Otterbein Issues a Challenge

Man has always been challenged-be it by the distant sea or endless space. Here at Otterbein this challenge finds expression through interested professors, dorm friendships and ever present responsibilities. Most accept the challenge and are changed by it over the years they spend here. Life at Otterbein is here and now-filled with the excitement of spolls, the beauty of queens, the quest to probe beneath the surface of life-but it is also preparation for a purposeful future. The 1963 SIBYL is a pictorial record of the challenge of this year and the promise of years to come.

Jut Renlains a Part of Life at Otterbein

The challenge of CAMPUS LIFE is to find that delicate point of balance between a purely academic existence and an overwhelming social and extracurricular life. For no two people will this point be the same. For this reason Otterbein offers a variety of activities which may be mixed and blended by each individual as he wishes.

Fall Homecoming - A Weekend to Remember

Under the warm October sun the 1962 Fall Homecoming parade featuring colorful fraternity floats, music, cheering, and, of course, the lovely Homecoming Queen Kay Newhouse and her court wound its way through the streets of Westerville and around the campus. After an Otter victory and traditional halftime crowning the fraternities and sororities welcomed alumni at open houses. A series of distinguished speakers at special convocation programs added a serious note to the timely theme, "Crisis in Freedom."

Yuichi Is Choice of Otterbein Coeds

Members of the Jump Week Court are STANDING: Pat Patterson, Mike Grayem, Rich Furay, Dick Brammer, Yuichi Tsuda, Jim Million, Bob Johnson and Al Hood. KNEELING: Sherry Perlick, Charlene Zundel, Nan Van Scoyoc, Gail Sherer, Ruth Lea, Marilyn Hutchings, Carol Sockel, and Joann Warren.

Pirates invaded the campus as Otterbein coeds asked their favorite men to join them in the Jump Week festivities. Coke dates and date night in the sorority rooms were activities of Wednesday and led up to the Thursday night movie. Each fraternity sponsored a pledge who spoke at the special Friday convocation and asked the coeds to vote for him for Jump Week King. The T & C entered a dark horse candidate. That evening at the dance, "Pirates' Paradise," 1962 King, Al Hood, crowned Yuichi Tsuda Jump Week King.

Mentor Ruehle, Mary Ann Sheaffer, Boyd Robinson and Judy Padfield win prizes for the best earrings.

Lettermen Selected Winter Homecoming Princess

After searching the crowd, Bill Messmer finds the Winter Homecoming Princess, Miss Nancy Staats.

Varsity O members line the way as the Princess is escorted to her throne.

Members of the court are: Miss Libby Holman, First Attendant; Miss Judy Jones, 1962 Princess; Miss Nancy Staats, 1963 Princess; Miss Judy Furay, Maid of Honor.

Miss Nancy Staats reigns over Winter Homecoming.

The 1963 Winter Homecoming Princess was presented during the halftime of the Cap-Otter basketball game. The Varsity O chose the Princess and her court, whose identity remained secret until the presentation. At this exciting moment Bill Messmer, president of Varsity O, scanned the crowded Alumni Gymnasium, walked slowly through the stands and led Miss Nancy Staats to her throne. Students shook the building with applause for Miss Staats and her court: Judy Furay, Maid of Honor and Libby Holman, First Attendant. After the game the annual Winter Homecoming Dance was held in Barlow in honor of the Winter Homecoming Princess and her court.

Corps Sponsors Boosted Morale

Fifteen lovely coeds were chosen by AFROTC flights and squadrons to represent them as Corps Sponsors. The girls, dressed uniformly in black skirts, sweaters, heels, and white blazers, attended drill meets to encourage the men to victory. Along with the Chaplain's Corps, they visited the Worthington Children's Home at Christmas and presented a program. The highlight of the year was the annual Military Ball, where the Corps Sponsors were regally treated as guests of honor.

Sibyl Staff Selects Cede as Queen

MISS MERCEDES BLUM, Sibyl Queen

Representing the true Otterbein spirit of friendship, scholarship and leadership, the title of Sibyl Queen is one of the highest honors bestowed upon a senior girl. Because of this, the members of the Sibyl staff are proud to present their queen, Miss Mercedes Blum. Cede is a member of Theta Nu sorority and has served as recording secretary this year. Her interest in writing led her to be co-editor of the Sibyl last year, editor of the Quiz and Quill, and a member of the T & C staff. She enjoys sports and is an active member and officer of both Pi Epsilon and WAA. Cede was guest of honor at the annual Sibyl banquet and was presented with the first copy of the 1963 Sibyl.

Cede joins the traditional line of Sibyl Queens.

Sally and Court Claim May Day Horrors

MISS SALLY BANBURY, Queen of the May

MISS SANDY SALISBURY, Maid of Honor

May Day was ushered in at the band-shell by freshman Maypole dancers celebrating the coming of spring. After a fanfare of trumpets, Miss Sally Banbury, Queen of the May, and her escort wound their way to the throne through arches formed by pages. They were followed by her attendants, Miss Sandy Salisbury, Miss Claudia Smith and Miss Kathy Kanto. Miss Marilyn Bamberger, 1962 May Queen, crowned her successor and took her place with the court. The queen and her court were entertained by dancers and the Quiz and Quill play and later that evening were guests of honor at the May Day play, Man and Superman, and at the May Day dance.

Council Governs Student Body

The Student Council, composed of representatives from the classes, CCA, Panhellenic Council, Intrafraternity Council, WSGB and MSGB, is the main legislative body on campus. Among the responsibilities of the Council are Freshman Orientation, Bonfire, Fall Homecoming, class elections, faculty evaluation and May Day.

A first for the Student Council this year was the sponsorship of a special all-campus event, the Four Freshmen, who appeared in Cowan Hall February 7. Another major project was to improve communications between the council, administration and student body.

Lew Rose leads the council in the discussion of a current campus topic.

Student Court Accepts Judicial Responsibility

The Student Court is the judicial section of our student government, endeavoring to enforce the constitution of the Student Council. The members of the court include one man and one woman from each class elected by the Student Council. The court elects its own presiding judge.

The purpose of the Student Court is to enforce the observance of rules and regulations pertaining to all phases of student life. The position of the court is that of appellate for the students and its specific function is that of a court of equity; its jurisdiction is not final but merely that of a recommendation to the Administrative Council.

The governing body of the women students is the Women's Student Government Board, a subsidiary of the Women's Student Government Association to which every woman student automatically belongs. This board, composed of three elected officers and the presidents and vice-presidents of the women's dormitories, handles problems which cannot be handled by the dormitory standards committees. The object of the board is to increase the sense of individual and community responsibility among women students.

Governing Boards Promote High Standards

Promoting high standards of social conduct and maintaining all rules of the college is the purpose of the Men's Student Government Board. The board members are three officers of the Men's Student Government Association, one representative from each of the social fraternities and independent men not living in college housing, and the president of the Freshman Dormitory Council. This administrative and legislative board plays an important role in Otterbein's system of student government.

JC's Find Counseling Both

Sandy Salisbury, Bonnie Steele, Dora Potts, Liz Glor and Sue Drinkhouse enjoy being counselors.

Barb Mauer and Rosemary Huprich visit Jan Knecht and Marilyn Shute.

Claudia Smith, Zoe Brown, Linda Bussard and Sally Banbury take time to talk after a busy day.

Before second semester the faculty selects the junior counselors for the coming school year. During second semester these juniors participate in a special course designed to train them in elementary methods of counseling. Their goal is to help each freshman girl begin a successful college life.

Sheila Leonard, Nancy Dern, Carol Field and Carol Clark enjoy Cochran's lounge.

Challenging and Rewarding

The men who serve as counselors are sophomores, juniors and seniors. These upperclassmen reside in the four freshman dorms on "Boot Hill" and in Park House. In a special counseling course they learn how to handle the many problems which arise involving their counselees during the frosh's first year on campus.

Spending an evening in the dorm are counselors Ron Lucas, Bill Beck, Tony Hugli, Dave Brubaker, Bob Koettel, Ray Leffler and Holt Wilson.

After Weeks of Waiting the Bonfire Blazed

After several weeks of preparation and postponement, anxiety and disappointment, accidents and problems, the freshmen formed a snake line at King Hall and slithered down to the bandshell. After the stimulating pep rally, and crowning of the Beanie King and Queen, Dick Browning and Roberta Kobbs, the freshmen encircled the bonfire waiting for Jan Sorgenfrei to light massive heap. The frosh ran around the crackling mound until exhausted, but jubilant, they proceeded to President and Mrs. Turner's home for the traditional serenade. The exciting evening came to an end with the freshman invasion of State Theater.

Chosen for their contribution to the success of the bonfire, Roberta Kobbs and Dick Browning reigned as King and Queen.

Anxious, pajama-clad freshmen waited for the snake dance to begin.

A Three to Four Sophomore Victo

Members of Varsity O thought of novel ways to encourage freshman men to wear their beanies.

Excitement and laughter filled the air as the girls' relays began.

Varsity O supervision encouraged safety.

"Fire drill, everybody up and out!" This was the cry that awoke the freshman girls at 7:30 a.m. on Scrap Day. Men's and women's relay races, coed volleyball, men's sack race, the girls' softball game, canoe races for the gals only, and a strictly male tug-of-war across Alum Creek comprised Otterbein's traditional competition. Customary costuming and hazing by upperclassmen were omitted this year. The day's activities ended with a close score of four to three, a sophomore victory. As payment for losing, the freshmen wore their beanies an extra five weeks until halftime of the Cap-Otter football game.

Doomed Freshmen to Keep Beanies

Every bit of reserve strength was used in the valiant effort to pull the heavy sacks across the finish line.

Determined freshman men fought to the end but had to yield to sophomore supremacy.

Christmas Joy Spread Through Otterbein

Mr. Coulter, Mrs. Coulter and Mrs. Fuller welcome students with food and conversation.

Student carolers bring Christmas spirit to Westerville.

From the lighting of the Christmas tree to the singing of the last carol, Christmas on campus was this year, as every year, a time to remember. The night before vacation found everyone at Cowan Hall enjoying the Christmas program. After the program, students caroled in Westerville ending at professors' homes for fun and refreshments. Later at Barlow Dr. Shackson led the throng in singing. Students and faculty listened as President Turner read his hilarious "The Night Before Christmas at Otterbein." Blindfolded, President Turner broke the pinata, and students scrambled for candy.

Sue Sain, Pat Buck and Emily Smith enjoy candied popcorn at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Waas.

Students Welcomed Morns and Dads for Parents' Day

Students and their parents joined in singing the Otterbein Love Song.

Otterbein was proud to have Mr. and Mrs. Sims as Parents of the Day.

This year Otterbein had some special treats in store for the over 600 mothers and dads on Parents' Day. Parents were the guests of the college for lunch at Barlow Hall after registration and for the showing of From the Tower, a technicolor film about life at Otterbein. During the afternoon they attended various open houses at the dorms and were delighted by the musical comedy, The Pajama Game.

That evening during the half time ceremonies of the Otterbein-Hiram game Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Sims, Jr. were chosen as Parents of the Day. They were presented with a special plaque by Miss T & C Joann Warren, and Mrs. Sims received a dozen red roses. Mr. and Mrs. Sims are the parents of Marguerite Sims, an Otterbein junior.

Students Entertained Mothers for Weekend

Students treated their mothers to a Barlow dinner as an introduction to college life.

Highlight of the weekend was the play, J.B.

YWCA sponsored, Mothers' Weekend is an event eagerly awaited by Otterbein students. This year, as every year, mothers began to arrive on Friday and by Saturday the campus was bustling as they joined the students for open houses, teas, athletic events and choral programs. The highlight of this year's schedule of events was the play, J.B., with guest star Ed Begley. Sunday brought church services and special meals-with mothers treating. The weekend ended with cheery good-bys and promises of letters as students went back to their books and mothers began the long ride home.

Artist Series Brought Outstanding Performers

The Canadian Players presented Shakespeare's Twelfth Night.

The Artist Series is a recent addition to Otterbein's cultural events program. Co-sponsored by the Westerville Concerts Association and Otterbein College, this program brings events to the campus each year in the areas of drama, dance, and music. Now in its third year, the Artist Series has brought to campus such outstanding groups as the Cleveland Playhouse performing Hedda Gabler, the Columbus Boys' Choir, the Westminster Choir and the Jose Limon Dance Company. This year programs were presented by the Ukranian Bandurist Chorus, the Canadian Players presenting Twelfth Night, the Paris Chamber Ensemble and the Leon Destine Haitian Dance Company.

Lectures and Foreign Films Added Variety

An addition to the intellectual climate was a series of Thomas Lecturers who visited the campus periodically and spoke before groups of interested students, faculty members and townspeople. Dr. Donald Andrews, Dr. Grant Reynard, Dr. Walter Judd, Marshall G. S. Hodgson and Dr. George Butterick gave informative lectures as part of this series.

Dr. Walter Judd addresses the Winter Homecoming audience.

Janet Catalona, Linda Conrad, Bill Catalona, and Don Cunningham enter Cowan Auditorium to view the latest foreign film.

In response to student interest, the foreign film series was enlarged this year to include films from Italy, Austria, India, Spain and France. This series was popular with the entire campus and gave language students an opportunity to try out their skills.

Theatre Group Presented Four Plays

The cast of Pajama Game salute their leaders, Jack Wright and Judy Cook.

The Theatre Department is one of the fastest growing departments on the Otterbein campus. Four major productions are presented each year - one of which is done in arena style. The 1963 productions were Pajama Game; Bell, Book and Candle; J.B.; and Man and Superman, plus an evening of avant-garde plays. This year Ed Begley, television and screen personality, became the second professional guest star to appear in an Otterbein theatre production when he played Mr. Zuss in J.B.

Professional guest star Ed Begley portrays Mr. Zuss in the production of Archibald MacLeish's play, J.B.

Ed Begley talks with Jack Wright and Carol Alban, who play the roles of J.B. and his wife Sara in the production of J.B.

ATHLETICS issue a challenge to each member of the college community both in physical fitness and good sportsmanship. Otterbein offers a wide and varied range of sports at both the intercollegiate and intramural levels so that every student can participate in some way in the athletic program.

Harry Klockner puts up a defense for extra yardage.

Playing a tougher schedule than usual, Otterbein proved a formidable opponent on the gridiron.

Outscoring their opponents by 40 points and averaging 21 points a game, the Cardinals rolled up a 5-4 season mark.

Chosen as most valuable player was Bill Messmer, most improved player, Terry Mickey, and most valuable freshman, Dick Amelung.

Tackling of Top Teams Proved a Difficult Task

Howard Newton and Don Eppert lead the Cardinals onto the field for the first game of one of Otterbein's toughest seasons.

Cutting right end, Bill Messmer is converged on from behind.

Behind big tackles and guards like Dick Scheu, Don Eppert, Jim Booth, Dick Snelling and Ron Ball, Otterbein backs were able to tear up opponents' lines for long gains. While the offense rested, defensive linemen James Studer and Howard Newton helped to hold off the driving forces of powerful enemy backs.

Assistant Coach Ken Zarbaugh first learns of the holes from spotters high in the stands.

Head Coach Moe Agler relays the information and recommends a play to quarterback Dave Kull.

Putting the play into action, Harry Klockner chooses to run on the option play as Dave Kull runs interference.

Improvement Seen in Diamondmen

Mike Levine led Otterbein's diamondmen with a batting average of .333 through a disappointing 2-14 season. Jim Wilson led in the home run department with three while, Jack Pietila led in runs scored with nine. Pietila also had more hits than any other Otter.

As 44 hopefuls turned out on the first day of practice, Coach Ken Zarbaugh narrowed his squad to 20 in hopes of bettering the previous year's 1-10 mark. It seems as though baseball at Otterbein is on the upward trend.

Otterbein's track team, while finishing with only a 5-7 record, scored very well in individual efforts.

As the team finished sixth in the Ohio University Relays, Bill Young took first place in the discus throw with a toss of 149 feet, one inch, which gained him the number one slot in Ohio. He followed this effort with a fourth place at the Fourth Annual Mid-East Regional Track Meet.

At Akron, Bill Swan tied the Ohio Conference 100 yard dash record with a time of 9.7 seconds.

In the All-Ohio Relays, Jesse Blair, Dick Funkhouser, Larry Wilson, and Laurel Garman placed third in the mile relay event.

As a team, Otterbein finished fifth in the Ohio Conference.

Coached by Mike Kish and Robert Estes, the tennis team climbed into the win column by defeating Mt. Union for their first victory in two years.

The team was sparked by the play of Craig Brand, the number one man. Coach Kish said at the beginning of the season that Brand was one of the most promising freshmen ever to come to Otterbein and it seems as though Craig came through and proved the coach right.

Also valuable to the squad was Dick Russo, a transfer from Rutgers, who was ineligible his first year at Otterbein.

Sack race battles on Scrap Day take place under the watchful eyes of Varsity O members.

Besides being a letterman's club, organized to promote a greater interest in intercollegiate athletics, the Varsity O club of Otterbein College also promotes high standards and integrity of all its members in both athletic and social events. Working side by side with the administration and Student Council, the Varsity O helps to maintain the policies of the college.

Any male student who earns his varsity letter in a particular sport is eligible to become a member of this active group. Varsity O members select the Winter Homecoming Princess, sell concessions at football and basketball games, and help the freshmen obtain their traditional "beanies."

Varsity O members are distinguished from the rest of the campus by their cardinal sweaters upon which is placed a block tan letter "O."

Cheerleaders Boosted School Spirit

This year seven peppy Otterbein cheerleaders braved the wind and cold of football season to root the team on to victory. The basketball team was also cheered on by these girls. After being elected by the student body last spring, the cheerleaders planned pep rallies and assemblies to boost school spirit. Making banners, posters and attending daily practice sessions were additions to the work of these faithful cheerleaders.

Cheering Otterbein on to victory are: Marguerite Sims, Marilou Holford, Sally Banbury, Kathy Kanto, Marilyn Bamberger, Susan Knecht and Becky Wagner.

Hockey Team Showed Skill and Stamina

Members of the Hockey Team are-KNEELING: Sandy Zimmerman, Liz Arnold, Jean Thorn-dike, Marsha Lauderback, Marilyn Bamberger. STANDING: Marcia Baer, Sharon Hept, Ginny Walker, Elaine Koehler, Nancy Loudenslager, Sharon Milligan, Pat Buck, Sue Sain.

Team spirit is evident during a scrimmage.

Otterbein participates in an intercollegiate field hockey program with nearby schools. This year's schedule included the alumnae, Ohio State, Oberlin and Denison. A Field Hockey Sports Day was held at Otterbein this year. Colleges not normally competing with each other played a series of matches. Because of its success, future Hockey Sports Days are being considered.

The intramural program begins in November and is open to all college women. Each class usually has one team in the tournament of several weeks.

Enthusiasm Characterized Volleyball Team

Dora Potts goes up to block an attempted spike.

During the three month volleyball season the intercollegiate volleyball team played the alumnae, Wittenberg University, Ohio Wesleyan University and Capital University. They also participated in a mixed meet held at Oberlin College. Miss Marilyn Day serves as advisor for the volleyball team, and any college woman is eligible to try for a position on the team.

Basketball Team Competed Successfully

Marilyn Bamberger attempts to tie up the ball during a practice session.

The intercollegiate basketball team competed with Denison University, Capital University, Muskingum College, Ohio Wesleyan University and Ohio State University during their three month season. Miss Judy Jensen served as advisor for the team for which all college women are eligible. While no permanent records of wins and losses were kept, team members felt that they gained much in competitive experience and new friendships.

Spring Called Forth Softball

The intercollegiate softball team was organized in the spring with Miss Marilyn Day as advisor. All college women were invited to participate in the two games which were played with Capital University and Ohio State University. The participants found satisfaction in the spirit of competition and in new acquaintances.

The varied interests and abilities of Otterbein students are reflected in the many ORGANIZATIONS on campus. These include sororities and fraternities, honoraries and groups with special interests in the areas of religion, music, publications, politics and pre-professional training. Through organizations students experience the challenge of leadership and responsibility as well as the joys of friendship.

Councils Promote Friendship, Co-ordinate Activity

Members of Panhellenic Council are-SEATED: Marguerite Sims, Linda Bussard, Sandy Wilson, Sue Drinkhouse, Zoe Brown, Carol Snyder. STANDING: Kathy Ackerman, Arline Huff, Dee Bence, Lois Axline, Virginia Barnes, Maxine Daniels, Jeanne Leohner, Libby Holman, Sigrid Persson, Sandy Joseph, Lynn McCorkle, Nancy Dern, Chris Fetter, Carol Simmons.

Social events and sorority problems are the concern of the Panhellenic Council, which is organized to co-ordinate all sorority functions and to promote friendly relations among sororities. It is composed of three members from each sorority, and meets bi-weekly to keep the sororities moving toward common goals.

Social activities of the council include the Panhellenic Formal and Jump Week. It is also responsible for awarding a scholarship trophy each semester to the sorority with the highest over-all point average.

The Interfraternity Council serves as the co-ordinator of the activities of all the fraternities and is their official governing body. Composed of representatives of each fraternity, the major aim of the council is to stimulate the fraternities to constructive action by closer fellowship and common projects.

Social events include the Interfraternity Formal at which Miss T & C is selected. The council sponsors interfraternity sports and awards an athletic trophy as well as a scholarship trophy.

Costumed Pledges Entertained Campus

Greenwich artists "hitchhike" their way to entertain the actives.

Cheering Arcady pledges add spirit to the skits in Cowan Auditorium.

The sorority pledging is brought to a close by the arrival of Greek Week which is held the first three days of second semester. Greek Week activities were climaxed on Friday as the pledges appeared in garbs representative of artists, squirrels, owls, worms, cats, Scotties and little girls. Pledges counted endless steps and windows, conducted numerous surveys and performed skits as pledge classes on Cowan stage. With the end of Greek Week the lowly pledges were one step closer to that long awaited day of ACTIVATION!

Unusual "green worms" squirmed in the halls throughout the day.

"All Out!" produces results from Owl pledges.

More passengers embark on the Owls' elevator.

Wendall gets measured by two Kappa Scotties.

Mary Hall inspects an unusual Tau Delta graveyard.

EPSILON KAPPA TAU - Arbutus

"Eros Kai Timi" meaning "Love and Honor" is the motto of Epsilon Kappa Tau. The fourth oldest sorority on campus, Arbutus was organized in 1918, with pink and white as the official colors. The trailing Arbutus, a delicate pink, five-petaled flower was chosen as the sorority flower. The silver sword is the symbol of activation into Arbutus.

Early in the Fall, Arbutus presents "Holiday Inn," their annual all-campus event.

Officers of Arbutus are-SEATED: Lois Axline, president. STANDING: Mary Lou Keinath, vice-president; Jean Pflieger, treasurer; Lucy Schiffer, secretary.

RHO KAPPA DELTA - Arcady

Rho Kappa Delta, founded in 1923, returned to the campus actively in 1961 after a ten year absence. Eight pearls on the crescent shaped pin symbolize the eight original founders. The flowers are the purple pansy and the white carnation, with the official colors as burgundy and white. Arcady's sorority motto is "Thoughtful, Each of All" and they have chosen as their mascot the squirrel. They live each day under the objectives of obtaining knowledge, strengthening and encouraging friendship, and promoting recreation. This year Arcady sponsored Plymouth Rock as their all-campus event.

Posed with their sorority mascot, a squirrel, are the officers of Arcady: Nancy McClure, treasurer; Susy Gribler, vice-president; Marguerite Sims, president, and Ruth Freeman, secretary.

TAU DELTA - Deltas

Ten Otterbein alumnae officially organized Tau Delta sorority in 1921, with blue and white as the sorority colors. The club flowers are the white rose and the multi-colored sweet pea. Ten pearls are arranged in a circle on the sorority pin, symbolizing friendship. For their mascot Deltas have the Siamese cat, and the motto is "To thine own self be true." Deltas sponsor the Victory Dance after the Cap-Otter football game.

Officers of Tau Delta are: Linda McVay, treasurer; Julie Provan, vice-president; Nancy Dern, president; Grace Barnes, secretary.

ETA PHI MU - Jonda

Jonda, or Eta Phi Mu, was organized in 1923 by six men. Blue and gold are the colors, and the edelweiss, signifying bravery and purity, is the fraternity flower. The crest contains a gold circle, signifying friendship. The three points of the crest indicate the triangle of love: body, soul, and mind. Jonda was named for the love of Jonathan and David, and the motto is "Let Brotherly Love Continue."

The house is located on West Park Street, with rooms for 15 men. The all-campus event is the Bandshell Rendezvous in the fall.

PI KAPPA PHI - Country Club

Pi Kappa Phi or Country Club was founded in 1908 and so named because it first met outside the city limits. It was the only fraternity to remain active during World War II. The colors are orange and black, and the fraternity motto is "Stanch friends at all hazards." The crest is significant of the book of open-mindedness, with the noble head of a Caesar. The hands of friendship are clasped on crossed swords, and a group of four chevrons bind the men together.

The all-campus event is an annual Mardi Gras, New Orleans style, in the Alumni Gymnasium. The house is at 79 South Grove Street, with rooms for 21 men.

SIGMA DELTA PHI - Sphinx

Sphinx was organized on Otterbein's campus in 1919 and was active until World War II. Then, and in the Korean War, most of the members were called into service, and the fraternity never survived the crisis. It returned to the campus in 1962 after a ten-year hiatus. The motto is "Truth to us above all," and the colors are green and white. The fraternity newspaper is called the "grapevine." Their house is at 167 West Park Street.

Instead of an all-campus event, this year Sphinx sponsored a "Travel Board" in Towers, which helped students arrange transportation for vacation periods.

Officers of Sphinx are: Mace Ishida, vice-president; Bill Hankison, secretary; Ed Henn, president; Bob Kintigh, treasurer.

Outstanding Students Selected for Who's Who

Twenty juniors and seniors were selected this year to represent Otterbein in Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges by the Student Faculty Relations Committee. The purpose of the Who's Who organization is to give national recognition to worthy students on campuses across the United States. These students are nominated by campus organizations and faculty members on the basis of scholarship, personality, contribution to the college community and promise of future usefulness.

Outstanding Scholastic Achievement Recognized

Torch and Key (the Otterbein Scholars) is the senior scholastic organization at Otterbein. Founded in 1950, this society encourages and recognizes outstanding scholastic achievement. To be eligible for Torch and Key a student must have completed 90 semester hours of courses and must have a cumulative point average of 3.5 at the beginning of his senior year. Balance in course of study and high moral character, as well as academic standing, are requirements for membership.

Torch and Key members are-SEATED: Lucy Schiffer and Darlene Stoffer. STANDING: Dr. Turner, Dr. Price, Dr. Shackson, Dr. Bamforth, Dr. Frank, Ralph Ciampa, Mr. Recob.

Alpha Lambda Delta is a national scholastic honorary society for freshman women. In order to be eligible for membership, a freshman woman must have attained a grade point average of 3.5 at the end of the first semester or a 3.5 cumulative average at the end of the second semester. The purpose of Alpha Lambda Delta is to promote and encourage intellectual living among college women.

Science Honoraries Encouraged Proficiency

Alpha Epsilon Delta, premedical honor society, is represented at Otterbein by the Ohio Gamma chapter. This year's activities of the chapter included a series of medical films open to the entire campus and several visits to medical schools in Ohio. Alpha Epsilon Delta is also responsible for the campus blood drive and contributes to the annual science fair. At the national convention in Toledo the Otterbein chapter received the first place trophy in its division for outstanding activities.

The Epsilon chapter of Sigma Zeta, national science honorary, sponsored a variety of programs concerning science during the year. Lectures at meetings and a science fair for local high school students were two examples of their projects. The active membership is made up of juniors and seniors, although sophomores meeting the eligibility requirements may be selected as associate members.

Interesting Programs Characterized Honoraries

Cap and Dagger members are-SEATED: Dr. Price, Mrs. Fuller, Carol Rufener, Cede Blum, Ron Collins. STANDING: Dr. Hancock, Kathy Kanto, Martha Deever, Janet Lacey, Priscilla Secrist, Nancy Staats, David Sturges, Mr. Kropp.

Cap and Dagger seeks to promote interest among Otterbein students in various phases of the theater. Membership is granted to those upperclassmen who have received the specified number of points by acting in the productions or by working on the behind the scenes crews. Cap and Dagger also directs the One Acts and co-sponsors the spring recognition and awards banquet in conjunction with Theta Alpha Phi.

For the juniors and seniors who show talent in creative writing Quiz and Quill offers opportunity to discuss and utilize these interests. The club sponsors a literary contest each year awarding prizes to students who show outstanding ability in creative writing. A booklet of works by Otterbein and Quiz and Quill alumni, as well as current students, is published each spring.

Honoraries Rewarded Skill and Interest

To increase interest, stimulate creativeness and foster artistic achievement in all of the allied arts and crafts is the reason for the existence of the national dramatic honorary society, Theta Alpha Phi. Members must have an accumulation of dramatic points as well as a high scholastic average. By meeting the point requirement through directing or other technical assistance, the faculty may also become members of Theta Alpha Phi. Awards are made each year to the outstanding junior and senior for their parts in the year's dramatic productions.

Pi Kappa Delta, the national forensic honorary, exists to further interest in the areas of intercollegiate debate, public speaking, oral interpretation, oratory and extemporaneous speaking. Each year the Ohio Epsilon chapter sponsors such activities as rotating regional and national conferences and the annual Otterbein Holiday Debate Tournament to provide experience for its members in the various areas of public speaking.

Honoraries Rewarded Music Interests

Members of Delta Omicron are-ROW ONE: Carol Simmons, Diana Shawd, Kathy Stanley, Carol Sheaffer, Anita Russell. ROW TWO: Emily Heft, Ellen Williams, Naomi Weinert, Janice Perry.

The professional music fraternity for women at Otterbein is Delta Omicron, a national organization that pledges women music majors and minors who have a high scholastic and musical standing.

The local chapter was activated in the fall of 1955, and Delta Omicron has since that time provided leadership and inspiration in the field of music for many Otterbein women.

Serving as advisor to the local chapter is Professor Frieda Myers.

Kappa Kappa Psi is a national honorary fraternity for college bandmen who have played in the band for at least one semester and have a 2.5 average.

The fraternity's Gamma Omicron chapter was organized here in 1956 by Professor Robert Westrich, who has since been succeeded as advisor by Professor Alan Bradley.

In addition to promoting the interests of the college band, Kappa Kappa Psi serves the campus by publishing the Otterbein Student Directory, a listing of pertinent information about the students, faculty, and administration.

Religious Groups Served College Community

The Council of Christian Associations is responsible for coordinating the activities of the four campus religious organizations: Delta Tau Chi, the Otterbein Christian Student Association, the YWCA and the YMCA. The Council is composed of the president and the program chairman of the separate religious organizations, one representative from the Student Council, the President of the College, the College Chaplain and the Pastor of the First E.U.B. Church. Each year the CCA conducts a financial drive known as Student Sharing Week, carries out Religion-in-Life Week and plans periods of religious emphasis and spiritual life retreats.

The Greek letters, Delta Tau Chi, represent in the English translation the words "Servants of Christ." This organization is a pre-professional religious fraternity for those specifically planning for a career of religious service or those interested in one of the Christian vocations. Included in religious fields are the ministry, mission work and religious education. Students take part in the preparation of numerous programs including panel discussions, guest speakers and devotional services.

Sunday Discussion Groups Aid Understanding

Otterbein's Student Forum meets every Sunday morning after the regular worship service in the First E.U.B. Church. Students of every denomination are welcome to attend. Gary Olin is the student program planner. Lectures, panel discussions and group discussions range in topics from the meaning of life to social pressures on the campus. About fifty students regularly attend this group which is a member organization of O.C.S.A.

Chaplain Recob, Marge Lloyd, Gary Olin and Rick Peterson present a panel discussion for Student Forum.

Working as the co-ordinating body for all campus Christian organizations which are connected with the First E.U.B. Church, is the Otterbein Christian Student Association. This group has representatives from all campus religious organizations and seeks to help these organizations work together successfully.

Spiritual Need Met Through Worship Groups

The Mid-Week Prayer Group of Otterbein College meets in the First E.U.B. Church on Wednesday evenings for a program which includes Bible study, prayer and singing. The purpose of this group is to provide a needed break in the busy college week. Mid-Week is sponsored by O.C.S.A. and is directed by Jim Million.

Ron Hanft leads the Mid-Week group in devotions.

Rick Peterson speaks at Mid-Day which is held in the chapel of the First E.U.B. Church.

. Any student who needs spiritual and mental relaxation during the day may attend Mid-Day Quiet Time in the chapel of the First E.U.B. Church. A real spiritual need is met by the meaningful ten minute programs. The group is directed by Lois Augenstein, who assigns other students to help with the programs. Mid-Day Quiet Time is sponsored by O.C.S.A.

To gain spiritual growth through increasing knowledge and appreciation of sacred music, both as an art and as a form of worship, and to interpret to others by means of public performance the artistic and spiritual message of the music, are the aims of the A Cappella Choir.

This year the choir, under the direction of Mr. Richard Chamberlain, toured extensively in the East. For the second year in a row they gave a concert in the pentagon-this year by popular demand.

The choir is composed of 48 students chosen from the college by competitive audition on the basis of potential vocal and musical ability and personality.

Precision, Military Uniforms and Full Sound of thi

Otterbein's marching band forms the traditional O Cat half time.

Band officers Jim Clawson and Tom Beck discuss the next performance with Mr. Bradley.

The Otterbein Marching Band, one of only three such organizations in the Ohio Conference, gives opportunity for interested instrumentalists to participate in the outdoor musical activities of the fall semester. These include football games, parades and pep rallies. Another purpose of the band is to provide a practical application of classroom learning for music majors, some of whom have written shows which were performed on the field. Under the direction of Professor Alan Bradley, the band marches at the command of drum major Jerry Bishop. The band officers-Tom Beck, president; Jim Clawson, vice-president; Kay Blackledge, secretary-treasurer; Harold Toy, business manager; and Bill O'Neal, librarian-with the help of Kappa Kappa Psi, National Honorary Band Fraternity, handle the non-musical details that plague any performing organization.

ROW FOUR: Jim Gallagher, Harry Peat, Frank Tippet, Emily Heft, Marge Lloyd, Mr. Alan Bradley-conductor.

One of the outstanding music organizations of Otterbein College is the Concert Band. Led by Professor Bradley, the band is very active on the Otterbein campus. Besides giving concerts, the band also plays for theater productions. Membership in this organization is based on competitive audition.

Professor Bradley conducts the Concert Band.

Brass Ensemble Contributed to Campus Life

Because it is the only ensemble of its kind in Central Ohio, the Brass Ensemble has given Otterbein College a great distinction. Being made up of either students who play in the college band or students who take private lessons and are recommended by their instructors the Brass Ensemble maintains a busy schedule. In addition to giving a concert each semester, the group also goes on a spring tour. The size of the group varies according to the instrumentation demands at the time.

George Maibach and Tom Beck show the proficiency that makes them valued members of the Brass Ensemble.

Interested Students Increased Knowledge

Professor Lawrence Frank is advisor to the Organist Guild which is composed of students taking organ lessons and any other interested students on campus. Members are encouraged to widen their appreciation and knowledge of organ music by attending recitals both on campus and in the Franklin County area. This year the guild met once a month in the faculty dining room to discuss such topics as hymn playing, wedding music and types of organs. They also sponsored one recital and gave one recital during the year.

The Music Educators National Conference, with Professor Lee Shackson as its advisor, was organized for the benefit of music education majors who plan to teach either vocal or instrumental music in public schools. At its regular meetings guest speakers presented interesting facets of public school music teaching. Principles and techniques of music teaching were discussed and studied. Other activities included assisting with local contests and clinics and attending music conventions. These activities are important in helping to prepare the members for careers in music education.

WOBN Serves College and Community

WOBN, Otterbein's FM radio station, was founded in 1958. Under the guidance of station manager Stew Sanders, program director Sandy Brenfleck and chief engineer Dick Bennett, WOBN serves Otterbein, Westerville and the surrounding area. With studios and transmitters located in Cowan Hall, it broadcasts from seven to eleven every night. WOBN also airs chapel and Freshman Forum programs, First E.U.B. services, and most football and basketball games. The station is run by a staff of about forty students with the help of advisors Dr. Grissinger and Mr. Thayer of the Speech Department.

Mickey Foltz and Gail Miller broadcast over WOBN.

Keith Kaufman, Ted Baranet and Gordon Gregg keep WOBN on the air.

Organizations Lead to Professional Growth

The Otterbein chapter of the Student Education Association strives to provide opportunities for personal and professional growth and to develop leadership skills. The student association tries to deepen the interest of capable students in teaching as a career; encourage the careful selection and guidance of persons admitted to teacher education programs; and through higher standards of preparation and the dissemination of information, contribute to a reasonable balance in teacher supply and demand. From a basic understanding of the history, ethics, and programs of the local and national groups and participation in professional activities, they hope to fulfill their basic goals.

Practice and Skill Produced Victories

AFROTC drill team stands at attention during an afternoon practice.

Two important extra-curricular activities of the Otterbein AFROTC are the rifle team and the drill team. These groups competed successfully this year with teams from many other colleges and universities.

Operating as members and under the rules of the National Rifle Association, the corps rifle team defeated Kenyon College, Denison University and Ohio Wesleyan University in shoulder-to-shoulder matches. "Postal" match victories were achieved over schools such as Rutgers, Colorado State University, Washington State University and the University of Southern California.

The AFROTC drill team was also very active, engaging in matches with nearby Ohio college teams as well as an area meet at Gannon College. Climaxing the drill! team's season was the annual trip to Washington, D.C., for participation in national competition at the Cherry Blossom Festival.

Pi Epsilon, founded in the spring of 1956, is an organization for women majoring or minoring in physical education at Otterbein. The purpose, to promote professional growth in the Women's Physical Education Department, is attained through such activities as attending sports clinics, officiating intramural sports, discussing controversial professional issues and introducing new and unusual sports.

Perhaps the challenge most easily met, and yet the most rewarding, is the challenge of PEOPLE. The close relationship of roommates, rewarding association with classmates and valued friendship of faculty members and administrators all make an important contribution to the personality of each student. Through these friendships interests broaden and ideas develop, helping each student to become a well-rounded person.

President Turner Leads Otterbein

The warm, friendly spirit of Otterbein College is reflected in its president, Dr. Lynn W. Turner. Besides co-ordinating the work of the faculty, deans and trustees, President Turner works with various student-faculty committees to further understanding within the college community. He spends much of his time representing Otterbein in meetings and conventions as well as speaking to alumni clubs in order to keep them up to date on Otterbein's progress. In addition to his administrative work President Turner shows his interest in students through informative talks and participation in campus traditions such as the Bonfire Serenade and the All-Campus Christmas Program.

Trustees Work for Otterbein's Future

Members of the executive board-E. N. Funkhouser, Jr., Homer D. Cassel, Millard J. Miller, Mrs. F. O. Clements, L. William Steck, Emerson C. Shuck, Mum B. Klepinger, Rex C. Smith, Elmer A. Schultz and Harold L. Boda-talk to President Turner.

The Board of Trustees, which meets annually, is primarily concerned with the financial welfare of the college. They set the tuition and decide in which areas the college funds are most needed. This year they were active in the promotion of the "Million Dollar Campaign."

Members of the board are selected from the alumni of the college. Twenty-four of the forty-seven members are selected from the various E.U.B. annual conferences. Ten are elected by the alumni and ten are elected by the other trustees. Completing the membership are an ex officio, an advisory, and an honorary member.

Many areas of work are represented on the board. There are twenty-one E.U.B. ministers, seven educators, four in public service, two physicians, two attorneys and eight businessmen.

In the office of Dr. Wade S. Miller the Otterbein College of the future takes shape. Dr. Miller, in charge of development, is responsible for the raising of the funds used for future enlargement of college facilities.

Registrar Floyd J. Vance and his assistant Mr. Peter Baker seem quite happy as they view the Dean's List.

Dean's List, probation list and the various point averages between are compiled and recorded in the registrar's office. The smooth procedure at registration is the result of the work of this office.

Administrators Strive Diligently to Help Students

The office of the treasurer is of first concern to many Otterbein students. The treasurer, Mr. Albert Horn, collects payment for bills and keeps a record of all student accounts. He is also responsible for the payment of all college bills.

Mr. Horn accepts a check from student Curt Moore.

Deans Set the Tone

Dr. David Waas, Dean of the College, congratulates an honor student.

Dr. David A. Waas, Dean of the College, is in charge of the academic side of college life. He is concerned with curriculum study, faculty teaching load and academic enrichment.

Mr. Marion Chase, Dean of Students, is responsible for the non-academic phase of college life. In spite of his heavy schedule, his close contact with students assures them that he is working for their welfare.

Dean of Students, Mr. Marion Chase, chats with students.

for College Life

Mr. Jack Corkery, Otterbein's Dean of Men, takes a personal interest in the well-being of each male student. His responsibilities include counseling, advisory duties for campus groups, fraternities, and men's housing. He tries to help every student achieve success in college life.

A junior counselor seeks Dean Corkery's advice.

Dean of Women Miss Joanne VanSant coordinates all relations between women students and the college. Her office has charge of the social calendar, women's housing, and sororities. In addition to being advisor to the Panhellenic Council, Women's Student Government Board and Alpha Lambda Delta, she is a personal counselor for all women concerning every facet of college life.

Miss VanSant's office is always open to any students who wish to see her.

Mr. Arthur L. Shultz is executive secretary of the Otterbein College Alumni Association and editor of Otterbein Towers. He is also Director of Church Relations for Otterbein. This year he worked for the "Focus-on-Achievement" financial campaign to raise one million dollars for campus buildings and endowed scholarships.

Mr. Craig Gifford is the director of the newly-created Office of College Information. He is responsible for all news releases to newspapers, radio and television about Otterbein activities, including athletics. In addition he handles all college printing and assists in preparing copy for printing if requested. Mr. Gifford is also the advisor to the Tan and Cardinal and the Sibyl.

Mr. Michael Kish is Director of Admissions and Chairman of the Admissions Committee. It is his responsibility to recruit a new freshman class each year through High School Day; visits to high schools and churches; and work with students, alumni, ministers and Otterbein women's groups.

Mr. Easley Witt is Director of Institutional Research and Testing. He is also an assistant in the admissions office.

Students, Faculty and Alumni

Chaplain Recob greets students and faculty at chapel.

Mr. Sanders A. Frye serves as business manager for the college.

Counseling, speaking, teaching and helping to plan chapel programs are a few of the activities that keep the college chaplain, Mr. James B. Recob, busy each day. Chaplain Recob welcomes students to his office to talk over problems or just to get acquainted.

The mimeographing for all classes and campus organizations is done under the direction of Mr. "Red" Moreland.

The business office is responsible for many departments which are vital in keeping Otterbein running smoothly. All purchasing is done through this office, and most of the departments obtain supplies here. Mail and the lost and found department add to the responsibilities of the business manager, Mr. Sanders Frye and his assistant, Mr. Albert Sanders.

Mr. Sanders and Mrs. Davis find a point of interest on the map.

Librarians, Residents, Nurses and

The Centennial Library is ably staffed by professional librarians. Mrs. Miller, Mr. Becker, Mrs. MacKenzie, Mrs. Hershberger and their 20 student assistants are always ready to help students make the most of the facilities which include listening rooms, individual study carrels and over 55,000 volumes.

Mrs. McGee is the official hostess of the Guest House. She extends a friendly welcome to guests of the college as she attends to their comfort. Often she entertains various campus organizations that wish to hold formal meetings in the Guest House.

The head residents of Otterbein's campus are a rare mixture of the gracious hostess and willing confidant. Their helpfulness and interest is appreciated by every girl from freshman to senior. Seated are Mrs. Bigham of Clements Hall and Mrs. Weber of King Hall. Standing are Mrs. Bookwater of Saum Hall, Mrs. Stoughton of Hanby Hall and Mrs. Smith of Cochran Hall.

Cooks Strive to Help Students

On twenty-four hour vigil are Otterbein's staff of nurses-Dee Bence, Mrs. Kintigh, Mrs. Crane and Judy Minshall. In addition to the nursing staff four Westerville doctors serve students who need their care. Mrs. Botts, as receptionist, is kept busy organizing the innumerable daily records.

Thirty-two cooks have the never-ending job of the daily preparation of food.

Heading the food preparation process at Barlow Hall are Miss Reinheimer and Mrs. Jacobs.

The task of feeding and pleasing hungry Otterbein students is a phenomenal one, but one that is well handled by the cooks at Barlow Hall. This year in order to ease crowded conditions meal hours were lengthened.

English Department Develops High Standards

Members of the English Department are-ROW ONE: Mrs. Ray, Mrs. Fuller, Mrs. Nelson. ROW TWO: Mr. Ribman, Mr. Coulter, Mr. Storer, Mr. Ray, Dr. Price.

The English Department of Otterbein College, under the direction of Dr. Robert Price, has continued to maintain and develop high standards of proficiency in grammar, literature and creative writing. While grading mounds of freshman themes, the members of the department manage to extend to upperclassmen a wide variety of literature. The Quiz and Quill Club, sponsored by the English Department, produces one of the oldest continuously published literary magazines in Ohio. The Barnes Short Story Contest and the Roy Burkhart Poetry Contest are promoted through the department and serve as a means of creative expression out of class.

Films, Slides and Tapes Aid Student

Using films, slides and tape recordings, Otterbein professors have caused a new interest to develop in foreign languages. Through the use of tapes, French, Spanish, and German students learn to speak the language before learning to read it. French students, through movies filmed in France, gain an insight into the customs and culture of the foreign land while learning the language. The department, under the direction of Dr. Gilbert Mills, rounds off its curriculum with a Greek course offered in alternate years.

Dr. Mills prepares to teach a class using the Film-Text method.

Mr. Neff and Miss Wilson admire a display of Latin American flags.

n Acquiring Language Proficiency

Miss Cristy and Jllrs. Hopkins adjust the console in the new French lab.

French assistants Regina Fehrens and Jean Foulard are alrnys rndy to aid language students.

Dr. O'Bear helps German students perfect their pronunciation.

Speech and Drama Enliven Cowan Hall

Cowan Memorial Hall is the center of business for the Department of Speech and Drama. Included in the five major areas offered by the department are speech science, radio-TV, public speaking, speech education and theatre. Theta Alpha Phi, Cap and Dagger, Pi Kappa Delta and the debate team are sponsored by the Speech Department. Such activities as debate tournaments, oratory contests, Festival of Arts, FM radio station WOBN and dramatic productions are also under the direction of this department.

Mrs. Nancy Norris, Dr. Grissinger, Mr. Chase, Mr. Dodrill and Mr. Thayer pause to relax in the Green Room.

Visual Arts Aid Appreciation

Mr. Hassenpflug and Mrs. Frank admire a new addition to Lambert Hall's art collection.

The Visual Arts Department strives to help students develop and appreciate the expression of man through the arts. The department tries to reach this goal by offering courses beginning with Basic Art and going through Advanced Sculpture, and by offering extracurricular activities. Lambert Hall houses a fine collection of student art, an original painting collection and a lending gallery which is available to the student body each year.

Biology and Chemistry Departments

Looking at a frog which will soon be seen on a lab practical are Mr. Botts, Mr. Phinney, Dr. Willis, Dr. Grodner and Dr. Tegenkamp.

The Biology Department, under the leadership of Dr. Jeanne Willis, presents a continuous challenge to each of its students. In seeking to acquaint each person, whether he is in the freshman course or one of the many advanced courses, with the knowledge and application of the many intricacies of the process of life, this department strives to maintain the highest possible standards. The addition of a new laboratory and the remodeling of two others during the past year have further increased the effectiveness of this department. Two new professors, Dr. Tegenkamp and Mr. Phinney, joined Mr. Botts, Dr. Grodner and Dr. Willis to complete this year's teaching staff.

>romote Scientific Knowledge

Although many students have a rather limited knowledge of the science which is taught by the department headed by Dr. Lyle J. Michael, none of them can deny the importance of it to their lives. Because chemistry is organized common sense based firmly on quantitative experiments, it provides even the casual observer with excellent training in careful observation and logical thinking. All those who study this science are challenged by Dr. Michael and his staff to accelerate the recent progress in chemistry.

Members of the Chemistry Department are Dr. Michael, Mr. Crane, Dr. Morton and Dr. Turley.

News Goals Were Reached Through the Stud)

Because of the increasing importance mathematics is playing in the field of science, more emphasis is being placed on mathematics both as a major field and as a subordinate objective to other major fields.

The mathematics department of Otterbein College offers its students a basic background for advanced study in the fields of education, engineering and industry.

A former professor at Otterbein, Dr. Bamforth is back as departmental head. Other members of this department include Mr. Estes, Mr. McCloy, Mr. Molyneux and Mr. Wiley.

Members of the Mathematics Department are Mr. Wiley, Mr. Estes and Dr. Bamforth.

of Mathematics, Physics and Astronomy

Mr. Molyneux, Mr. Cook and Mr. Barnhart help students meet the challenge of physics.

The Physics and Astronomy Department of Otterbein College provides a student with not only the technical background necessary for graduate study, but also with the cultural background necessary for any vocation; thus it enables a student to become better acquainted with the physical universe around him.

The department headed by Mr. Barnhart, includes Mr. Cook and Mr. Molyneux. They attempt to fulfill the needs of each student. In so doing, new courses are offered by the department to fulfill those needs.

The Weitkamp Observatory and Planetarium, located on the roof of the McFadden Science Hall, is an outstanding feature of this department.

Students Prepare to Enter Business World

The Department of Business Administration and Economics prepare students for the many different careers of today's business world. Secretaries, accountants and business administrators receive their training from this department, which is headed by Dr. Bert Glaze. Working with Dr. Glaze are Mr. Lovenstein and Mr. Miles.

Three major fields are represented in this department. These are business education, business administration and economics. This department also sponsors the Society for the Advancement of Management, an active group on Otterbein's campus.

Reading current reports keeps Dr. Glaze in step with changes in the business world.

History and Government Further Understanding

The History and Government Department, under the leadership of Dr. Harold Hancock, helps to further the understanding of the present by first understanding the past and its effect on the world today. Constitutions. Varied political theories and governments are examined, all helping to build knowledge and to develop interest in places beyond the usual vistas. A Washington semester plan is sponsored by this department for those having qualifying academic scholarship and genuine interest in the fields of history and government.

Dr. Hancock greets a recent speaker after chapel.

Dr. Laibach, Mrs. Thirston and Dr. Holterman listen to a tape of a History of Civilization lecture.

Sociology and Psychology Broaden Interests

Mrs. Karsko and Dr. Combs find time to talk during a busy day.

The Department of Sociology and Psychology offers basic courses for those students who wish to add to their general background of information, and more technical courses for those who are preparing for graduate school. Under the chairmanship of Dr. Albert Lovejoy, this department promotes field trips and actual experience in social work.

Mr. Howard and Dr. Lovejoy post information of interest to sociology students.

Religion and Philosophy Stimulate Re-evaluation

The Department of Religion and Philosophy, headed by Dr. Paul Ackert, offers students the opportunity to become familiar with the great ideas of history. Philosophy challenges the student to question and investigate until he arrives at those beliefs which are his own.

Of special interest is the minor in Christian Service which is offered to those students who wish to prepare themselves to participate actively in the religious leadership of their church and community.

Mr. Amy, Dr. Ackert and Mr. Recob examine a map of the Holy Land.

Music Department Promoted Hig]

Dr. Shackson selects a record from the music library.

The sound of music is always coming from Lambert Hall. Dr. Lee Shackson is chairman of the Music Department which offers opportunities for all students in the college to come in contact with music as an elected study through participation in music organizations. Among these organizations are Men's Glee Club, Women's Glee Club, A Cappella Choir, Brass Ensemble, College-Community Orchestra and the College Band - all of which are open to students by audition.

tandards Vocally and Instrumentally

Dr. Paul Frank, Mr. Lawrence Frank and Miss Myers spend many hours each week with lessons and classes.

Mr. Chamberlain, Mrs. Johnston and Mr. Bradley pause to chat during their busy day.

Future Teachers Receive Instruction

Dr. Addington and Mr. Raver discuss a chart on grouping.

Mr. Vigilante and Dr. Pagan use visual aids in instructing future teachers.

The Education Department, under the direction of Dr. Chester Addington, is kept busy preparing the large number of students who enter the teaching profession. In keeping with the many advances in education this department has developed a professional semester which will go into effect next year. Under this plan a student reserves one semester of his senior year entirely for education courses.

Mrs. Anderson awaits one of her advisees in her office.

Mrs. Gill helps girls to solve problems in clothing construction.

Otterbein's Home Economics Department provides educational progress for individual, home, and family living. Students are prepared for careers in teaching, nursery school work, and homemaking. Background courses are offered for those interested in the commercial field, dietetics, food service, or textiles. The Home Economics Club is sponsored by this department. This year Otterbein was host to the College Home Economics Club Regional Conference. Seven schools participate in the program. This year's theme was "Art in the Home."

Home Economics Majors Prepare for Careers

Mrs. Joyce and Miss Holmes pause for a chat while preparing lessons.

Physical Education Offers Fun and Variety

It is time for a break in a busy day for Miss Day, Miss VanSant, Miss Jensen, Miss Tyler and their friend Rebel.

The Women's Physical Education Department offers a wide variety of activities for participation. Among these are hockey, square dancing, archery, bowling, golf, modern dance, basketball, volleyball, softball, tennis, and outing. The WAA, under departmental leadership, sponsors intramural programs among sororities and classes. Inter-collegiate competition with nearby colleges and universities is also offered.

Mr. Pflieger, Mr. Zarbaugh, Mr. Agler and Mr. Yoest take a look at the sports page of the T & C.

As a member of the Ohio Conference Association, the Men's Physical Education Department of Otterbein College directs intercollegiate participation on the varsity level in such sports as football, basketball, cross-country, wrestling, baseball, track, tennis, and golf. For those not interested in varsity athletics, the department sets up intramural competition. In this way everyone has a chance to participate in a sport.

ROTC Provides Officer Training

Sergeant Page and Sergeant Cromer help Larry Ishida achieve a military appearance.

The Air Force Reserve Officers' Training Corps has as its new associate Professor of Air Science, Major William G. Comstock. Filling out his staff are Captain Phillip F. Rice, Technical Sergeant Roy F. Cromer, and Staff Sergeant Arnold Page. Through this four year course, young men are trained to become officers in the United States Air Force, and those meeting the requirements will receive the commission of Second Lieutenant in the United States Air Force Reserve.

Each division and special group, such as the rifle team, color guard, and drill team, is honored by a corps sponsor. The Military Ball, sponsored by this department, highlights the end of each year.

Senior Class Officers Served Well

Looking at their last copy of the Sibyl are senior class officers: Dick Berry, president; Pete Allaman, treasurer; Marilyn Bamberger, secretary and Jim Thomas, vice-president.

The concluding year for the class of '63 has been a memorable one. Their contribution to campus life is evident in areas of scholarship, leadership and friendship. They look toward the challenge of life away from Otterbein with both joy and sorrow, taking many memories with them.

Juniors Met the Challenge of Increased

Juniors elected as their class officers Sally Banbury, secretary; Dick Russo, vice-president; Kathy Kanta, treasurer and Mike Doney, president.

The class '64 developed many leaders who demonstrated their abilities throughout their initial three years at Otterbein and assumed their roles as organization heads. The class worked with spirit and co-operation as they co-sponsored the Junior-Senior Dance and guided the freshmen as junior counselors.

Responsibility and Looked Ahead With Mixed Emotions

Juniors Kathy Kanto and Bob Kaderly discover that studying is more fun as a twosome.

Busy as they are, juniors find time for the union. Barb Maurer, Holt Wilson, and Marilyn Shute get help from kibitzers Sally Banbury and Bob Ogur.

Sophomores Showed Supremacy on Scrap Da)

Sophomores take pride in their class officers-Diane Weaston, secretary; Jerry Anderson, treasurer; Tom Kintigh, vice-president and Jan Sorgenfrei, president.

The spirited sophomores came to the campus with an air of excitement for their new role as upperclassmen. After taking the Scrap Day events in an uncomfortably close race with the frosh, the sophomores entered into the full swing of healthy class rivalry.

Ray Leffler and Jim Wacker discover the sophomore privilege of teasing a cute freshman about her beanie.

Your Mirror of Life Will Always Reflect the Fond Memories at Otterbein

Dear Seniors,

Life is like a mirror ... everywhere you go, everything you do ... every acquaintance, personal or business, will bring back some fond memory of Otterbein College.

As you walk down the road of life, day after day, your past will be remembered, the fun you had, the education you received, the friends you made, the professors you knew, the team you cheered, the school you loved . . . but regardless of which way you look, Otterbein College will be in the picture.

Otterbein is proud of the education it has offered . . . proud of the fact that alumni continually turn back and look with respect toward the college. Otterbein is indeed happy that so many of its alumni from coast to coast have organized to help their college. So often an alumnus writes to report the successes of another ... or an "alum" checks back to his Alma Mater in hopes of finding another good Otterbein man or woman for a key position.

Otterbein is a part of your life . . . it will live with you forever . . . be proud of Otterbein . . . Otterbein is proud of you . . .

It is with mixed emotions that we see the class of 1963 accept their diplomas and head on into life . . . we are of course happy and proud, but in the four years that you have been on campus, you have become a part of our family ... and you'll be missed ... but there's little doubt about your future ... records tell us Otterbein graduates are successful ... we're sure you will be no exception ... we wish you God's speed and extend an open invitation to return to the campus ... we're always interested and happy to know about the newest members of the Otterbein family . . . and of course, like any parent, extremely proud . . . we hope your mirror of life will always keep Otterbein in focus.

Sincerely,

The President, Administration, Faculty, and Staff

Otterbein College

The 1963 Sibyl Becomes Part of the

We, the members of the yearbook staff, are proud to present the 1963 Sibyl - a pictorial review of the challenge of this year at Otterbein.

There are many versions of the story from which the Sibyl received its name; the following one was printed in the 1917 Sibyl and seems most appropriate.

Long, long ago there lived in the land of Apollo a beautiful Greek goddess, Sibylla, who, according to an old legend, became enamored with the sun god and desired to find some way in which to prove her love.

Scattered throughout the world were the tiny leaves of the great oak tree of knowledge, upon which Apollo had inscribed in golden ink the names and fates of individuals. Sibylla determined to search far and wide until she had collected these leaves, and then present them to Apollo as a lasting proof of her devotion. The path over which she traveled was rocky and lined with many thorns, and the task became more and more difficult. After many years of searching she returned to Apollo.

"This is the fruit of my toil," said the weary woman, spreading before Apollo her ponderous volumes. "Here are nine Sibyllan books, but the tenth is yet to be found."

Her task completed, Sibylla then vanished from the world ...

The 1963 Sibyl is not intended to be the tenth Sibyllan book, but it is in many ways similar to those ancient volumes. Just as Sibylla searched far and wide in spite of many difficulties for the oak leaves to present to Apollo, we have struggled to collect the golden leaves of college to present to our readers. As Sibylla, having collected only nine of the ten books, disappeared from the world, we too, having done our best, leave much to be done by our successors.

We hope that the 1963 Sibyl will long remind its readers of the people, places and events that are part of life at Otterbein.

Otterbein Love Song

In a quiet peaceful village,
There is one we love so true.
She ever gives a welcome
To her friends both old and new.
She stands serene
'Mid tree tops green
She is our dear Otterbein.

Old Otterbein, our college,
We sing of thee today;
Our memories round thee linger,
In a sweet and mystic way.
O Otterbein, we love thee,
Our hearts are only thine,
We pledge anew,
We will be true,
Dear Otterbein.

Her halls have their own message
Of truth and hope and love;
She guides her youths and maidens
To the life that looks above.
Her stately tower
Speaks naught but power,
For our dear Otterbein.
