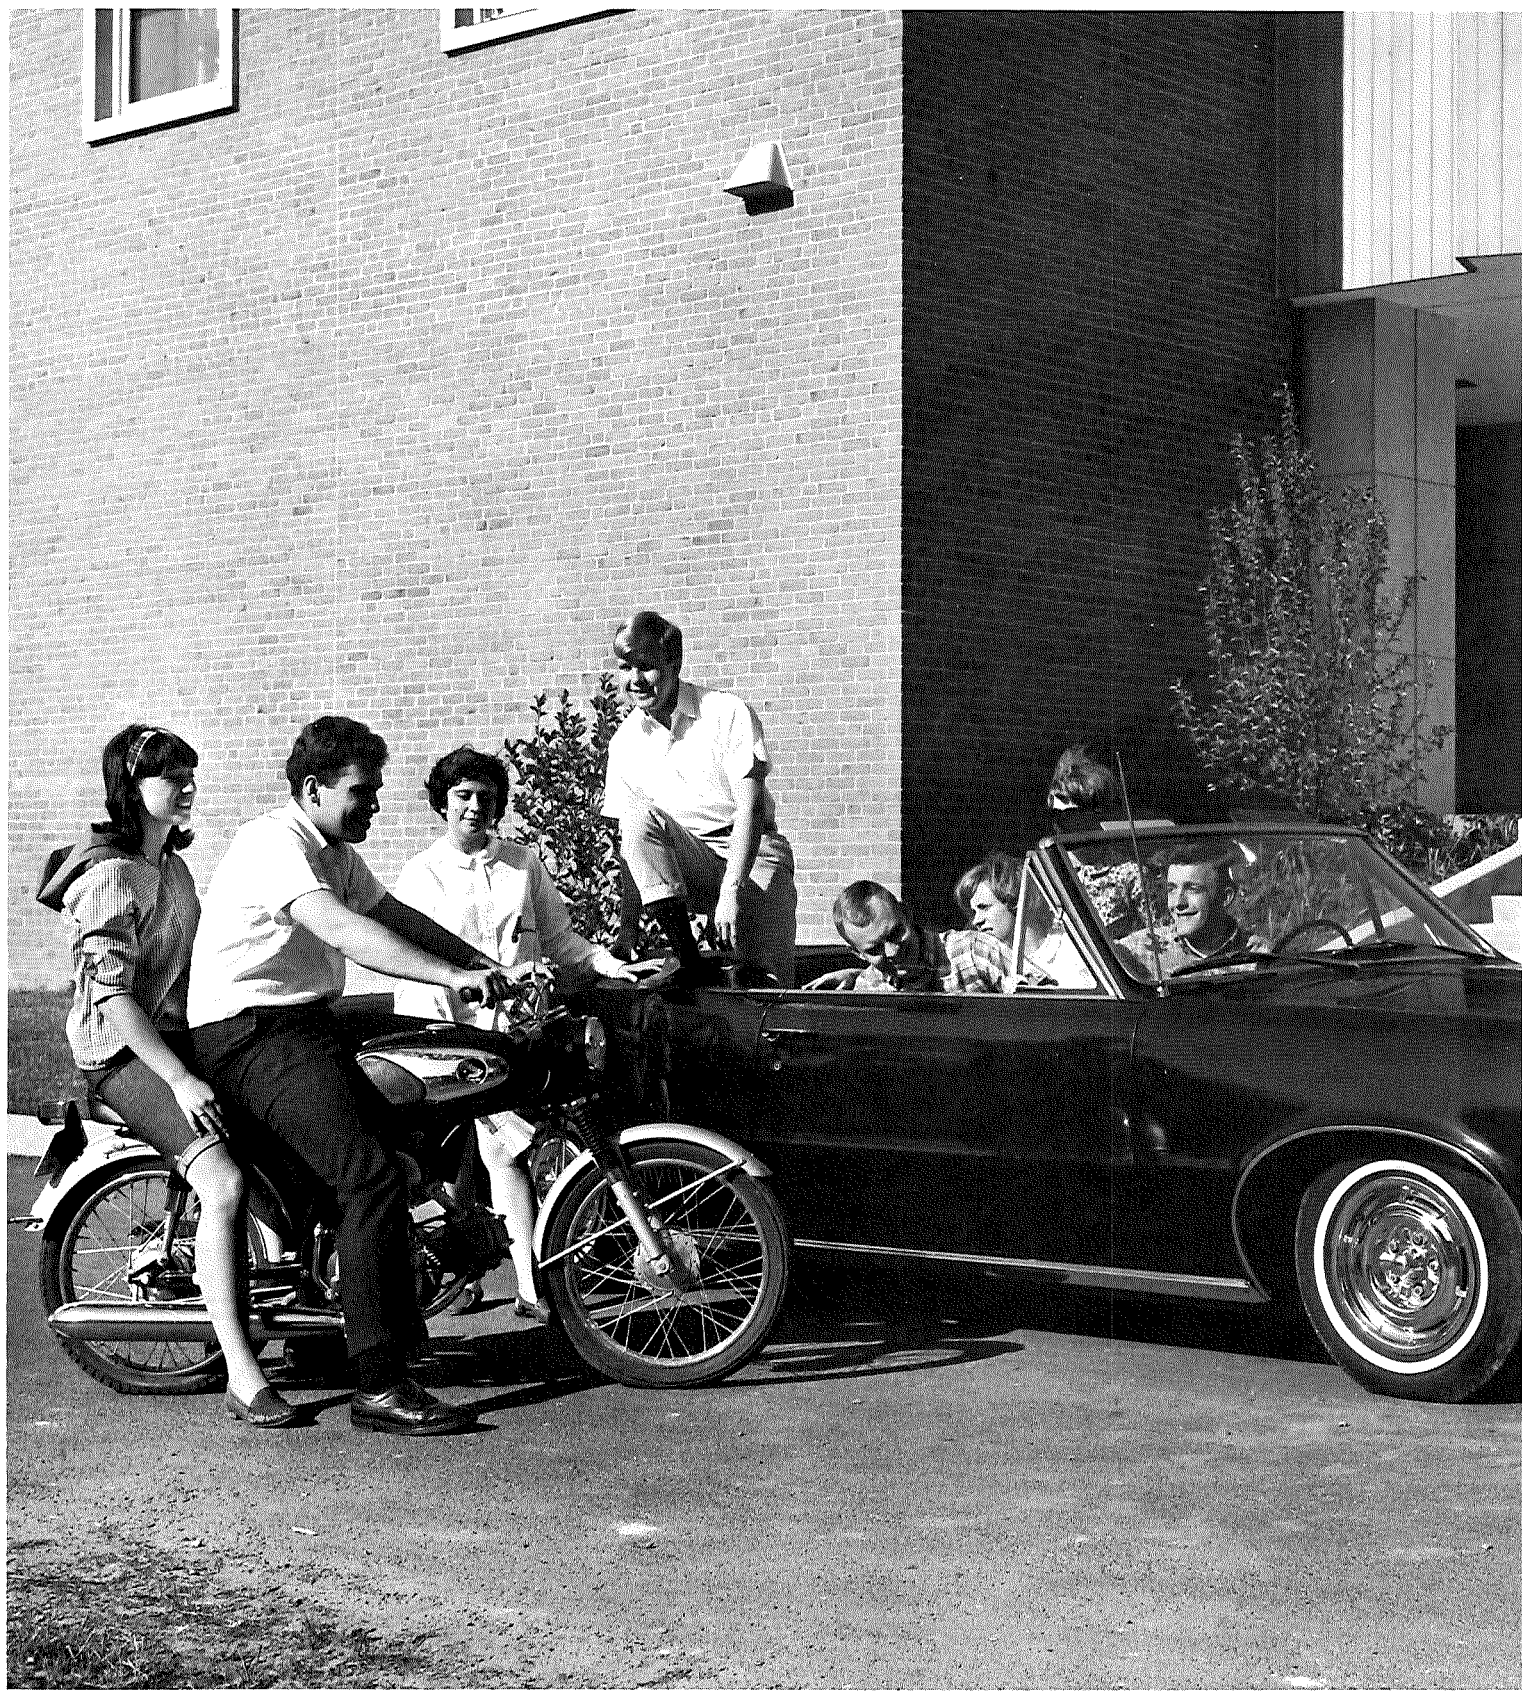

Whether Hockey in the Fall, basketball in the Winter or softball in the Spring, Otterbein women worked hard at their favorite sports. Various individual athletics such as archery and tennis played an important part of the warm weather season. The intramural program sponsored volleyball, badminton, pingpong, basketball and hockey teams. Winter took some indoors for bowling and some outdoors for ice skating. Participation in the sports program led to membership in WAA—here qualities of spirit and cooperation were developed, tried, and exhibited.

Seniors

Perry Doran, Senior Class President

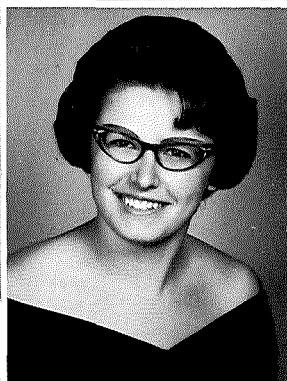

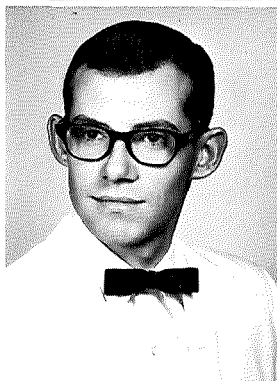

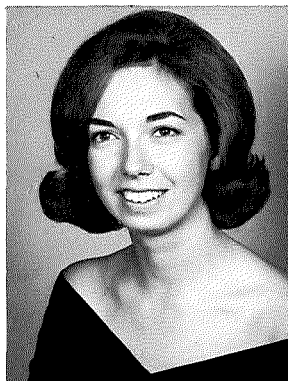

Mary Ellen Hull, Senior Class Secretary.

The class of 1965 was graduated. Its members permeated a new world, a different world. They were educated at Otterbein College. Some were wealthy, some poor; some from Africa and some from Canton, Ohio; some were Greeks and some independents. They all lived and studied four years in Westerville. They reflected the times—they were more studious, more serious and more professional than the previous graduates. They became alumni, active alumni. Visiting the campus, the walks will seem cold, the town small, the students young, so young. Times have changed and will change. Only the brick stands and in time even this will erode.

Dr. Hancock and Professor Botts affix a hood on Ray White.

Graduating seniors are busy readying themselves for the “big moment”.

The baccalaureate procession is caught in full stride.

A bird's eye view of the seniors as they enter Cowan Hall.

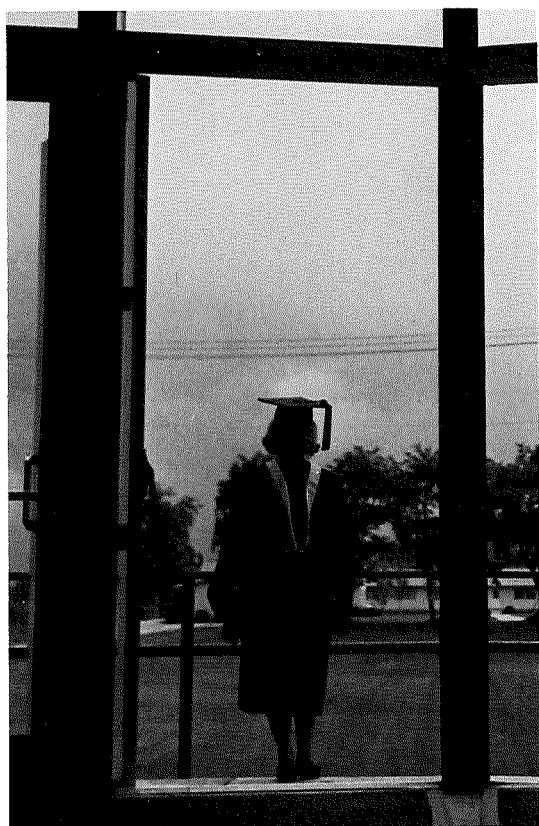

Who turned out the lights?

The trials and tribulations of a college life are summed up in graduation—the end of one phase of life and the beginning of another—with memories of the old and speculations of the new.

The AFROTC commissions its new "2nd Lieutenants".

A lonely graduate ponders the future.

Art Deeks has help with his wings.

The "Grand March" gets underway.

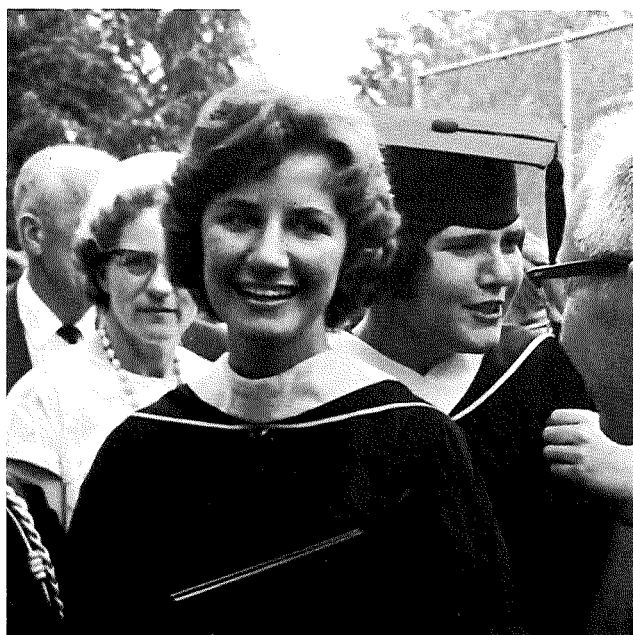

All eyes and ears are on the commencement speaker as he challenges the graduates in the future.

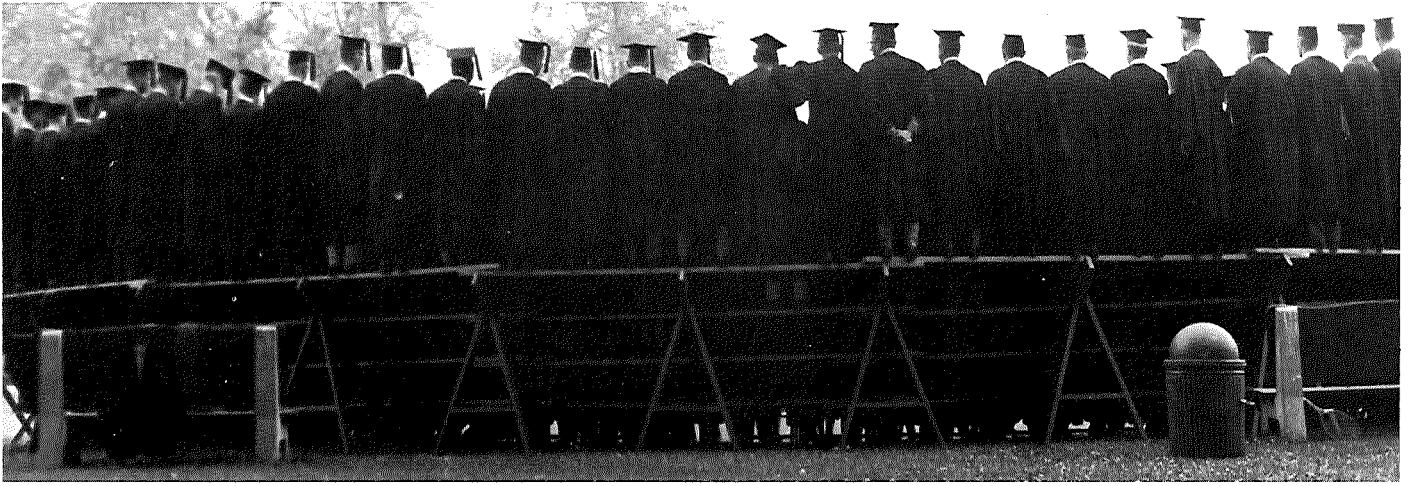

President Turner flips the tassel of Judy Buckle.

Linda Gillespie beams all over with joy after having received her diploma.

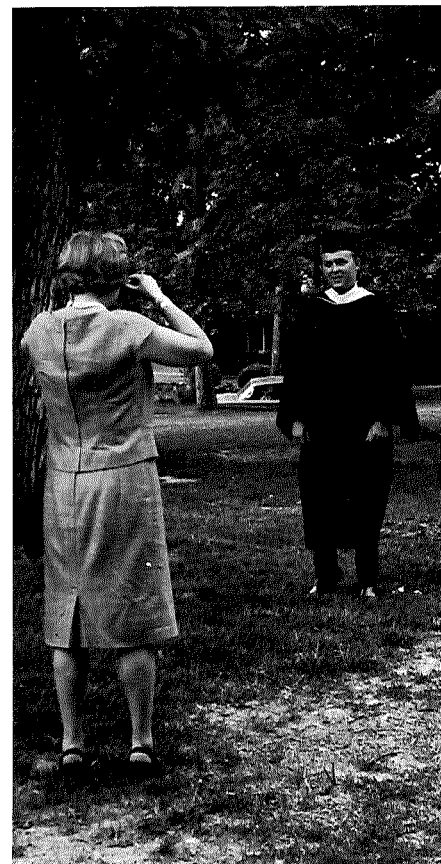

Roger Blair receives his diploma from Dean Miller.

What's behind the graduating class of 1965?

The Otterbein blimp takes an aerial photo of the graduation proceedings.

A proud mother snaps a picture of her equally proud son.

DAVID WEBSTER

WILLIAM WEBSTER

MARTIN IRMLER

IN MEMORIAM

We pause to honor three members of our Otterbein family who lost their lives in an automobile accident one brisk fall night. The men, David Webster, his brother William Webster, and Martin Irmeler were well-known and equally well-liked at Otterbein, and, it is to these fellow students that we, the Sibyl staff, dedicate our book.

*Putting together a yearbook is not a one man operation. It is an operation that involves many people, many sacrifices, tedious work, and a lot of time. This year, there was one person who worked harder, made more sacrifices, and spent more time, but did not receive near enough credit. It was a pleasure having LANA RINEHART on my staff—without her, the book would not be a reality.
